WOMAN HELD ON INSANITY CHARGE

Deputy Sheriff Says Mrs. Myrtle Erwin Attempted to Cut Throat.

Mrs. Myrtle Erwin was arrested this morning by deputy sheriff W. D. Greer on a warrant charging her with insanity, sworn out by her husband, Carroll Erwin, according to the deputy.

Greer says that while he was at the El Paso Rooming house, in company with the woman's husband, she broke away, ran to the dresser in the room and there secured a piece of a broken chimney with which she cut a gash on her throat.

The wound, he says, was about three inches long, but was not deep. The patient was taken to the county jail and there she was attended by a doctor.

ELKS HAVE SMOKER AND LOTS OF FUN

Happy Hour Performers Entertain Newly Installed Officers and Members.

The El Paso Elks had a big time at their smoker in the local clubhouse last evening. After the installation, there was a spread and a smoker, with an interesting program, the principal feature of which was a program rendered by the performers at the Happy Hour theater.

Following the installation, the program was opened by an address from newly installed exalted ruler Walter Scott, and the drinking of a toast, proposed by V. R. Stiles, to all the new officers.

H. R. Wood then recited and B. F. McNulty, a former grand lodge trustee, spoke a few words of encouragement. Maury Kemp, Dr. G. H. Higgins and retiring exalted ruler Geo. E. Wallace made addresses. By this time the Happy Hour theater performers, accompanied by managers Fogg and Booth arrived. This part of the program proved very entertaining. C. F. Holmes, chairman of the social committee, had the affair in charge, and introduced the performers.

Joseph D. Carroll made a hit with his songs and stories, and was encored two or three times.

Nat Wolf, in his monolog, was given an enthusiastic reception. Conny Forbes appeared to fine advantage in several songs and was wildly applauded, especially his "Mendelssohn Rag."

Mr. and Mrs. Dreyer, whose dancing has attracted much notice, fairly set the crowd wild with their work.

At the conclusion the Elks gave the Happy Hour performers a rising vote of thanks.

The officers installed were: Exalted ruler—Walter H. Scott. Esteemed leading knight—C. A. Fuller. Esteemed loyal knight—Dr. J. W. Yard. Esteemed delecting knight—Jack P. Dawson.

Secretary—H. Y. Ellis. Treasurer—Jno. M. Wyatt. Tyler—A. T. Samworth. Esquire—Eugene Harris. Inner guard—J. J. Kaster. Trustees—V. R. Stiles and Ed. Kneezell. C. A. Kinne holds over.

Grand lodge representatives—Geo. 2 Wallace and Dr. George H. Higgins.

JOHN MORRISON STRUCK BY AUTO: SLIGHTLY INJURED

A street car going east, an auto going west and John Morrison standing on the corner of San Antonio and El Paso streets was tip setting for a near tragedy this morning.

The auto was driven by H. Clay Dyer, of the Matthews & Dyer Realty company. He was on his way to the station when the accident occurred. Morrison, who is a carpenter, was standing at the intersection of the two streets waiting for a street car to pass down San Antonio street.

When the auto came upon him, from behind, he jumped back and the auto collided with him, passing over his foot and bruising his left arm. He was taken to a physician by Mr. Dyer where his injuries were examined and found to be slight.

EXONERATES SON FROM ALL BLAME

Brother of Mrs. O'Rear Tells of the Circumstances of Her Death.

Editor El Paso Herald:
Relative to the death of Mrs. O'Rear at Kelly, N. M., and the arrest and subsequent release of her son, Ernest O'Rear, the following are the facts and can be vouched for by all who have known the family for years. In the first place, the boy had a love for his mother seldom surpassed by a son for a mother, and which love seemed to have been his undoing, as it was his loving hands that administered to her last wants here on this earth and led to his arrest.
On Saturday morning, March 19th, Ernest O'Rear left his home in company with his two little sisters, one aged 11, the other 7, and their father, who was leaving home to take the train for Socorro. Returning home, on entering the house, they found a pool of blood at the door and another at the foot of a steep stairway, which frightened them very much. Upon rushing upstairs they found their mother lying upon the bed. On asking what the matter was, she said she had fallen down stairs, breaking her arm and nose, and asking that her son go for a doctor at once.

The daughters, wishing the mother to be in a presentable condition when the doctor came, removed the wrapper on which the blood had flowed from her nose and put on her night-dress. She had been in a very delicate state of health for some time, having received a serious fall from a buggy a short time before.

All things combined caused her death and she passed away on Sunday morning, March 20. For the sake of the three helpless girls, who have to face a world ever ready to believe the worst of its fellow creatures; for the sake of a boy whose future will ever be blackened by those cruel assertions, give these facts as they stand, to the world, through your paper.

She was my only sister and had there been a semblance of truth in any of those accusations I would have been the first to have wished the guilty one brought to justice. As it is, God alone must deal with those who through their slandorous statements have brought this terrible disgrace upon the family already bowed with grief.

Ed. Briensteine.

A TUCSON COUPLE SOUGHT BY OFFICERS

Said to Have Left El Paso and Gone to Guadalupe—Women Is Wanted on Kidnaping Warrant.

Tucson, Ariz., April 6.—Marian Malarkey, the trained nurse who fled from El Paso to Guadalupe, Mexico, Monday, with John Scanlon, a wealthy mine owner and business man of this city, on learning that they were about to be arrested on charges respectively of kidnaping and insanity, has been sought on a Tucson warrant since last summer. She was accused at that time of having kidnaped Scanlon, the complaint having been filed by August Keigel, the latter's guardian.
Following the flight of Miss Malarkey the United States district court issued an injunction restraining her from disposing of any of the mine owner's property. This case has been fought bitterly in the local courts.

The couple was supposed to have been at the Angelus hotel last week and to have left there Monday for Mexico.
