MY ALLIES

(By John Kendrick Bangs.)

Faith, Hope and Love—let these my allies be, All fibered with the woof of Charity. These at my side, I'll win my way through all— It matters not what trials may befall. Let foes come on, we'll put the host to rout, And face with courage Fear, Despair and Doubt!

PARTIES, MISCELLANEOUS. One of the enjoyable affairs of the week was the picnic given last Saturday afternoon, under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis. About 50 people enjoyed the affair. Mr. Meyer took the young people and the children on a hay wagon and their cheers could be heard all along the way to the picnic grounds at Woodlawn park. Supper was the treat of the occasion.
WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN Church will entertain with a social on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. D. Love, 700 Upson avenue.
A very enjoyable dance was given last night by the members of the Terpsichorean club and their friends at the Elks' home. Refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Besse Plig, Lucille Frise, Pauline Sprinz, Loreta Brick, Jane Lindsay, Beatrice Booth, Julia Poole, Dean, Phinney, Mary Phinney, Crawford, Pierce, Brown, Clark, Anderson, Rogers and Berkey; Messrs. Cowan, Kiesler, McCandiss, Dunn, Meyer, Heid, Schuster, Harris, Dr. Clutter, Dean, Fowler, Nasis, Miller, Wallwork, Fraser, Lindsay, Wood, Peterson and Mayfield. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Christie and Mr. and Mrs. Filmore chaperoned the young folks.
Tuesday evening was the occasion of a beautiful moonlight entertainment given at Fort Hancock by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Masson, in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. The hosts received several useful presents from their many friends. The evening was enjoyably spent in singing, dancing and playing games, after which the party retired to the dining room, where they were served with refreshments. The dining room table was decorated with roses, lilies and ferns, rendering a beautiful and pleasing effect.
Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Marion Hughey, Marie Walsh, Marjorie Walsh and Anna Belle Lavis; Mesdames L. M. Hemley, Kate Bowles, S. S. Brown and J. R. Skiles; Messrs. M. R. Hemley, F. C. Clark, E. E. Bell, O. L. Barlow, S. S. Brown, J. R. Skiles and E. A. Hester.

Women's Organizations Of El Paso Hold Many Meetings

The music department of the Woman's club held its last meeting of the season Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown.
The club has given its attention the past winter to the study of grand opera and the programs have been of the highest educational value, not alone for the musicians, but for those who are interested in music for music's sake. A rising vote of thanks was extended Mrs. W. R. Brown for her invaluable services, and untiring energy as chairman of the music department, and also for the use of her home, where the meetings have been held.
The question of arranging to bring Chamblade to El Paso during her American tour was brought up, but no action was taken.
"El Trovatore" was the opera given under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Prudential.
A number of changes on the program were made necessary by the illness and absence of some of the participants. The first section of the program opened with a piano solo, "La Campanella" (Liszt) by Francis Moore, which was given with his usual fluency.
A vocal solo, "Farewell, in the Desert," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. S. J. Daugherty, who, with Prof. Uribe, responded to the encore with a delightful duet, "O Sole Mio."
A synopsis of the opera followed, by Mrs. S. J. Prudential, and the overture on violin and piano, by Misses McCracken and Miller, was so well done as to win a hearty recall.
An unusually pleasing feature of the program was the baritone solo, "Gipsy John," by F. C. Thompson, who responded to the storm of applause with the "Lost Chord."
Mr. Thompson was a visitor in the city for the day and kindly consented to sing before the club.
"Face in Night" was exceedingly well given by Mrs. Lella T. Moore, and the popular duet, "Quill son Quelle Preel" was charmingly rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Parvin Witte.
The contralto solo by Mrs. A. H. Goldstein and Mrs. W. W. Evans was especially enjoyed and called forth enthusiastic applause.
The Sunshine society recently organized will give a donation party and musical on Monday, May 2, at the home of Mrs. Wm. H. F. Judd, 901 Upson avenue. An excellent musical program is being arranged.
Besides things of a medicinal nature, the society will be in need of linens, gingham, old linen, domestic, etc.
It is expected that the donation party will supply the workers with materials with which to begin active work, and it is desired that each member will not only bring her pledge, but will bring some friend, who will also add her gift to the work.
The active work of the society will begin on Friday, May 20, at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Judd, where the members will spend the morning sewing for charity.
The directors of the Woman's club will meet in regular session next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. This being the meeting of 1909-10, a full attendance is desired.
An excellent program has been arranged for the Wednesday "club day" meeting. After the business and installation of officers, a musical program will be given, as follows:
Solo, selected—Mrs. J. J. Kaster.
Piano number—Miss Lauraand Pink.
Reading, with musical accompaniment—Mrs. Hollingsworth.
The treasurer of the club, Mrs. J. H. Erwin, will be prepared to receive the annual dues of all members for the ensuing year.
Each member of the club is privileged to invite two guests to the "club day" meetings, and as the musical program will be followed by a social hour, the club expects a large number of members and guests.
The quarterly meeting of the Charity association will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. W. Turner.

WEDDINGS.

A beautiful wedding solemnized Thursday afternoon was that of Miss Charlotte Herskovits and Samuel M. Levy.
The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride, 313 Wyoming street, where a large number of friends assembled to honor the young couple. The house was elaborately decorated with a profusion of shasta daisies, ferns and American beauty roses.
Miss Ethel Levy, the maid of honor, proceeded the bride, who entered with her father.
The groom awaited them at the place of celebration, where the ceremony was performed by rabbi Zielonka, under a bower of bride's roses and ferns.
The bride was very handsomely gowned in white duchess satin, with an overdress of hand made Irish lace. The gown was cut entrain, and made in princess effect.
The sweeping tulle veil was held in place by a spray of lilies of the valley, and was the veil worn by the bride's mother at her own nuptials.
A shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies was carried, Miss Ethel Levy, the only bridal attendant, was gowned in an elaborate white lingerie dress over primrose yellow satin.
Her flowers were shasta daisies and ferns, tied with yellow satin ribbon.
After the ceremony an elegant 10 course dinner was served. The table was arranged in horseshoe shape and running through the center was a garland of asparagus ferns, interspersed with daisies.
An orchestra rendered selections during the dinner, and for the dancing afterward.
The bride is the daughter of H. Herskovits, of this city. She is a most attractive young woman, and a highly accomplished musician. The groom is a prominent young man of Ohio, owning a chain of clothing stores throughout the state with headquarters at Akron.
A very beautiful collection of wedding gifts was received by the young couple, who left Thursday evening for an extensive southern trip. They will be at home after June 1, at Akron, Ohio.
Miss Amanda Levy, of Springfield, O., sister of the groom, was an out of town guest at the wedding.
On Wednesday evening H. Herskovits entertained at an elaborate eight course dinner at the St. Regis hotel.
The table was artistically decorated with pink roses intermingled with ferns.
The guests were: Misses Charlotte Herskovits, Ethel Levy, Amanda Levy; Messrs. Samuel M. Levy, Melville Herskovits, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levy.
Miss Myra Prater and Miss Fannie Blakesley entertained with a shower this afternoon complimentary to Miss Ruth Coleman, at the home of Miss Blakesley, 613 Gold street.
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Lanier, who were married on last Tuesday in Dallas, are the guests of their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of 1419 Arizona street. Mr. Lanier is a well known ranchman of El Paso county.
He has purchased the residence formerly owned by John L. Dyer on Montanna street, and will reside here.
