PUPILS GIVE A REAL PLAY AND RAISE MONEY

"Wizard of Oz" Is Given Creditable Presentation by the Pupils of Lamar School.
Dorothy, the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman, and his friends, the Cowardly Lion, were all at the Crawford Saturday afternoon as the guests of the Lamar school, which presented Frank Baum's modern "The Wizard of Oz" given for the benefit of the Lamar school parking fund, the plaza theater was crowded with patrons of the school, and it was necessary to refuse more than 200 admission. The street, cotton interpretation of the adventures of Dorothy in the wonderful land of Oz. The little Kansas miss was carried to the wonderland, and her dreams by the cyclone, to the wizard's realm and returned home through the medium of the silver slippers furnished by the good witch of the south and the assistance of the good fairy. The poppy and sunflower choruses, which made the original presentation of Baum's extravaganza famous over night were given by the pupils of the school in costume, more than 40 of the girls and boys of the school being on the stage at the same time. Dorothy, petite as Anna Laughlin in the original company and equally charming, was played by Mildred Bishop, who roused through the land of the wizard and returned safely to her Kansas home after many adventures in the fairyland. Eugene Thurston was the face of the good witch, the Scarecrow, a straw man, straw hair and wobbly gait. Eugene looked to be a pocket edition of the original Scarecrow and was equally funny. His friend, the Tin Woodman, who broke his brand new heart and had to oil his joints to keep going, was there wherever the Scarecrow appeared in Oz and Donald Grant made the character of the metallic woodman as real as the Scarecrow and Dorothy. George McClure was the very cowardly Lion and helped his friends, the Scarecrow and the Tin Woodman, in the fun making. Genevieve Beatty was the Witch of the North, George Biefer was Boy, and the other characters of the wonderful story of children's dreamland were: Dorothy.....Mildred Bishop
Scarecrow.....Eugene Thurston
Tin Woodman.....Donald Grant
Lion.....George McClure
Witch of the North.....Genevieve Beatty
Good Fairy.....George Biefer
Guardian of Gate.....Robt. McPherson
Soldier.....Cecil Stanfield
Woman.....Vivian Pomeroy

GRANT GILLETTE IS SUED IN CALIFORNIA

Allegation Is That He Failed To Pay For Pasturage of Cattle.

Grant Gillette is well known by El Paso and Chihuahua people. Following his famous "cattle plunge" in Kansas and after his residence in Mexico for a time, he became interested in mines in different sections of Chihuahua and frequently passed through here with investors and stockholders. Of late nothing has been heard from him, the following from Saturday's Los Angeles Examiner is of interest:
Grant G. Gillette was sued yesterday in the superior court for a sum closely aggregating, with interest, $100,000. Mr. Gillette is said to be the spectacular cattle dealer, who, some 10 or 12 years ago, failed for a very large sum in Kansas City, and who was afterward said to be engaged in affairs in Mexico. The matter attracted great attention at the time.
About a year ago Mr. Gillette came to California. The suit in question grew out of claims alleged to be due W. F. Dunlap, of Kansas, and is brought by Carleton K. Bathbridge, who represents the claims of Mr. Dunlap through transfer to him.

The story of the claims as stated by Shankland and Chandler is that their understanding is that W. F. Dunlap had grazing land on which Mr. Gillette's cattle was pastured and that during the season when there was no grass Mr. Dunlap fed the cattle.

In payment for these charges Mr. Dunlap is said to have received various checks or drafts and these, it is said, were not paid. The number of cattle which Mr. Dunlap cared for is described as about 15,000 head.

According to Mr. Chandler, his information is that Mr. Gillette had not been in Kansas since the business episode referred to, but the claim is made that the statute of limitation does not apply from the fact that Mr. Gillette's absence has been continuous.

Mr. Gillette was seen at his office, but declined to make any statement about the suit or his career.

PARK OPENS FOR SUMMER SEASON

Crowds of considerable size attended the opening of Washington park Saturday and Sunday nights. The park was well lighted and all the concessions were in operation. Moving pictures, illustrated songs and vaudeville skits were given in the summer theater, and an orchestra of several pieces played. The figure

"S", the merrygoround, the natatorium and other concessions attracted the children and crowds and afforded the children and grownups alike plenty of amusement and entertainment.

FRANK BELL ASSAULTED, BOUND AND GAGGED IN LOS ANGELES

Friday's Los Angeles Examiner tells of an assault of a mysterious nature upon Frank M. Bell, of El Paso, at his room in Hollywood, a Los Angeles suburb. Bell was found by neighbors bound and gagged, with a bump on his head, where he said his assailants had clubbed him. His door was booted from the outside. He was removed to a hospital, apparently in a dazed condition, and was unable to explain the assault or its cause.

SENTENCE SERMONS IN PULPITS OF EL PASO

"It is not so much a question of what is to become of the church, as what is to become of the enemies of the church."—Rev. A. J. McElwain, Houston Square Baptist church.

"This is Whitsun day, the birthday of the Christian church, a day whose observance has come down to us from the very beginning."—Rev. Henry Easter, pastor of St. Clement's Episcopal church.

"Christ on high, Christ at God's right hand, is now the measure of our standing; as He is, so are we in this world; our acceptance and our righteousness."—Rev. C. O. Beckman, pastor First Methodist church.

"Jesus Christ was not a social agitator, but He required more of a man, whether rich or poor, than any of the modern social systems dare demand."—Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, pastor First Presbyterian church.

"We must not smother our natural affections; we must not stifle our imagination; they are the mightiest forces of our being; they are the wings upon which we rise to higher things."—Perry J. Rice, pastor First Christian church.

"Jesus alone is our savior, mediator, priest and king; He alone frees us from the curse and condemnation of God's violated law, and He alone is our law giver, and a loving, sympathizing friend to help us keep His commands."—Rev. L. K. Milligan at First Baptist church.

"Man without religion is a poor reprobate, a football to destiny; but a woman without religion is worse; she is a flame without heat, a rainbow without color, a flower without fragrance, a shadow without substance; she is a failure in the world."—Rev. W. L. Head, at East El Paso Baptist church.

News In El Paso Churches

First Presbyterian. The Woman's Missionary society will meet in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock to close the work for the year. The subjects for discussion will be "Our Greatest Inheritance," and the reflex of missions. Mrs. J. E. Townsend will be assisted in the conduct of the meeting by Mrs. H. T. Bowie and Mrs. T. J. Jones. Miss Florence Comfort will sing a solo.

The regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible study will be held at 8 o'clock. Thursday at 8 p. m. the Men's Brotherhood will hold its last meeting of the year, when Capt. Alfred C. Sharpe, of Fort Bliss, will tell of his personal experiences in the Philippines. There will be other short addresses and a social hour during which refreshments will be served. Next Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Over-

INDICTS GARNER ON MURDER CHARGE

El Paso Policeman's Attorneys Ask for Return of Bill by Jury.
An indictment charging policeman Lon Garner with the murder of Charles Willis, the negro who was shot and killed a week ago, has been returned by the grand jury. The indictment was asked by Garner's attorneys, among whom is Volney Brown. Garner has $10,000 bond for $500 with Volney Brown, Frank Simmons and Frank Carr named as sureties.

BOY RIDES OVER HIGH EMBANKMENT; IS INJURED

Rattled by the approach of a wagon and an automobile between which he was trying to ride, Seymour Thurmond, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thurmond, of 623 North El Paso street, rode over an embankment at the junction of Mundy avenue and Main street Saturday evening about 5:30 o'clock and was seriously injured. The boy, who is employed at the smelter was on his way to town with the day's mail when he saw the two vehicles approaching and in trying to avoid a collision rode off the bluff, falling on his left arm which was badly crushed above the elbow, and also sustaining a flesh wound over the left eye. He did not lose consciousness and was immediately removed to the Providence hospital, where his wounds were dressed. He is reported to be resting easy.
