MORE LANDS ARE TAKEN INTO FOREST IN NEW MEXICO; SOME OPENED

Washington, D. C., June 8.—Sixty million feet of merchantable timber have been added to the Duff National forest in New Mexico and nearly a hundred thousand acres of land will be thrown open to settlement by a proclamation issued by president Taft today.

It reclassifies that forest and adds more than 183,000 acres of wooded lands to the national forest domain.

The mining camp of Fluorine in the forest, is now classified in homestead lands.

All lands restored will be thrown open to settlement by an act of the secretary of the interior later.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 8.—The Pittsburg Trust company, of Pittsburg, today filed in the district court a complaint against the New Mexico Central Railroad company to foreclose a mortgage to secure an issue of $2,000,000 in bonds and asking for a receiver to sell the property in its entirety.

The railroad was built from Santa Fe to Torrance, 116 miles, by Pennsylvania capital and the complaint alleges that the company is insolvent and is at present being operated by a receiver, C. C. Murray, of Pittsburg. The action is reported to be preliminary to an extension of the line from Torrance to Roswell and from Moriarty to the Hagen coal fields and Albuquerque.

EL PASO GIRL IS ROBBED IN A CAJON. Rides With Train Acquaintance and Loses Her Pocketbook.

Long Beach, Cal., June 8.—Miss Hazel Hagelsieb, a beautiful young woman, who says she is a Spanish teacher at El Paso, Tex., tearfully asked a loan of money from a local loan agent yesterday, offering three costly diamond earrings as security.

She said en route to Los Angeles she met another young woman who boarded the train at a California town. In Los Angeles she took a carriage ride and then separated. Afterward Miss Hagelsieb missed a purse containing $122.

The name of the other woman, who the police think may have stolen the purse, is unknown to the El Paso girl, but she told Miss Hagelsieb she was going to San Francisco by steamer that night.

Miss Hagelsieb was teacher of Spanish in Draughon's Business college at El Paso until recently, when she resigned and went to Long Beach to accept a similar position in a business college there. She left El Paso May 18 and went to Albuquerque, where she studied painting for several weeks and then proceeded to Long Beach. Her mother, Mrs. Jessie R. Hagelsieb, and brother, Wm. F. Jr., live at 702 San Antonio street.
