

Proclamation!

Know Ye, All El Pasoans By These Presents:---

Whereas; The Photographers' Association of America assembles in Annual Convention in the city of Milwaukee on the twelfth day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, and continues in session for four days thereafter, Fred J. Feldman is granted a special dispensation relieving him from the demands of the public during this period and for a sufficient time both before and after to permit of his presence.

Signed and sealed this fifteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and ten.

In obedience to the above proclamation no sittings will be made at the Feldman Studio during the month of July.

TEXAS LEAGUE NOTES

By Horace H. Shelton.

Hindrickson for Galveston is pitching most excellent ball. In a recent game he let the Dallas Giants down without a hit for eight innings. There is one thing certain. Either the Texas league has the best pitchers in its history or the poorest batters. The former seems the more just conclusion.

First baseman Abbott, who started the 1908 season with the Fort Worth Panthers, has been released by the Topeka, Kans. team.

Ell Kaplan, the Sand Crab right fielder, who had his leg broken in a game with Houston, May 29, is able to be out of the hospital. He is on crutches and it will be many weeks before he can play again.

Walter Salms is not swinging on the ball like he did when he was with the Fort Worth team. It don't look like Houston got much in exchange for Newnam other than a few simoleons.

Less than 10 games separate Dallas, seventh team in the league, from Houston, the top notcher. That is bunching the teams and shows that the Texas league is pretty evenly matched, despite the roar about the awful slump of some of the teams.

The big league twirlers of the Dallas Giants are getting their bumps. Houston tended to Yates and Galveston performed a like service for Rankin Johnson. Some class to that stick work.

Lost! One Eberline. Information should be conveyed to the Fort Worth team. That brilliant first sacker has been on the road to join the team several weeks but has not yet shown up. He is a collegian that has been highly recommended. In the meantime Coy is putting up a mighty fine game at first for the Panthers.

Pitcher Robby Ray, of the St. Louis Browns, seems a find. In the first game pitched against the hard hitting Philadelphia team he allowed them but one hit in six innings.

Empire Blitch has resigned. It took him only a short time to get enough of the rough sledding in the Texas league.

In its at home series Waco won two and lost 10 games. Gordon is making a desperate effort to the professional baseball records for losing streaks. The outlook now is that Waco will have the lowest percentage of any fall under the Texas league ever carried.

President Allen has called a meeting of the Texas league baseball managers at Fort Worth, Texas, Sunday. Finley recently imposed on players, protested games and other matters will be considered.

Fort Worth made a remarkable road record, winning half of the games while away from home. That team is coming to the front fast. Morris is at last showing what there is in him as a manager.

The work of catcher Block, former Galvestonian, with Chicago, continues to be a feature of the big league. His whip is sure death to base stealers.

In Speaker, Hooper and Lewis the Boston Red Sox have an outfield trio that is hard to beat.

The South Texas teams are putting up some good exhibitions now that they are playing the north Texas bunch on their home grounds. It looks like the players from the semitropics had a little the best of it in the league.

Garry Herman says that he can hire "boozie" fighters at $3 a day but that the Cincinnati Reds cannot use them at any price. The same motto has been adopted with advantage by the managers of the Texas league teams. The whiskey bottle route and professional baseball have been widely separated in the last few years.

St. Louis may trade Griggs and Bailey, both Texans, to Washington for "Tabasco Kid" Elberfeldt if an agreement can be reached.

It looks like Portland was due to cop the pennant in the Pacific coast league.

Despite the fact that he is managing a badly beaten fall under, Brooks Gordon is as popular in Waco as if he was pulling down the pennant. Anybody who sees him in a game soon decides that there is no lay down to him.

Vaughan, Ford and Quinn are doing nothing but winning some games for the New York Highlanders. These three babies are sure some pitchers.

It's dollars to doughnuts that if the best pitcher and catcher in the league were to be voted upon Able would win for the twirler and Alexander for the catcher. Both are members of the Bronchial Club. They make a fast team when coupled up together.

CACTUS DOPE

By Lee Hamilton

From now on, three umpires will be used in the Cactus league, lasting as long as Morenci and Clifton play games therein. Saturday and Sunday the entrance of those two teams into the doings, postponed from the middle of the month, will take place. Douglas gets Morenci, present league leader, by virtue of winning about everything from the start, whose team seems to be in a bad way.

Clifton doesn't seem able to take much of anything and her players seem to be much in the same condition as the ones who are still green apples. Manager Pete Riley has hopes of landing several more Penn. State University stars to strengthen for the big show. Some of them are now on the ground. Clifton will stick up against the Bigbee Maroons for two games. Dairyville will increase his lead probably by two games while, perchance, Douglas, who is running a good second, may lose a game.

With El Paso at Cananea, Harbuck announces that Red Booles will do the twirling Saturday and Wingo Anderson will make his 3910 debut with the Mavericks Sunday. Merritt will catch. Wright will be at short and Gill in right field.

DeWiggins got in from Las Cruces Thursday night and will make the trip to Cananea with the Huskies. He is slated to do the umpiring. Anderson will handle the indicator at Douglas and Mackey at Bisbee. Therefore all clubs of the Big Four are, or should be, satisfied with the way the umpires are allotted. DeWiggins is a hot local favorite and is also well liked by Cananea. Anderson is the apple of Douglas's eye, or should be after last Sunday's work here, while Bisbee has been championing Ed Mackey from the start, and Mackey apparently likes Bisbee, as he hasn't shown up in El Paso since the Maroons were last here.

Tex Merritt is one of the few catchers in the west, outside of the backstops, or a few of them, in the Texas league who makes use of the shin-guards. He's the only man in the Cactus league using them. The guards were the invention of Roger Brennan, when the now manager of the St. Louis Cardinals was backstopping for New York. It's expected that they will be more universally worn later on, as they afford considerable protection from foul tips and low pitches that once in a while get away stray far enough from the mitt to crack a shin. They scarcely, if at all, interfere with a catcher's running.
