SHERIFF HALL AND HIS DEPUTIES

The Deadly Parallel and Its Relation to Sheriff Hall and His Ability to Conduct His Office

It has been the contention of those who oppose sheriff Hall for reelection that he is not qualified to properly discharge the duties of his office. This contention is supported by innumerable acts of omission and commission upon his part. Any office will take care of itself along certain lines, that is, so far as the routine work is concerned, but the administration of every office is characterized more or less by a policy, and that policy partakes very largely of the personality of the head of the office.

It is contended that sheriff Hall is an easy-going non-administrative official whose office is characterized by no policy whatever, and that on account of his easy-going trust-everybody way of doing things that he has been grossly imposed upon, and that, as a matter of fact, he never knows when he is and is not imposed upon.

Personally, sheriff Hall is a good man, but it is insisted that he is not possessed of discernment which should characterize the sheriff of El Paso county. His lengthy statement, published in Monday's Herald, in which he attempts to defend numerous acts which have been subjected to criticism, shows that he has been doing exactly what he has been charged with doing. It shows, too, as has already been stated, that in defending his numerous acts he undertakes in the main to charge such acts to the advice and suggestion of others.

Now, the question is, does sheriff Hall run his office, or is his office run by his friends and his deputies? Did he make Wade Thomas, the negro saloon keeper, a deputy, or did the negro's friends have it done? Did he make Larry Ford, proprietor of the Foodie Dog saloon, a deputy sheriff? Did he make Mike McNally, proprietor of the Midway Inn saloon, a deputy sheriff? Did he make Joe Brown, the bartender, a deputy sheriff after he had been charged with the murder of Manen Clements? Did he make J. C. Elliott, the bartender, a deputy sheriff? Did he make these appointments, or did he merely act as the agent of the friends of these various people who sought deputations at the sheriff's hands, and these are but a few of the commissions he has issued to various parties to carry pistols. There are 165 of them according to the official records in the county clerk's office. How many of these deputies are utterly irresponsible men can be told only by those who know who they are.

Now, has the sheriff of El Paso county been imposed upon, or has he not? And if he has not been imposed upon, will he then assume responsibility for his acts, or will he insist upon trying to shift the responsibility upon others, as he has been doing in the past?

It has not been the desire or intention, and it is not now the desire or intention, to conduct a personal campaign against sheriff Hall, but he must be held responsible for the affairs of his office. This being true, it appears that he has not only condoned deputy Greet's conduct with reference to the trial of Max Miller, but has actually undertaken to defend him in the course of a personal interview, in which he himself gives what is purported to be Greet's testimony in the Miller case. Compare the testimony which sheriff Hall states that Greet gave with the testimony which is shown beyond question to have been Greet's testimony at Abilene, and but one conclusion can be reached, viz: that sheriff Hall is easily imposed upon by his deputies.

Observe again the two versions of Greet's testimony, and then have the explanation of the conflict: Greet's testimony as published by sheriff Hall is the testimony given by Greet on the first trial of Max Miller in El Paso. The other is Greet's testimony as given by him in the course of the trial of Max Miller in Abilene. Need more be said?

THE DEADLY PARALLEL

GREET'S TESTIMONY AT ABILENE AS REPORTED BY THE OFFICIAL COURT STENOGRAPHER:

Q. Do you know Max Miller, the defendant?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you known him?

A. About six years.

Q. Now, in the course of your official duties have you had occasion to mix and mingle and be with him or not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know his general reputation there as to whether or not he is a peaceable and quiet citizen, or otherwise?

A. YES, SIR; I KNOW HIS REPUTATION.

Q. What was his reputation?

A. IT WAS QUIET AND PEACEABLE—IT WAS GOOD.

Q. Up to the time of this trouble?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, as an officer, have you had any occasion to be in the saloons of El Paso?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I wish you would state whether or not it is customary for the men running and keeping saloons to keep pistols or firearms behind the counter?

A. Yes, sir; it is customary.

Mrs. H. Clay Dyer and her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. G. Roseborough, of Deming, N. M., have gone to Long Beach, Cal., to spend the remainder of the summer.

GREET'S TESTIMONY IN EL PASO AS GIVEN BY SHERIFF HALL:

Question. Can you state to the court and jury whether or not you know the general reputation of Miller in this community, prior to his trouble, as a quiet, peaceable man or a dangerous and violent man?

ANSWER. I DON'T THINK I EVER HEARD HIS REPUTATION AS SUCH DISCUSSED.

Question. I will ask you if you ever heard his reputation called in question prior to that time?

ANSWER. NO, SIR.

Question. That is, Mr. Greet, with the people with whom you mixed, what did they say or may not say about a man forms his general reputation. Now can you state prior to this time what the reputation of Miller was in this community?

ANSWER. I never heard any one talk about it.

Question. Well, using that as a basis of what you know about the matter—

ANSWER. NO, SIR.

Question. You do not know his reputation as a quiet and peaceable man or a dangerous and violent man?

ANSWER. NO.

NEW BUILDINGS ASSUME SHAPE

Concrete Workers Prepare Boxing for Many Structures.

The new Anson Mills building is beginning to take on definite form. The boxing for the first floor of the building is being built and the northeast section is now almost completed. The footings and basement columns of the southeast section are also poured and the boxing will be built on these as these as soon as the first section is completed.

The concrete boxing for the first floor of the Fewel "skyscraper" is up and the concrete is being poured. The steel frame for the second floor of the American National bank building has been built and the fifth floor of the six story Caples building is in position.

The paving on West Main street is being completed to the S. P. railroad crossing at Fisher street. Traffic on the smelter road by way of Main street has been closed until this part of the paving work has been completed.

Construction of the new sidewalks around and through the old plaza at Juarez has been commenced. Before many Sundays pass, band concert fans will be walking on cement instead of hardened earth.

The cement walk in front of the new K. Z. & M. building on San Francisco street has been laid and the glass front of the building is being put in place.

The home of J. H. Schroeder, pressman for The Herald, on North Okon street, was robbed some time yesterday. It is next door to the residence of C. S. Ward, foreman of The Herald composing room, whose place was entered by robbers Saturday night or Sunday.

While Charles Eberis, proprietor of the Royal pool hall, on San Antonio street, near the Trust building, was in the rear of the room Tuesday morning, someone entered the place and robbed the till of $21 in cash and a check for $10. The city detectives have been notified and are working on the case.
