LAWSON HEARING NOW SET FOR WEDNESDAY

One New Assault Charge Filled and One Judgment Granted By Justice McClintock Tuesday. The preliminary hearing of Frank Lawson, the negro charged with killing his wife, has been postponed until Wednesday morning when it will be held by Justice E. B. McClintock.

Justice McClintock granted Mrs. Catalina Swain judgment in the sum of $25 in her suit against Mrs. Nellie Black on a plea of assault. The case had been tried once, the jury failing to agree, and when it was called for trial a second time Tuesday morning, the defendant failed to appear so judgment was granted the plaintiff in the sum of $25 though she had sued for $200.

LAS CRUCES AND MESILLA VALLEY CHINESE FIRM AT CRUCES SELLS OUT

Once One of Most Prosperous in Valley—Two Die. Personal Notes.

Las Cruces, N. M., July 26.—The mercantile firm of Hop Wah & Co. was closed out Monday under the sheriff's hammer. In the earlier days of Las Cruces Hop Wah came, established a business and made money, lots of it, but in the awakened Las Cruces Hop's business went on the decline and he sold out to two of his fellow countrymen and takes himself with his good back to China. His successors maintained the business only a few months before their doors were closed by the sheriff, yesterday marking the passing of one of the "used to be" largest stores in El Paso part of the country.
