The All Wise One

(By Robert Burns.)

Then gently scan your brother man, Still gentler sister woman; Though they may gang a kenan' wrang, To step aside is human.

Who made the heart, 'tis He alone Decidedly can try us; He knows each chord—its various tones, Each spring—its various bias;

RETURNING EL PASOANS.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Gallagher are rejoicing in the return of their sons, Hiram, Leo and Donald, from school, Leo Gallagher was graduated this year from the Yale law school, while Hiram will graduate next year from the John Hopkins university in medicine.

THE YOUNGER SET.

Among the younger social set the event of the week was the banquet given Tuesday night at the St. Regis by the members of the O. U. K. fraternity.

Placed in the smaller banquet room, the large round table was beautiful in its decorations of ferns and flowers, the center piece being an unusually effective arrangement of blue and white cut flowers and ferns.

Eight toasts were given, the wit and humor of which were keenly enjoyed, as were the flashes of deeper feeling.

The toasts were given by Robert Hardway, "The El Paso High School," Henry Shedd, "The Ananias Club," Henry Ponsford, "The Fraternity Spirit," Edwin Miller, "Girls," Garlin Lyman, "Why I am an O. U. K.," Norman Morrison, "Friendship," Edward Rheinheimer, "Chaperons," Jack Roman, "The Hand of the Pierced Wrist."

At the end of the evening the flowers were divided among the guests.

Those present were: Mrs. J. N. Sanburn, Misses Louise Sanburn, Violet Aitkin, Nellie Galliard, Marbury Heising, Frances Mayfield, Mamie Clark, Gertrude Leighton, Janet Rumsey, Laura Maud Fink, Emily Kemp, Messrs. Jack Roman, Hilary Roman, Galliard, Edward Rheinheimer, Nelson Rice, Wendel Kuhn, Edwin Miller, Harry Ponsford, Norman Morrison, Robert Hardway, Henry Shedd, Farlin Lyman and Harvey Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace have returned from a six weeks' trip through the eastern states. From New Orleans an ocean voyage was enjoyed to New York. After a ten days' visit in the metropolis, the delightful journey up the Hudson was taken, ending at Detroit, where the Elks' convention was a source of much pleasure.

Dr. and Mrs. Thompson Wheat and Mrs. Wheat's father, Rev. H. P. Bond, have returned from a delightful stay of three weeks at Ocean Park, Cal.

H. N. Miller, who left El Paso several years ago to locate in York, Pennsylvania, has returned to stay, and has a position with the El Paso & Southwestern.

Mrs. J. W. Lorenz has returned from a camping trip with relatives and friends in the Organ mountains.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a regular business meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Helen Judson, 1101 Wyoming street. The reports of the superintendents will be read and other business transacted. A social time will follow.

Monday afternoon the Shakespeare club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hogarth on North Campbell street. A peculiarly happy thought was the selection of the play, "A Winter's Tale," and at this time of the year the members are thoroughly enjoying the story told of the frost and cold. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Heli Hale on North Florence street.

The Club Woman's Argosy for July contains a long and interesting article on the El Paso Woman's club, being a description of the last meeting of the year, with the addresses in full of the officers as given at that time. The article is written by Mrs. Eva C. Tilton, chairman of the press committee of the club.

COUNTRY CLUB DANCE.

The ball room of the Country club was open for the usual Saturday night dance, but owing to the reception at the Toltex club the attendance was light, those present, however, enjoying the freedom of the spacious room.

PLEASANT RECEPTIONS.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Robert Bruce Smith pleasantly entertained the women of the First Baptist church at the parsonage from 4 to 6 o'clock. A delightful informal program of readings and music entertained the guests, after which refreshments were served.

Miss McClelland gave an enjoyable party at the Ardmore to a number of her friends. After the play refreshments were served at the Elffe, after which music was enjoyed till a late hour at Miss McClelland's home.

The Rebekahs gave a delightful picnic Friday evening at Washington park in honor of Mrs. W. W. Irvine of Roswell, N. M., who is visiting her niece, Mrs. J. A. Shannon. Those present were: Madames W. W. Irvine, J. L. Campbell, Merrill Goodnight, Alice V. Thompson, C. H. Campbell, Lane, J. A. Shannon, Henry Bemour, Sidney Heckett, Misses Fannie and Etta Pickles, Nettie and Flora Satterlee, Blanch Merrill Opal Allison, Ada Beaudette, Stella Mahoney, Lily Brown, May Campbell, Bonene, Frudenstein, Ruth Shannon; Messrs. Miss Lily Brown of 804 Roosevelt street, had as her guest for a few days Mrs. C. S. Goodnight of San Pedro, Mex. While here Mrs. Goodnight and Miss Brown were the guests of Mrs. A. L. Fraser, who gave a delightful dinner at the Harvey house in their honor Sunday evening. Small palms were the very effective table decorations, and a most delicious three course dinner was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fraser, Mrs. C. S. Goodnight, Misses Lily Brown and Carrie Blackwell. Mrs. Goodnight left Monday for her home.

WEDDINGS.

On July 28, at the residence of the Rev. C. S. Wright, on Mesa avenue, Richard C. Wilson and Mrs. Therese E. Wilson were united in marriage, a number of friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make El Paso their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Seamands announce the engagement of their cousin, Miss Lois E. Seamands, to Walter M. Martyn of San Antonio, Texas. The wedding is to take place in October at San Antonio.

BISBEE RESERVOIR FOUND DEFECTIVE

A New Mining Company Is Formed—Prospecting Party Leaves.

Bisbee, Ariz., Aug. 2.—After an inspection by the city council and engineers Pelton and Jorgenson, the city reservoir has been found defective. The east side of the reservoir is very much damaged and the tank has sunken more than one inch at some points and is out of place at others. Steps will be taken to make the necessary repairs.

A new corporation under the name of La Corona Mining company has been formed in Bisbee. The incorporators are Messrs. O. G. Wager, C. A. Burgoon and H. S. Hillman, all of this city.

P. O. Gardner, of El Paso, has taken charge of the local railroad station, agent Grayson having left with his family on a vacation trip throughout the west.

A party of prospectors headed by Frank Knapp, a well known mining man, is being formed to examine some ground in Santa Cruz county. Frank Parvell has gone to Mexico
