SCIENTISTS TELL CROP RESULTS

ture on the undeveloped resources of Texas and brought to the house. Prof. Zeferino Dominguez, of Mexico, was also on the program for the evening and told of the results accomplished on Hacienda de Santa Maria in Coahuila. He was very much interested in the president's report of the work accomplished on the Mexican experimental farm by R. Bronagh at Pancharia, below El Paso, and will visit the place soon.

Considerable of the evening's time taken up in questions by the delegates and answers by the various farm experts.

Uvalde Wins. Uvalde will get the next convention. Editor Getzmann is here at the head of a delegation that would win even with opposition, but no opposition has developed.

T. J. Barron and J. A. Berryman, demonstrators of the department of agriculture, are being piled with all sorts of questions, showing the deep interest of the farmers. This is proving the most popular feature of the meeting—the questions of the farmers to the experts. The farmers say they are getting some real life information.

E. W. Malley, state entomologist, has taken the place of J. W. Neill, director of Farmers' Institutes on the program, and is giving the farmers some valuable pointers on how to kill bugs.

Convention Notes. Joe O. Boehmer, secretary of the convention, looks like W. J. Bryan—and he can make a speech, too. His speech nominating Eagle Pass for this year's meeting was the hit of the convention at Alpine last year.

H. P. Altwater, first vice president of the congress, is here with the Attwater smile and glad hand. No convention of Texas farmers would go into session without Attwater on hand. Attwater used to run a museum on Navarro street in San Antonio, which was the delight of the small boy.

Some of the delegates are apparently dry farmers in reality, and, unlike Alpine, where they met last year, they are not denied the privilege of sipping their thirst at Eagle Pass. The product that has helped them to get into the class with Milwaukee is found in plentiful proportions in this border town.

"Good cigars cheap"—minus the tariff and internal revenue that apply in this country, are attracting many of the delegates to make trips over to Cu. P. Diaz. The ways of the customs men are new to many of the visitors and "that man at the bridge" is doing a hand office business picking up dutiable articles.

Sanderson's Meeting. Sanderson has a delegation here working up a crowd to attend the meeting of the Southwest Press and Commercial association, to be held on September 11 to 18. Editor Jesse McKee says it was so dry around Sanderson this year that horned toads was about the only thing they could raise without irrigation.

The Del Rio delegates are showing what irrigation and dry farming can do in their part of the state. They are also a bit excited over the prospects for oil in that region. Secretary Fred J. Meyers, of the Del Rio Commercial club, is a live one, and like all the citizens of the town, never lets slip a chance to put in a good word for the town that already has one railroad and is going to get another in a few months.

District Judge W. C. Douglas, of Eagle Pass, traveling around over this section so much to hold court, realizes the great need of some system that will result in the reclamation of the vast area of uncultivated lands and is enthusiastic over giving dry farming a chance.

Even far away Valentine, out close to El Paso, is here with a delegation and a display.

The country around Eagle Pass and Del Rio is looking splendid.

Shortage of Rain. There has been a shortage of rain around Uvalde, the delegates report, and they say scientific soil cultivation has saved numerous fields.

A feature of the meeting is the music by the Citizen's orchestra, participated in by some of the leading people of Eagle Pass—men and women, every time it plays, an encore is necessary.

The district courtroom in which the meetings are held, is decorated in palms and ferns. Down stairs the dry farm exhibits are on view of the vast area of uncultivated lands and is entertaining the officers and speakers in their homes, while delegates are housed at the hotels.

Some of the Delegates. Among the delegates registered are: T. J. Martin, Stanford, A. M. Bryan, San Antonio, R. L. Dawson, Abbott, H. P. Attwater, Houston, J. H. Fletcher, M. D., C. W. Gilliam, H. Feuchs, Hondo, L. H. Haker, Bob Gray, A. Lehman, Hugh Hobbs, Joe J. T. Barron, Worthy, J. O. Boehmer, W. E. Miller, Maverick county.

A. S. Smith, R. E. Potter, Del Rio, F. W. Malley, Austin, state agricultural department, H. E. Scott, Des Moines, Iowa, F. F. Anderson, Carrizo Springs, C. A. Luckenbach, Emil Beck, Ather-ton, Gus McCracken, Floresville, B. Brown, Del Rio, John R. Sanford, T. C. Carrington, Eagle Pass.

John C. Beck, Bexar county, Rolf Balzen, Kullips, Uvalde county, J. W. Musgrave, Maverick county, J. L. Crawford, Dr. E. L. Berkeley and wife, Alpine, F. Vandercoot, Carrizosa, L. N. Hall, Knippa, Uvalde county, Wiley Tucker, Montague, F. M. Getzondaner, Uvalde, Asher Richardson, Atherton, S. H. Barton, Val Verde county, H. N. Harrington and wife and Ross Harrington, College Station, Tex, Ed R. Kone, state agricultural commissioner, Austin, J. T. Snelus, Valentine, B. Youngblood, Oklahoma City, W. D. Hunter, Joe Kerr, S. B. Hudson, F. M. Harrell, W. H. Lemon, W. H. Mansfield, Sanderson, Zeferino Dominguez and son, Victor, and secretary, Amos Caleri, Mexico, J. L. Quirk, Wagon, G. A. Martin, El Paso, J. C. Dameron, Stockdale, Levi Baker, Goliad, T. Y. Hoodin, Stockdale, F. O. Berryman, Stockdale, F. W. Malley, Austin, state entomologist.

GAYNOR SOON TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

Wakes From a Refreshing Sleep—Physicians Issue Statement.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Mayor Gaynor will leave the hospital within 10 days practically cured, one of the attending physicians said this morning. The mayor awoke today from a refreshing night's sleep, seemingly much improved in spirits and strength. Nothing has developed to indicate that Mayor Gaynor is not making fair progress toward recovery, and he probably will be allowed to sit up again today. It is probable that Ruth and Marian, the youngest of the Gaynor children, will also be allowed to see their father.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE TO SET CONVENTION DATE

Gaynor's Name Frequently Mentioned for Governor, But Others Are Also Under Consideration. Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The Democratic state committee will meet here tonight to fix the time and place of the state convention. While the name of Mayor Gaynor is most frequently discussed by the members of the committee today as possible candidate for governor, there are several others mentioned.

MESA REPUBLICANS NAME TWO TICKETS

Split in the Valley Town and Two Sets of Delegates Are Named.

La Mesa, N. M., Aug. 19.—This precinct has split up and the Republicans are sending two sets of delegates to the county convention at Las Cruces. The primaries ended up by those present voting down, by 17 to 7 votes, a ticket nominated by a committee. This ticket consisted of F. H. White, C. Flores and W. Mead and the chairman, refusing to again call for nominations, declared the three candidates elected, and terminated the meeting. A second meeting was called which was attended by 35 citizens, resolutions passed denouncing the action of the chairman and by popular vote elected another ticket to represent this precinct. This ticket is composed of Jose Nevarez, Estanislado Sierra and Gen. B. J. Viljoen.

DELEGATES ARE NAMED BY BOTH SOCCORO PARTIES.

Republicans and Democrats Select Delegates to the County Convention for Constitutional Delegates. Socorro, N. M., Aug. 19.—Democrats held a primary election for representatives to attend the county convention at which delegates will be elected for the constitutional convention. Col. R. W. Eaton was in the chair. Those elected were H. M. Dougherty, Jas. G. Fitch, M. Torres, Ed. Coon, Col. Eaton and R. Abeyta. There were only about 20 present. Dougherty made a speech in which he stated that the constitution should contain the initiative and referendum.

In the evening the Republican party held its meeting for the same purpose. John W. Terry occupied the chair and opened the meeting. About 70 to 80 were in attendance. Those elected to the county convention, which will be held on August 25, in Socorro, were: H. O. Bursum, A. R. Baca, Jose E. Torres, Amos E. Green, A. C. Abeyta, C. A. Baca, J. A. Torres, John E. POULTRY RAISERS ARRANGE PRIZES

Exhibit at the Fall Fair Expected to Be One of the Best in State.

The Poultry Raisers' association met Thursday evening in the office of Dr. R. B. Homan in the Caples building and arranged for the rules which will govern the poultry show which is to be held as a part of the big fall fair. The report of the rules committee caused a general discussion of the rules for the show, and the set of rules was adopted only after each had been discussed in detail. P. A. Rowe read a paper. The catalog committee stated that but little space remained open and the book would be ready for the press on Saturday afternoon. The superintendent was instructed to secure special coops handsomely decorated to be placed in the main part of the fair building for the winners of the special prizes and gold leg bands secured for the prize birds. The poultry association is in a flourishing condition and the forthcoming exhibition gives promise of being one of the best ever held in the state of Texas. A number of new members were elected after which the meeting adjourned to meet in the chamber of commerce Thursday evening, September 1 at 8 o'clock.

CROFT CHAUTAUQUA PROVES A SUCCESS

Birthday Party Given by Moonlight; Many Visitors at Resort.

(By Mrs. W. S. Tilton.) Cloudercroft, N. M., Aug. 19.—The third day of the chautauqua was an interesting one, a recital by the Oliver orchestra opened the afternoon session. Rev. Casper S. Wright's address was on "The most effective type of Christianity." He told of holding a camp meeting among the cowboys at Fort Davis. How one woman drove 45 miles and brought four chuck wagons, six tents and 30 people in her party. Rev. P. G. Rice addressed the assembly in the evening on "The church in the world today." Mrs. C. C. Clouston Patch had an enthusiastic audience in the school house in north Cloudercroft. It was for women only, the subject being "Health and Art in Dress." Mrs. Harry Gaston, of Dallas, Tex., gave a moonlight supper on scenic Point in honor of her brother-in-law, S. W. Fisher, of Austin. There were loads of good things to eat and mysterious things to drink and the guests played "bring around Rosie," around a stump on which stood a beautiful white cake covered with lighted candles and then for the first time Mr. Fisher realized that it was his birthday. When the cake was cut Miss Mabel Carville got the ring and Miss Gray got the dime; the one who got the button wouldn't tell. The guests then gathered around the camp fire and told stories and sang songs until a late hour. Mrs. Gaston's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fisher, of Austin; Miss Tredway and Miss Merriweather, of St. Louis; J. A. Eddy, Miss Sarah and Katherine Eddy, of Denver; Mrs. Carville and Miss Mabel Carville, of Dallas; D. J. Kerr, of Orange, N. J.; and Mrs. W. S. Tilton, of El Paso. Merton Lindsey is finishing his vacation on the roof garden, having come over from Three Rivers, where he has been the guest of A. B. Fall on the ranch. John Franklin came up yesterday to confer with the special committee appointed to pro-rate the sewer tax.

Mrs. W. H. Loreta and daughter are up for a few weeks and have rooms with Mrs. Ferguson on Chipmunk avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Young is the guest of Mrs. Henry Easter at East Poreh cottage.

Mrs. Will Race is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Tilton at Tut-Hill cottage.

Rev. Caspar S. Wright is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Simmons at their "Mountain Home" cottage.

Rev. P. J. Rice of the First Christian church of El Paso, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Stevenson at Hill Crest.

At the bowling alley, Mrs. F. B. Simmons still holds the record for the highest woman's score, which stands 151. Dr. Frank Lacy, of Abilene, did some brilliant playing yesterday, making seven strikes right in succession.

HOW TO FIND OUT

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling usually indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back, should also convince you that the kidneys or bladder are out of order.
