BEGIN MAKING NEW MEXICO STATUTES

Constitutional Convention Is Held in Old State Capitol Building.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 3.—New Mexico's constitutional convention met today in the state capitol. Former delegate to congress, Thomas Carron called the convention to order and after Rev. Jules Deraches, chaplain of San Miguel church, the oldest church in the United States, had asked for the "seven gifts of the holy ghost" to descend upon the delegates, the oath of office was administered by Judge McElie, of the New Mexico supreme court.

LONDON'S GREATEST DEBGR IS IN AMERICA

The magnificent sum of $20,000 for the establishment and endowment of the homes which occupy an estate of 70 acres. This estate, together with the buildings upon it, which had previously been known as the Princess Louise military hospital for the treatment of soldiers invalided home from the South African war, was conveyed to Sir William by an act of parliament in 1907.

HEARTS IN THE FACE OF THIS TRIFLING CALAMITY.

"The work of physically reestablishing the hearts already had begun before my arrival home, by my brave, efficient and faithful associate, Chandler, and it will be continued until the establishment is once more complete, full fledged and prepared to stand as long as life lasts, in defence of the great principles for which the Los Angeles Times and its responsible owners stand, and will continue to stand."

REWARDS ARE INCREASED.

In the hope of securing outside aid in the quest for the perpetrators of the supposed conspiracy, mayor Alexander has increased the offer of reward to $10,000. This, with the offers of local newspapers, and labor organizations, makes a total of $13,500. There are no conditions. The $10,000 is offered as a payment for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the crime. The mayor's statement is as follows:

MAN SHOT AFTER A WAR OF WORDS

Following a war of words, as a result of trouble which has been brewing for several weeks, Antonio Villanueva was shot in the upper part of the right leg Monday morning about 3:20 o'clock. The shooting occurred in front of the El Paso laundry, on Santa Fe street, and deputy sheriff Juan Franco, who was passing, gave chase to a man said to be Jose Moreno, who had three shots fired, only one of which took effect.

WOMEN CAN SEE BODIES HELD BY DE GRIDDERS

"We can repair the damage done and restore the great property destroyed, but we cannot restore life, and this is the great burden which weighs on our hearts in the face of this trifling calamity."

CATTLE BARRED BY FEVER TICKS

Owing to the presence of fever ticks in a shipment of 2000 head of cattle from the ranch of Piedra Blanca Cattle Co., preventing them from being brought to the United States for pasturage, thousands of head of cattle in that state face starvation.

CANANEA DEFEATS EL PASOANS AGAIN

Takes the Monday Morning Game from the Mavericks by a Big Margin. Cananea, Mex., Oct. 3.—Cananea put another one over on El Paso in this morning's game, when the locals won by a score of 7 to 1. Cananea lunched its hits and fast base running by the Quien Sabes gave them the victory over the Mavericks.

AMUSEMENTS.

OPENING OF THE SEASON. Manager Rich announces that the Crawford box office will be open every day from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and tickets for both the El Paso and Crawford theaters will be on sale at this office.

HUMANE SOCIETY BENEFIT. Tickets are now on sale and for exchange for the benefit concert to be given at the Humane Society Tuesday, October 4, at the El Paso theater.

AT THE MAJESTIC. Manager Rich promises an exceptionally good bill at the Majestic tonight, when an entire new comedy will be presented with plenty of singing and dancing specialties, pretty choruses and a grand finale.

AT THE HAPPY HOUR. Manager Fogg says the new bill this week at the Happy Hour is composed of all new faces and acts of unusual merit. Among them he mentions Cassetta Astia, European whirlwind dancers, introducing the famous Astia dance; Dan Randall, character changing artist, songs and dances, impersonating "Dutch," "Biddy" and Chinese; Leslie and Adams, comedy sketch artists, a very original and comical sketch manager, Fogg says. They are headliners, he says, and will please.

LEECH'S TRIAL IS STARTED AND 21 MEN FINED

Case Will Be Long. That the case will be a long one was evident from the tactics of the presiding judge and the counsel for the state and defense. Every point of law is to be considered, and Judge Clarke early in the trial showed that he would exert the most diligent care in the conduct of
