BRIDGERS GIVES SOME GOOD ADVICE

Peterson, Held on Robbery Charge, Bets Attorney Has a Past.

That county attorney W. W. Bridgers is "wanted somewhere" is a wager made Thursday afternoon by A. M. Peterson, charged with theft from the person. The offer was made following the hearing of Peterson before justice McClintock, who bound him over to the grand jury under a $500 bond.

Mrs. G. H. Smith, 308 Tornillo street, was the prosecuting witness, and she testified that Peterson snatched her purse from her while she was walking on St. Vrain street between San Antonio and Overland. Mrs. Smith gave chase and kept within half a block of the man until he reached Seventh street, and later recovered her purse, containing $14.78.

Peterson's examining trial was conducted by county attorney Bridgers, and following Peterson's intimation that the world owes him a living, Mr. Bridgers advised him he had better work, and added:

"One time when I was broke, I scrubbed a kitchen."
"On the return to the jail with deputy constable Brown, Peterson remarked: 'Till bet that fellow's wanted somewhere.'"

AN EL PASOAN ON BOARD CAPTURED TRAIN

The Mexican government is known to have ammunition in store. It may be that when communication is restored, it will be found that Casas Grandes has been taken by the insurgents.

Segall on Train.
J. R. Segall, of El Paso, was on the train which was held up, and he says the insurgents were well armed and that a large number were behind a small hill, some distance from the train, ready to fire if there was any resistance. When there was none, he says the man in command fired his revolver and all these men came in and took the train southward.

He had been down to Casas Grandes on some business. He says there were only 15 rurales on duty in Casas Grandes. While he was in that town, Mr. Segall says a report came in that the rebels had captured a commissary on the Pearson road at what is known as 66, but they paid for all the stuff they took.

FT. BLISS TROOPS ALWAYS ARE READY

Col. A. C. Sharpe in command of the troops at Fort Bliss said Friday morning: "We have received no instructions to hold men in readiness, but they are ready at all times." This statement was made by the colonel when he was asked if he had ordered rations issued for 30 days to two companies for field service, a rumor to this effect having been circulated in El Paso.

RAILROAD CONTRACTORS BELOW CASAS GRANDES FEAR TROUBLE.

Colonia Dublan, Mex., Dec. 23.—Quite a number of the railroad contractors and employes were down to attend conference at Colonia Juarez but they have all gone back to their camps.

Some of them fear an attack from insurgents but propose to put in their time at work until they are actually stopped by armed force.

Some of the camps are pretty well armed; others have very little resisting force.

MEXICAN CHILDREN PLAY WAR.

Mexican boys of El Paso have a new game; they call it "Guerra" which means war. They have several little dummy Mexican soldiers which they line up in battle array and then shoot down with a pop gun. The children can be seen every day playing this game in the southern streets of the city and seem to take delight in knocking down the soldiers.

REFUSES FAMILY MILEAGE AND AUDITOR IS ARRESTED

LaFayette, La., Dec. 23.—M. L. Bonneval, of Echo, Tex., traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific, has been arrested for refusing to accept a family mileage book offered by the purchaser and his daughter. Bonneval insisted that the books can be used only by one member at a time. A test case will be made.

DIAZ'S CHIEF OF STAFF COMMANDS

once to Bustillos where the sixth battalion is stationed. That the sending of Col. Cuellar to the front bears more importance than if some other officer had been selected is the impression here, as he is known to be a man in whom the president has implicit confidence. It is believed he personally will investigate the actual state of affairs in Chihuahua and the efficiency and conduct of the army and will make a detailed report to Diaz.

PART OF GEN. NAVARRO'S FORCE AT SANTA BARBARA

A letter received in El Paso today from Santa Barbara, Chihuahua, says: "One hundred of the 800 troops from Chihuahua, reached Santa Barbara, December 21, after the battle at Cerro Prieto. It is reported that 400 of the 800 were slain at that time. It is also reported that these troops went 24 to 48 hours without anything to eat, and that the insurgents had been sending them cattle, sheep, etc., to keep them alive."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Michelmore and their baby will arrive in El Paso Saturday from Clifton, Ariz., to spend Christmas day with Mrs. D. W. Dorman and daughter, Pauline.
