asked all Mexican workmen to sign a paper stating whether they were in favor of Mr. Diaz or Mr. Madero for president. Not one would sign either way."

NO PAPERS DOWN IN SONORA STATE

Mexico Is Keeping News of the Insurrection Out of There.

Bisbee, Ariz., Dec. 26.—Among the Americans returning to Bisbee from Mexico to enjoy the holidays, a great majority of those coming from the Altar district, and are surprised at hearing of the reports current here of revolutionary movements in Mexico, and say that absolutely nothing of that nature is heard in the Altar district.

They complain that for over a month past no home newspapers have reached them and attribute their non-receipt to the over-zealousness of the Mexican postal authorities. The Americans say that occasionally groups of rurales have been seen going about the district, but no signs of any trouble among Mexicans were apparent.

As the railroad line was approached, scanty news of disturbances were heard, but as the border was reached, more detailed accounts of the revolutionary movements were given. A few cases have been heard of where Mexicans would meet an American mining man, alone, and hold him up, only for the purpose of relieving him of any fire-arms or weapons he might have possessed.

MONEY FOR THE FIRE VICTIMS

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 26.—Edward Morris, head of the packing company whose building was destroyed by fire in which 70 firemen gave up their lives, announces a gift of $25,000 to the citizens' relief fund for the aid of the firemen's widows and orphans.

Mayor Buesse rode at the head of the procession and chief of police Steward and assistant chief Schuetler led several platoons of police on foot.

The casket was borne on a horse cart and was followed by a line of equipages extending back a mile and a half. Thousands of persons lined the way over which the procession passed.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 26.—Now that the crisis between the railroads and the locomotive engineers has passed and the wage dispute is satisfactorily adjusted, railway managers will resume negotiations with representatives of the trainmen and conductors looking to an adjustment of their wage demands. Seventy-five thousand men are involved. They demand an increase of about 15 percent. Trainmen on all roads west of Chicago are involved.

The negotiations will be resumed tomorrow and it is expected that by the end of the week an agreement may be reached.

MANY LOTS SOLD AT FORT SUMNER

Fort Sumner, N. M., Dec. 26.—A large number of city lots east of the lake have been sold the past few days. Bids have been asked by eastern capitalists on a number of good buildings. It is said that some of the best of them are to be erected east of the lake. The talk of cooey in this neighborhood will not down. There has been movement started to make a test of the matter. Word from Washington to the local land office shows that the matter of titles is now up to secretary Binger.

Already it is evident that there will be increased activity in the valley this coming year, breaking and leveling new land, preparatory to seeding. Several large blocks are to be broken out.

Fort Sumner celery is getting the highest praises and prices from El Paso to Kansas City.

Na Madrid, who was burned out a year ago, had a narrow escape again. His stock of merchandise was hastily dumped in the street to escape the flames.

A purse of $50 cash was hurriedly made up here to give the children of the town a treat at the church Christmas night.

THINK SAMUELS WAS ASSASSIN'S VICTIM

City of Mexico, Dec. 26.—A suspicion of foul play is entertained by the authorities regarding the mysterious death of George Samuel, on the Paseo de la Reforma. At first it was supposed that the victim had met his death by being run down by an automobile, but a search in the records of the remains tend to show that other means were present in the killing of the Englishman. The general belief is that the victim was hit over the head with a club or bottle, in the hands of some secret enemy. But against this theory militates the fact that he did not have a known enemy.

The crime is attracting much attention in the foreign circles where he was widely known. The remains were shipped to his home in England.

Utterly Wretched

Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy was Found.

Miss Minerva Reminger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies but retained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured." Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

AMERICAN ENGINEER IS RELEASED AT GUADALAJARA

Says the Jalisco Times at Guadalajara: James A. Dunn, the National railways engineer, who was arrested last week and lodged in the state penitentiary at Guadalajara for the killing of a peon woman by his engine near the station of Los Ventos on the Ameca branch, was released later.

The woman attempted to cross the track after the engineer had sounded his whistle repeatedly and was struck by the pilot buffer and knocked to one side, dying immediately.

Engineer Dunn had another narrow escape from a killing Tuesday morning, when his train found a peon asleep with his head on the rail at about the same spot where he struck the woman. The peon was arrested and brought to Guadalajara, despite his pitiful pleadings to the trainmen that he be freed. He offered conductor James A. Cook all the money he had, consisting of 15 centavos, to let him go, but Cook was obdurate.

CHIHUAHUA PAPER ON MEXICAN INSURRECTION

out resistance, the garrison having joined the force of Gen. Navarro.

A business man who arrived here last night, returning from Pedernales, gave an interesting account of what he saw to an Enterprise representative. He said:

"I was held up by rebels at various intervals, perhaps as many as 15 times. They would call on me to halt, ride up and ask me my business. I never failed to satisfy them, finally, that I was no spy or emissary of the Diaz government, and consequently was allowed to proceed.

Rebels' Only Quarrel

"Our quarrel is with the men who have seized the government 'unlawfully,' they would say, and foreigners, especially Americans, who attend to their business, and take no sides in this fight, will not be molested.

"Malpasso is truly a bad pass for any one suspected of being favorable to the federalists. The hills commanding it are just alive with revolutionists. Every way you turn you look down a rifle barrel, and the fellow at the other end is aching to take a shot at you.

"I arrived at the pass at 10 o'clock Monday morning, the day following the battle. I took a good look at the field where the struggle took place. I counted 13 dead bodies lying within a short distance of each other, just as they fell, none of their clothes being stripped off as seemed to be the rule with the killed in other engagements in this war. There were also 20 to 25 dead horses on the field. A peculiarity I noticed was that all the dead soldiers were shot through the head.

Navarro's Bad Position

"Pedernales is full of wounded. From all I can learn Navarro is in a very bad position; the rebels have him practically surrounded, being wedged in between the two federal columns. "Navarro's men must be in want of food, for while at Pedernales I saw his bread wagon and other supplies within half mile of his camp held up by the revolutionists."

These officers have brought with them material to install the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy, which will be immediately established between this city and the federal military forces operating in any part of the state.

It's Always Bad

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and El Paso People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ailment?

If you don't see El Paso people do. Read a case of it:

Mrs. H. L. Packard, 611 Texas street, El Paso, Tex., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our home for over a year and their merit has been amply proven. This person having occasion to take this remedy complained of a pain in the small of the back and right side and at times the suffering was so acute that it was almost impossible for the patient to turn in bed. As soon as the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Kelly & Pollard's Drug Store, was begun, the patient's condition improved and there has been but little trouble since. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Jose Mata, who had been an agent of police in this city, left for Guerrero a couple of weeks ago, and had the ill fortune to fall into the hands of the rebels at La Junta. He was recognized by the rebel chief, Castulo Herrera, and subjected to torture to compel him to divulge the nature of this mission. He was led out as if to be shot, made fast with ropes and strung up in the air and left suspended for hours. Mata at last succeeded in escaping his captors and is now in this city.

Three Rapid Fliers

Monday night 250 federal troops under command of Col. Manuel Gordillo Escudero arrived in this city to operate against the rebels. There also arrived on the same train three rapid firing guns with 15 operators.

BANCO DE SONORA SAYS NO TROUBLE ON WEST COAST

Following comes to The Herald from Sonora: Hermosillo, Sonora, December 24, 1910. Editor El Paso Herald: We take this means of advising our friends, and those interested in the development of this section, that there has been no trouble whatsoever of any description anywhere on the west coast of Mexico, and that there is, furthermore, not the slightest reason for expecting any.

The ill-starred attempt at sedition instigated by a handful of malcontents, has been confined to a small mountain section in Chihuahua.

Business in this state has gone on just as usual and investors in mines and lands in Sonora, and other states along the west coast of Mexico, have engaged in operations totaling hundreds of thousands of dollars, during the very time that the reports had us in a throes of a revolution.

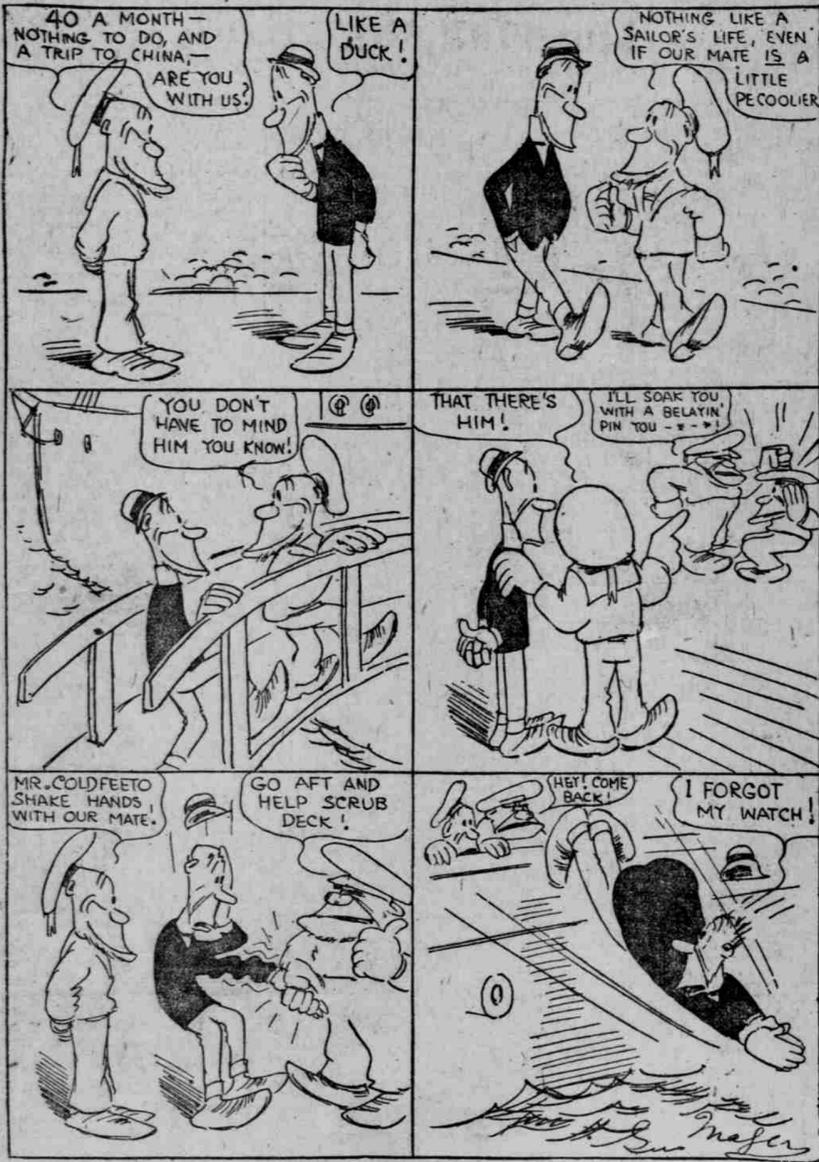

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Banco De Sonora.
