The contract was not awarded at once. In order to open the bids for the sewerage system and water supply to thoroughly examine specifications of each individual bidder. The gross figures as above represent the amount bid for complete construction of water system and sewer system, according to the specifications approved by town trustees.

In addition to the bidders there were a large number of representatives for machinery and supply houses from as far east as Chicago, and in addition several railroad representatives looking to the interests of their lines for the freight on pipe, etc. which will be shipped from the east.

The completion of this sewer system will make Las Cruces one of the most up to date residence cities in the new state, and with the addition of a complete water system will give ample fire protection, as well as pure healthful water.

The following arrived in the city in connection with the opening of the bids for the sewerage system and water supply: A. V. Riker, Wichita, Kan.; Frank M. Lansing, El Paso; M. F. Dicus, Will F. Plummer, Springfield, Mo.; E. Anderson, Albuquerque, N. M.; W. C. Shaw, Lawton, Okla.; Carl Liebke, Denver, Colo.; Percival Rowe, San Francisco, Cal.; W. A. E. Woods, El Paso, Tex.; G. Jaeger, Rich Hill, Mo.; Wm. E. Anderson, R. E. Barke, H. J. Armstrong, El Paso, Tex.; C. P. Quintan, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Peter O'Brien, Denver, Colo.; E. M. Eby, Wichita, Kas.

The Thursday bridge club met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Jelds. The members of the club enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon, with Mrs. J. E. Saiter receiving the high score which entitled her to first prize, a cut glass vase.

E. J. Farr of Sherman, Tex., arrived in the city yesterday from eastern Texas, and is looking about the valley for a new location.

The train has been running on time in and out of Las Cruces, from the north and south, despite the weather and snow today.

J. S. Jetter, of Sioux Falls, S. D., is in the city today looking over the valley. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ellis, of Louis City, Ia., are new arrivals in the valley.

T. G. Reames, of Elephant Butte, arrived in town today to remain a day or two.

E. Balwin, of San Antonio, Tex., arrived in town last night, to remain a day or two in the valley.

Snow still lays on the ground in Las Cruces, with a slight fall since the big fall of Wednesday night. The thermometer took a sudden turn downward, freezing the snow and ice on the trees and fences, forming a beautiful effect.
