TRADER'S MESSAGE ON THE COST

ed by the continued rise in the price of food products, many of the commodities having moved far above all previous records. The average retail price prevailing in El of the principal staples of the grocery trade was:

In Holland the consul at Amsterdam quoted an official agricultural report covering the past several years. It showed that the increase in prices had ranged from 1 to 10 per cent in the 12 years following 1925. Reports from consular officers in the other countries showed similar advances.

English Co-operative Association Much interest attaches to the co-operative associations in England. The co-operative agricultural societies are aided by the government in their negotiations with railway companies, government departments and business houses. Supplies of all kinds are purchased jointly at wholesale prices. Produce is graded and distributed through means of depots maintained in neighboring towns or through selling agents. Markets are visited by agents who inform the members as to the quality and price of produce.

The Co-operative Union located at Manchester has contributed greatly to the formation of growth in co-operative societies generally. The objects of the union are a diffusion of information in regard to the movement and the assistance of individual societies. It maintains committees on education, joint propaganda, legislation, exhibitions, trade unionism, credit training, and legal defense.

The development of cooperation in the United Kingdom is continuing at a fair rate, although not so rapidly as in the earlier years. The growth thus far has been confined to the wage-laboring classes.

An analysis of the reports of the consular officers on cooperative societies and similar associations in the United Kingdom was made by the Bureau of Trade Relations of the department of state and transmitted with a small text of the reports. This reviews the movement as a whole and gives many interesting details. Among other activities, many of the societies undertake to insure either their corporate interests or the property or lives of their members against various contingencies. In other instances they simply act as agents for established insurance organizations. Some organizations have a plan whereby members are insured automatically to the amount of their average annual purchases during the three years preceding death, thus setting up an additional fund for trading at the societies' stores. A reserve fund is maintained by nearly all the societies. This fund is provided for by the segregation of a low percentage of the surplus profits which may be drawn upon in emergencies at the discretion of the directors. Also societies give instruction in accountancy, the principles of cooperation, economics with reference to co-operation, industrial history, administrative science and cognate subjects. Lectures and other entertainments are frequently provided and circulating libraries and reading rooms are maintained. Many of the associations provide an annual outing for their members. These outings are paid for out of the reserve funds.

Various cooperative societies have agreements with doctors, dentists, and artisans by which members secure dividend checks when patronizing them. In other words a commission is allowed to the societies by the patronage with whom the arrangements are made in consideration of the patronage afforded.

Many cooperators are members of labor unions and there has been a possibility that the two movements would to some extent coalesce. Up to the present time, however, although the Co-operative Union has a committee on labor unionism and the two movements send representatives to each other's conventions there has been no active aid or official cooperation between them.

A number of the consular reports describe the cooperative concerns which are patterned to a greater or less degree after the Rochdale allied systems. The most important of these is the Civil Service Supply association, which originated among employees of the post-office department who clubbed together to secure wholesale rates on the more common household supplies. The experiment was an immediate success and other governmental employees joined the movement. The Civil Service Supply association established its first department stores in London which after many years were opened to the general public. It is now approximately $10,000,000 annually. The Army and Navy troops are operated on the same general lines as the Civil Service Supply association.

Pitney Confirmed. Mahlon Pitney, chancellor of the state of New Jersey, president Taft's nominee to succeed the late Justice Harlan on the supreme court bench, was confirmed today by the senate by a vote of 69 to 23. Pitney will come to Washington Monday.

Commins Urges Wool Revision. At an informal conference of the Republican members of the senate finance committee, senator Commins, of Iowa, urged that the Republican members of the senate enact legislation regarding the wool, cotton, sugar and steel schedules of the present tariff law.

The regular Republican members are of the opinion that legislation should be made other than the tariff board reports. The committee will report adversely the pending house steel tariff revision bill probably on Friday.

Unusual Procedure. Brigadier general E. H. Crowder, testified before the house committee on war department expenditures that the transfer of the papers in the major Eberhard E. Ray case from the office of the chief of staff to the chief of the bureau of insular affairs, and from the office of the president Taft, was an "unusual procedure."

Underwood Urges Excise Bill. Maintaining the constitutionality of the proposed excise tax bill, extending provisions of the corporation tax law to individuals and partnerships, submitted a revenue measure to replace customs duties on sugar, representative Underwood, chairman of the report to the house today, urging the passage of the bill.

arguing the constitutionality of the proposed law, pronounced an absolute conformity with the supreme court decisions relating to the income tax. He proposed to oblige the citizen to contribute a fair and just portion of his net gains to the maintenance of the government.

The report calls for a combination of the excise tax of 1925 and the corporation tax law of 1925, both of which have been held valid in all respects by the supreme court.

Think It Constitutional. That the proposed excise tax is constitutional, the senate committee on finance Democrats believe, for the following reasons:

The proposed tax is direct tax upon the property, real or personal of the would never go to jail. The officer was stopped by a storm of bullets and crumpled, dead in a heap on the floor.

By this time the shooting in the court room had become general and there was a wild rush of the unarmed for windows and doors.

CLERK OF COURT SHOT. Dexter Goad, clerk of the court, received a bullet wound in his neck and later died. His death meant the wiping out of the court officers.

Jury Douglas, who was wounded during the fighting, died later also. This makes a total of five dead up to this time.

Judge Massie was one of the most prominent jurists of the state and recently was considered for promotion to the Virginia supreme court.

Governor Mann has offered a reward of $1000 for the murderers, who escaped after having slain the court officers.

The governor has also ordered Roanoke and Lynchburg militia companies to be prepared to proceed to Hillsville.

SEVENTEEN IN ALLEN MOB. Cincinnati, Ohio, March 14.—A special from Bristol, Tenn., says that 17 of the mountaineers who made their escape from Hillsville took refuge in an old barn in a mountainous spot and prepared to resist the posse. All are said to be plentifully supplied with ammunition, and from the advantageous position of the barn could withstand a much larger body of men.

SWATOW HAS THREE DAYS OF FIGHTING

Merchants Try to Bring About Peace Between Chinese Factions.

Amoy, China, March 14.—Desultory fighting has been going on the last three days between troops from Swatow and soldiers belonging to Waichow, both in the province of Kwangtung. A column consisting of 70 men from Swatow, which was sent out to intercept reinforcements from Waichow, was annihilated by the Waichow troops.

The merchants of Swatow are trying to bring about a compromise between the two factions. The United States monitor Monterey remains at Swatow.

BAILEY WOULD PUT BAN ON INJUNCTIONS

Austin, Texas, March 14.—In a letter made public today by railroad commissioner Williams, which he has just received from U. S. senator Bailey, the writer advises Judge Williams that he (Bailey) believes it is possible to have passed by congress an amendment to the federal antitrust law so as to prevent preliminary injunction by federal courts. Senator Bailey from his letter seems to favor such action. This letter is in reply to one by commissioner Williams on the question of the abridgment of states' rights brought about by federal court injunctions.

PACKERS WILL NOT SUBMIT TESTIMONY

Chicago, Ill., March 14.—The ten Chicago packers, who are charged with final violation of the Sherman law, will submit their case to the jury without presenting any testimony. NO COMPROMISE IN ANTHRACITE DISPUTE

President of United Mine Workers Looks for General Strike.

New York, N. Y., March 14.—The United Mine Workers of America will not compromise a single demand that they have made of the anthracite coal operators," declared John P. White, president of the Mine Workers, this afternoon. "I look for a general suspension of work in the anthracite field on April 1st," he added. "The operators have notified us that their reply is final. When we meet them tomorrow we will file merely a formal reply, reiterating our demands. It will then be up to the operators. If they make no concession, every union hard coal miner in Pennsylvania will lay down his tools on the night of March 31."

Negotiations Are Favorable. London, England, March 14.—The negotiations between the mine workers and the miners in the coal trade dispute appear to be taking a favorable course. Progress is slow but when the joint conference adjourned this afternoon after four hours' session it was announced that the deliberations would be resumed tomorrow.

LA FOLLETTE GIVES POLITICAL CREED

Believes in Referendum, Recall, Direct Nominations, Express Ownership.

Madison, Wis., March 14.—The political creed of senator Robert M. La Follette has been given out here. He declares his belief in the initiative, referendum, recall, direct nominations and government ownership and operation of express companies and his opposition to a ship subsidy, the Aldrich currency plan, parcels post and Canadian reciprocity. Accompanying his platform senator La Follette makes the statement: "When Roosevelt became president, the total amount of the stock and bond issues of the trusts and combinations amounted to the enormous sum of $21,000,000,000. When he turned the country over to Taft, whom he had selected as his successor, the total capitalization of the trusts and combinations amounted to the enormous sum of $31,000,000,000. More than 70 percent of which was water. Prices were put up in transportation and on the products of the mines and factories to pay interest and dividends on this fraudulent capitalization."

DEMOCRATS START KICKING DOG AROUND

Then They Begin Planning for a Champ Clark Defeat.

Hutchinson, Kas., March 14.—As state chairman H. S. Martin called the Democratic convention to order at noon today, a great bound dog owned by Koon C. Beck, sheriff of Reno county was sent scurrying across the platform by the hoop of some enthusiastic Democrat, and while the dog emitted howls, the convention band struck up the Omak dog song adopted by Clark men and the delegates, bubbling over with enthusiasm, launched into the homely strains of "You've got to quit kicking my dog around." It was apparent the Clark men were in control and while the Wilson men had not yet given up the fight, they were admitting that the Clark men would control the convention by a few votes. Two sets of resolutions may be presented to the convention one drawn by the Clark men, and the other by the Wilson adherents. The Clark men prepared theirs this morning. They provide that the Kansas delegates to the Baltimore convention be instructed for the speaker.

NO FIGHT TO BE MADE ON NEW MEXICO DELEGATION

Washington, D. C., March 14.—There will be no contest in the Republican national convention in Chicago over the seating of eight delegates from New Mexico, according to statements by officers of the national committee. Although New Mexico is strictly entitled to but six, under the call of the convention issued by the national committee in December, secretary Hayward, to whom the question was referred, has decided to institute no action to prevent seating the increased number.

SIMPLICITY OF HAIR DRESSING NOW FASHIONABLE

Women Favor Puffed Locks, Puffs, Pompadours, Coronet Braids Going Out. The present fashion of wearing the hair softly parted, without puffs and bows, demands a naturally fine head of hair, and women with thin locks are at their wits' end to know how to make their hair look well. The first step toward this end is to keep hair and scalp in a healthy condition by the systematic use of a stimulating tonic. HAY'S HAIR HEALTH contains all the health-giving ingredients needed by the starved hair roots. It destroys dandruff germs and encourages rapid growth of strong, new hair. Those hopelessly dry, faded looking locks grow soft, lustrous and youthful and the whole appearance is improved. You can get it at any drug store for $1.00 per bottle or from the Paul Hay Spec.
