

STATE SENATE KILLS THE EQUAL SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 12.—The bill of senator Hughes providing for the submission of an equal suffrage amendment to the constitution was defeated in the senate late yesterday evening by a vote of 10 to 9. This probably will end the suffrage matter at this session. The house bill with a provision the same as the Hughes bill is still in the senate, but will share the same fate as the other measure.

BILL TO REMOVE CAPITAL TO TUCSON

Phoenix, Ariz., April 12.—The bill of senator Hughes providing for the removal of the state capital from Phoenix to Tucson, was defeated in the senate late yesterday evening by a vote of 10 to 9. This probably will end the suffrage matter at this session. The house bill with a provision the same as the Hughes bill is still in the senate, but will share the same fate as the other measure.

TO CALL ELECTION.

One of the most important of today's proceedings was the introduction by senator Breen, Republican, of Cochise county, of a bill providing for the election of all state and county officers this fall.

TO CHANGE CAPITAL.

Representative Vessel, of Yuma county, will introduce a bill today providing for the removal of the state capital from Phoenix to Tucson.

CLASH OVER AMENDMENT.

A clash over the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the recall of the judiciary occurred between the senate and the house when the constitutional committee reported all the bills recommended that the house bill, as amended by the senate to place judges every four years in office, be amended by the senate to place the amendment in the hands of the voters.

INVITE CLARK TO SPEAK.

A joint resolution inviting Speaker Champ Clark to address the Arizona legislature at his convenience was adopted by the lower house by a vote of 54 to 1.

PUBLIC LANDS MEASURE.

The house last night in the hands of the public lands question, one of the most important that will come before the legislature at the present session. By the enabling act, under which Arizona was admitted, the entire public land was donated to the state; and the proper disposition of this land is one of the most serious of all the legislative problems.

TO PREVENT BUSINESS FRAUDS.

Senator C. B. Wood, of this county, has come to the front with another bill, the second of the kind introduced by him, for the prevention of frauds in business transactions. His latest bill provides stringent penalties for any business concern which shall employ any false or misleading statement regarding its business affairs or financial standing.

BILL AIMED AT RED FLAG.

A bill aimed at the Socialists will probably be introduced in the legislature at an early date. This proposed bill is designed to prevent the display of inflammatory assemblages, of any red flag or other revolutionary emblem. The introduction of such a bill is certain to create trouble among Arizona Socialists, who have a high regard for the red flag.
