Weddings

The wedding is announced of Miss Mary Irene Davis and Dallas Elliott McNall, which occurred May 31, in Las Cruces, N. M. The couple stole a march on their friends and ran away to Las Cruces, where they were quietly married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. K. Campbell, in the parsonage of the Methodist church of Las Cruces, with only the minister's family as witnesses. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Davis, of 1331 Myrtle avenue. She is formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., but has lived in El Paso for some time. Mr. McNall is from St. Louis, Mo., and is connected with the G. H. & S. A. railway system. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 1331 Myrtle avenue.

Church Affairs

The B. Y. P. U. of Highland Park Baptist church gave a very successful church social Thursday night on the tennis court adjoining the church. Japanese lanterns were strung about the court, making it an attractive picture. Games of all kinds were played and everyone had a good time. There were about 25 present, ice cream and cake were served by the social committee, consisting of Berlie Sanderson, Thompson Freeman, Misses Grace Robertson, Irene Graff and Mrs. Charles Fibberg, chairman. K. C. Gray is the president of the union.

Mr. and Mrs. Robin Good will entertain the Missionary society of Trinity Methodist church this evening at their home in the Elks' apartments.

The Humane society will give a ball tonight in the Rockhart building for the benefit of a fund to maintain a Humane society officer in El Paso through the summer. A good orchestra will play the music and everything possible is being done to make the affair a success.

El Pasoans Away

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wals will leave El Paso Saturday afternoon for New Orleans, where they will sail for New York City. After visiting in New York for some time they will go to Atlantic City to attend the talking machine convention there. Later they will visit in Washington, D. C. in Rochester, the old home of Mrs. Wals, Chicago, and Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Wals will return the latter part of August, but Mrs. Wals will remain away visiting until the first of October.

Miss Bliza Holloway is in Elephant Butte, where she will spend her vacation visiting friends.

C. H. Lester and son, Roy Lester, of Deming and El Paso, with J. D. Bukey, secretary of the El Paso automobile club, left Thursday morning in Mr. Lester's touring car. Mr. Bukey will only go as far as Roswell, N. M., but the Lesters will continue over the Borderland route to St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Robertson are in Silver City to spend a week while Mr. Robertson is attending business matters of importance.

Mrs. D. C. Crowell, accompanied by her little daughter, is in Silver City to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shoemaker.

Miss May Quarterman, a teacher at the Alamo school, has gone to Denison, Texas, where her mother, Mrs. Fanny Quarterman, is quite ill.

Mrs. E. M. Gray and her children are in Clondcroft, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Minnie Kerkie expects to leave Friday for a visit to the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Los Angeles and San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. Margaret P. Murphy, teacher of domestic art in the El Paso public schools, left Thursday for San Francisco. After a short time spent there she will embark on a vessel for Honolulu. She will visit friends in Hilo, Hawaii, until September, when she will return to El Paso.

Parties

A very delightful surprise party was given to Miss Rosemary Bennett at her home on Prospect avenue, by three of her friends, Misses Maggie Cotter, Lillian Booth and Donna Truesdell.

Dancing was the principal amusement during the evening which was greatly enjoyed. Later in the evening a contest took place in which the first prize was won by Miss Bennett, a volume of Longfellow's poems, and the consolation by Miss Hawkins.

The first prize for the boys was carried off by Mr. Melchaly, a gold scarf pin, and the consolation fell to Miss Helen Warren, a volume of Longfellow's poems. The contest took place in the evening. Those participating were: The Misses Rosemary Bennett, Mary Andrews, Kittle Burckell, Beattie Gilson, Edith Maloney, Katherine and Minnie Fitzgerald, Leona Comora, Nora Hawkins, Effie Warren, Maggie and Ruth Hodge, Caroline Stratham, Ocella Bullard, Eleanor Ronan, Minnie Heister, Alice Paschal, Lillian Booth, Maggie Cotter and Donna Truesdell; Messrs. Connie Mutchay, Brown Paschal, Leo Heister, Jim Mills, Cary Yewand, Louis Young, Leon Ronan, Ernest Malone, Jack Bourland, Lee Bourland, Ray Worley, Rob de Koring, Will Mohr, Charles Trechner, Bud Crowley, Harry Tepper, Lloyd Ratliff, Huston Burk, Paul Leper, and Jack Kersey.

Mrs. Charles Givens assisted Mrs. Bennett in showing the young folk a good time.

Mrs. G. W. Dennis will give a porch picnic party in honor of Miss Melitta Tafel Tuesday afternoon from three to six o'clock, at her home on Boulevard and Park.

Women's Organizations

Mrs. S. C. Dempsey and Mrs. Olga Kohlberg left El Paso Friday noon for California. They go as delegates from the Woman's club of El Paso to the biennial meeting of the general Federation of Women's Clubs, which meets at San Francisco June 12. The meetings will continue for two weeks. Mrs. Fiera McCa Jones accompanied the delegates as alternate.

The El Paso delegates go instructed to vote for Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, as president of the general federation. Mrs. Pennybacker was at one time president of the Texas federation and is well known in El Paso. She has held several important offices in the general federation. In addition to the meetings, there will be a number of excursions to the scenic points in the vicinity of San Francisco for the delegates and a concert is to be given the night before the opening of the meeting. Before returning to El Paso, Mrs. S. C. Dempsey will visit friends in San Diego, Los Angeles and Lakolla, Calif.
