BANK WRECKER GETS TEN YEARS

Binghamton, N. Y., July 2.—Frank T. Arnold, cashier of the First National bank of New Berlin, who pleaded guilty to the indictment charging him with wrecking the institution, has been sentenced to a 10 years' term to be served in the federal prison at Atlanta. The First National bank closed its doors on April 17, last, after a shortage of $250,000 had been discovered. Arnold was arrested at his home on May 5, after residents of the town had threatened to tar and feather him. Several of the depositors of the closed bank were made bankrupt by the failure, and it is said several deaths resulted.

A terrible skin-trouble cured.

Her husband feared the worst. But B.B.B. saved her.

"I am satisfied that your B.B.B. saved my wife from the grave," writes Mr. V. C. Kirby of Toccoa, Ga. "She no doubt had a blood-disease from the way the doctors described it. And B.B.B. has certainly done the work for her."

Mrs. Kirby's case was unusually severe. And J. B. Brooks of Atlanta, Ga., states that the physicians were completely baffled by it.

"Anyway it was a very stubborn case of skin-trouble," he says. "But after her taking B.B.B., I called to see her personally and she was looking fine!"

Nearly all skin-complaints come from impure blood. And B.B.B. is one of the most thorough blood-cleansers ever discovered. That is why it has such a remarkable effect on skin-troubles of every kind. It cures them from the inside. And that makes the cure permanent and complete.

Tell your druggist you are bound to give this splendid medicine a fair trial. He will supply you. For your own sake insist on it.

If necessary write to the Blood Balm Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. Your money back if B.B.B. fails to help you.

M'CORMICK SAYS DENVER CAN'T WIN

Taft Ticket Would Defeat Him, He Says—Calls on the Colonel.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 2.—Robert R. McCormick, of Chicago, who is leader of the Illinois delegation for Roosevelt at the Republican convention, but who was one of the first to say that he would not follow the former president in the formation of a new party, came to Oyster Bay yesterday with the statement that governor Deneen, of Illinois, could not carry his state on the Taft ticket, and he (McCormick) had come to open negotiations with the colonel. McCormick intimated that he had come as an emissary from members of the Republican organization.

Col. Deneen Way May Be Found. "I shall only listen to what Mr. McCormick has to say," said Col. Roosevelt, "and express a hope that some will be found to unite, so that the Roosevelt forces in Illinois will not be divided. I wish the support of all those who believe in the commandment, Thou shalt not steal, and who do not believe in the kind of domination which has been exercised, through the same type of men and by practically the same methods, in both the Republican and Democratic organizations."

The colonel was in high spirits over the turn of affairs in Illinois as represented by Mr. McCormick. "Thinks There Are Several Others." "It was a significant thing," he said, "and you will see several more cases of the same thing in other states. In continuing the fight, Mr. McCormick said the Roosevelt leaders had told governor Deneen that "if he did not fall in line they would beat him."

It was Col. Roosevelt's opinion that a solution of the problem might be reached by continuing the present organization with the Roosevelt strength behind the state ticket, instead of naming an independent ticket as had been proposed. He made it plain, however, that he wished the leaders in Illinois to settle that for themselves. "In states like California, South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska and West Virginia," the colonel explained, "we have the Republican organization and it would be useless to attempt to start all over from the ground up. The situation is similar to that which existed when the Republican party was formed. That is, there were several different tickets representing the elements which later were united in the Republican party."

TROUSERETS IN NEW YORK

Luisa Capetilla, the young writer and member of a prominent family of Porto Rico, photographed in the garb in which she appeared on fashionable Fifth avenue, New York. It consists of a dainty lace and linen coat, full length, thrown carelessly over striking bloomers which reach from an inch or two above the ankle to the waist. Miss Capetilla's costume attracted so much attention, that the busy avenue was congested with thousands of people and scores of automobiles and other vehicles. And matters became so bad that a policeman requested her to pin down her coat as far as the knees at least, which she did.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

At a meeting of the members of the Y. W. C. A. Monday night in the downtown rooms of the association, Mrs. H. T. Bowie, the president gave an interesting account of the Y. W. C. A. conference at Monte Ne, Arkansas, where she went as a delegate from the El Paso organization. Mrs. Bowie outlined the different branches of the work of the conference, which was an unusually successful and well attended one. She described the conference site and environment, and besides the work of the conference also described the recreations afforded, closing her talk by urging that an effort be started immediately by the local association to enable a large number of delegates from El Paso to attend the conference next year. Among the interesting points brought out was the establishing of the rural association among the girls of the Texas ranches and farms. This is the fifth state to establish the rural branch. This was done early this spring and it has already proved itself capable of doing much good.

The rooms of the association were decorated with American flags and bays of red, white and blue. Upon one wall was a poster exhibition brought back from the conference by Mrs. Bowie. The poster representing the different athletic and recreation events. Some of the songs which proved most popular in the convention were sung in unison, the Texas association song, "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon Us." Refreshments of sherbet and cake were served by a committee of young ladies, consisting of Misses Hattie Mae Loretz, Lucille Daniels, Blanche Davis, Maggie Davis, Vivian Reed, Reba Elliott and Mrs. Edward Hodge.

An Effective Design For Linen

The lines following this design are especially good for the material chosen, which is rather heavy linen in natural color. The side closing and odd shaped peplum is at once noticeable and attractive. The collar and cuffs are edged with chunly lace, and a folded black satin sash with a buckle of the same is worn.

CONDUCTOR ADDS HIS TESTIMONY TO OTHERS

Prominent Ex-Trainman Pays Glowing Tribute to "Plant Juice" and Tells Why.

Most every one on the Arkansas division of the Iron Mountain & Southern railroad knows Samuel L. Hampton, joint baggage-master for Frisco and Santa Fe at Brady, Texas. For years he has been a popular conductor, running trains on the Arkansas division of the Iron Mountain & Southern. Those who know him intimately are aware that for several years he has not been in robust health. It will be with much pleasure they will read the following statement from him directed to the "Plant Juice" demonstrator at Kelly & Pollard's drug store, 201 N. Oregon street, where hundreds of people are now calling daily to investigate the merits of this great new tonic.

Conductor Hampton says: "For the past five years I have been a great sufferer from liver and stomach complaints and I had about given up all hope of ever being cured. I had dreadful pains in my back and could not eat the simplest kind of food without great distress. This caused me much suffering and made me totally unfit for work."

I saw your ad in the El Paso papers and decided to give "Plant Juice" a trial. Your demonstrator at Kelly & Pollard's guaranteed to either help me or return my money. After using one bottle I felt so much better I immediately purchased two more. I am now taking my third bottle and can truthfully say that "Plant Juice" is the greatest remedy on earth and I hope this letter will be of benefit in helping other sufferers.
