LOOKER VOTE TO BE TAKEN TOMORROW

Lorimer Will Speak in Defense of Self; Case Causes Senatorial Clashes Today.

JONES TELLS WHY HE CHANGED FRONT

Washington, D. C., July 10.—When the senate took up the Lorimer case today it was indicated that all speeches, except senator Lorimer's, would be concluded and that a vote would be reached tomorrow.

Senator Johnston of Alabama opened today's session. He conceded a popular demand for Lorimer's unseating and said he knew he would be on the unpopular side in supporting the Illinois man.

Senator Johnston condemned "un-Christian and un-American" Col. Roosevelt's course in declining to sit with senator Lorimer at the Hamilton club's dinner at Chicago.

Jones and Smith Clash.

Senator Jones of Washington, who opposed Lorimer at the first trial, but who supported him now, said he had changed his convictions because he had personally heard the witnesses against Lorimer. He complained of public clamor in the case and charged it was having too much influence in determining the votes of senators.

"This statement aroused senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, who confessed to irritation as to what he characterized as "covert and insinuating imputations in the press in support of Mr. Lorimer that show in opinion lack honesty and courage and are subject to influence by public clamor."

Senator Jones denied any intention of criticizing the attitude of others, but asserted there had been too much effort to control public sentiment in opposition to Lorimer. He admitted there also had been perjury on both sides.

Alienation Case Referred To.

The two senators discussed the evidence in some length, and Mr. Smith finally referred to the recent lawsuit brought in Chicago by John Henning against Clarence Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company, in which Henning charged Funk with the alienation of his wife's affections.

Henning lost his case and his wife is said to have confessed that the charge was a conspiracy to injure Funk for his testimony against Lorimer. Senator Smith said he thought the suit had been brought to affect the Lorimer case.

Charges Against Whisky Interests.

Reference to perjury brought out a vigorous statement from senator Jones. He expressed the opinion that the money distributed by Lee O'Neill Browne had been contributed by "whisky interests."

"There is no positive evidence, but from the record it is the most probable theory as to where the money came from," he said.

"It is just as reasonable to suppose that the corrupt fund was used to elect Lorimer as to influence legislation," senator Pomeroy asked.

"I do not think so," replied Mr. Jones. "It was a legislative fund and there is nothing in the record to indicate that the money was used for any other purpose."

Money for Tariff Board.

Appropriations of $250,000 for the tariff board and $20,000 for the international waterways commission were restored to the sundry civil bill reported today by the senate.

Because of the bubonic plague situation the house appropriation for prevention of epidemic by the public health service was increased from $100,000 to $500,000.

Other Provisions.

The customs reforms proposed in the house bill were stricken out, and an item of $50,000 for collecting the revenue from customs inserted; likewise, $250,000 for sea coast artillery batteries and $50,000 for the Keithley-Overton railroad, both in the Philippines; $70,000 for additional land at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.; $50,000 for a steel bridge at Fort Riley, Kans., and $25,000 for large range at Vancouver barracks.

The house bill was amended so as to continue in the office of register and receiver of public money for land districts.

The provision in the house bill limiting the department of justice in employing attorneys who have just left the government service was stricken out.

To Probe Department of Agriculture.

Representative Akin, of New York, introduced in the house of representatives today a resolution upon secretary Wilson to explain certain alleged relations with Colorado land projects. The resolution says that James W. Wilson, the secretary's son and private secretary, is now an official of an irrigation corporation at a salary of $10,000 a year and estimates that settlers in Colorado have been defrauded. It asks for a report on the Denver reservoir and Standley dam projects.

Rate Amendment Defeated.

The senate committee on post offices yesterday voted down an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill to establish two rates for second class mail matter.

PROHIBITIONISTS FIGHTING TAFT

The principles for which we stand will win.

To Fight Church Politics.

A presidential nomination boom based on a new issue that would substitute practical politics for "church politics," was started here last night.

Elmer C. Henderson, of Cumberland, Md., was launched as a candidate for the presidential nomination by the Maryland delegation, which will appear for his selection on a broad platform, especially urging that there be more earnest appeal for votes outside the churches and that less of the energy of the party be expended in "howling for the church vote."

Mr. Henderson, who is a member of the Prohibition party executive committee, is a strong advocate for practical politics in the prohibition movement.

The entrance in the race of Mr. Henderson probably will result in the elimination of Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, prohibition candidate in 1928, who has been mentioned as a probability this time.

Another tangible boom for the party ticket was precipitated at a reception to the delegates when the Massachusetts delegation arrived with friends and banners proclaiming "Cha-fu and Watkins for 1912," the party ticket in 1908.

A movement to establish a scientific section of the party was instituted last night. The scientific section would seek to group, popularize and make available the mass of facts as to alcohol brought out by laboratory, statistical and sociological studies.

WILSON SPEAKS AT ATLANTIC CITY

Introduced by John Wammaker in First Appearance Since Nomination.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—What Atlantic City lacks and needs most is moral pride, in the opinion of Woodrow Wilson, who addressed a throng of 5000 persons here today. It was the Democratic nominee's first appearance on the platform since the Baltimore convention, and the crowd cheered him enthusiastically.

The governor was introduced by John Wammaker, former postmaster general, who referred to him as "a plain man, and a learned statesman."

Among the men who met governor Wilson at his hotel today was Wm. Cramp, retired shipbuilder of Philadelphia.

"I have voted the Republican ticket for 40 years," he told the governor, "but in 1912 I shall vote for you."

"Kentucky is for you strong," governor McCreeary, of Kentucky, told the nominee. "We are going to help elect you."

William J. Burns, who investigated the alleged councilman graft cases in Atlantic City, talked with the governor for a few minutes about the local situation.

BISHOP BROWN GOES TO PROBE TROUBLES

Says Mormons Must Have Justice; Will Report to State Department.

Douglas, Ariz., July 10.—Bishop O. P. Brown left this morning on horseback for Colonia Morelos to investigate reports of Mexican federal outrages against Mormon colonists. Prior to leaving Douglas, Brown declared that the Mormons must have justice or he would know the reason why. Bishop Brown deemed a personal visit necessary. He will lay his findings before the state department upon his return.

The situation in the colony is said to have reached the point where the slightest act upon the part of the colonists or federalists will precipitate bloodshed. Feeling here is growing that international complications cannot be prevented save by withdrawal of federal troops from the colony.

Giuseppe Garibaldi, who announced his retirement from the service of the federal government of Mexico yesterday, this morning received a private wire from president Madero summoning him to Mexico City tomorrow.

Whether this foreshadows another shakeup in Sonora military officials or whether he will be placed in some other position of the army is not known. It is said to be certain that Madero will "take care of him." Garibaldi stated today he will probably return here should the federal forces meet reverses.

REBELS PLAN TO USE AGUA PRIETA AS A NEW BASE

From rebel sources it is learned that the plan is to abandon Juarez entirely as soon as the troops can be moved away, and to go to Agua Prieta, making that the principal border stronghold and headquarters. A determined effort will be made, it is said, to hold other and other west coast states while the rebel forces are recruited and supplies brought in. El Paso commiserates the city of Douglas, Arizona, upon the change of rebel base, and congratulates herself in the same degree, with the fervent hope that about 217 Madero spies will also be transferred and traffic across the line resumed in normal fashion.

ANTI-RING RALLY.

The political opponents of the ring will hold a rally at ANTI-RING HEADQUARTERS, 115 N. STANTON ST., Wednesday night, the 10th, at 8 p. m. All voters are invited. Speakers of local prominence will give many reasons why the ring should be defeated.

WOUNDED DEER GORES A HUNTER

Might Have Killed Man but For Faithfulness of Pack of Hounds.

San Rafael, Calif., July 10.—A wounded deer seriously gored a hunter yesterday three times in a canyon on Mount Tamalpais and might have killed him but for the faithfulness of a pack of hounds which dragged the maddened buck from their prostrate master, enabling him to reach his rifle and kill the deer.

William Wosser, a locomotive engineer of Sausalito, had wounded the deer by a long range shot, and drained it into a ravine with his dogs. The deer doubled back and gored Wosser three times in the abdomen.

HUERTA DENIES HE EXECUTED CHIHUAHUANS

Gen. Victoriano Huerta, commander of the victorious federalists, has made a formal denial of the reports that executions had been made since the federal troops took possession of Chihuahua. The denial came to the Mexican consul in El Paso. Not only have no executions taken place in Chihuahua, Gen. Huerta says in his message, but he has guaranteed the safety of all citizens of the state. He has further promised amnesty to all rebels who will lay down their arms and surrender unconditionally.

BOB BROWN IS CHIEF JUSTICE

Kentuckian Remains at the Head of Elks' Lawmaking Body.

Portland, Oregon, July 10.—Robert Brown, of Louisville, past grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will succeed himself as chief of the grand lodge of the order for the coming year. The position on the board made vacant by the death of John F. Donovan, of Milwaukee, Wis., will be taken by Edward W. Rightor, of New Orleans, present chairman of the judiciary committee. The appointment has been confirmed by the grand lodge.

The task of the judiciary committee which has been engaged for the past week studying through more than 200 amendments, resolutions, suggestions and communications relating to modifications or revision of the constitution of the order, has been completed and the grand lodge listened today to the recommendations of the committee. Deliberations were kept scrupulously secret.

The most intense interest of the convention delegates is centered in the report of the ritual committee, because of the drastic revision advocated by certain subordinate lodges.

The report of the grand trustees also will come to command attention. The report of the new Elks' home project will consume probably most of the day tomorrow, after the parade. How to complete the $500,000 necessary for the completion of the home with only about $90,000 in sight is the problem facing the grand lodge.

HANFORD'S CLERK SENT TO PRISON

Guilty of Embezzlement; Judge Hanford Had Vouched For Him.

Seattle, Wash., July 10.—Robert M. Hopkins, who was clerk of United States district Judge Hanford's court from the time it was established in 1889, until Hopkins was removed, in 1911, pleaded guilty today in the United States court to two counts of an indictment charging embezzlement of $19,286, and was sentenced to imprisonment of two years on each count, the terms to run concurrently, and to pay a fine of $1000.

Hopkins was taken immediately to McNeil's Island penitentiary. His counsel in a statement to the court, said Hopkins had repaid nearly all the money taken.

Hopkins was removed from office last August, after an investigation of his accounts. When the announcement was first made that discrepancies were being found in Hopkins' account, Judge Hanford issued an indignant statement, vouching for the probity of his clerk.
