Weddings

Miss Ethel Howard and George D. McIlrath were married at 11:30 Sunday morning at the residence of Father F. C. Roy, who officiated at the ceremony. The service was a very quiet affair, only members of the bride's family and James L. Jordan, the best man, being present. Miss Rachel Howard attended her sister. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white Japanese satin, en train, trimmed with Bohemian point lace. A long chiffon veil fell to the train and the bride carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boward. The members of St. Cecilia's choir and other intimate friends were here to greet the young couple and wish them all kinds of happiness. Refreshments of cake and punch were served. The bride has been the inspiration of many social functions given in her honor, and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Her going away gown was a blue serge tailored suit, with blue and white to match. The groom is a young lawyer in Kansas City, for which city he left on the Golden State Limited, and where they will make their future home.

Showers

In honor of Miss Adine Noake, bride-elect of November, a delightfully appointed luncheon and bridge party were given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. John Donohue at her home, 214 West Franklin street. Mrs. Donohue's home was a bower of pink roses and white chrysanthemums. The decorations were carried out in pink and white heart shapes. When the guests entered the house, they espied a Cupid suspended in the hall and surrounded by two hearts—one pink and one white. The drawing-room was in pink and white, with vases of the flowers and smilax. The chandelier looked like an immense chrysanthemum, and white candles in brass candlesticks, with pin shades, gave a soft glow. Mum, and white candlesticks, with pink at 1:30 o'clock, the bride-elect, gowned in pink mesaline over white silk, with a large black picture hat. She was seated with her hostess and 30 of her married and unmarried friends at a long table in the dining room. The table was exquisite in pink and white roses and chrysanthemums, with dainty handpainted place cards in the same colors and in heart shapes. Over the chair in which the guest of honor was seated, was a Cupid. From each side of the alcove in the dining room pink and white streamers of smilax were stretched and caught in the mouth of a dove. Over the dove hung one pink and one white heart. Several small tables were placed in the drawing room with the decorations in pink and white. A six-course luncheon was served on Battenburg doilies. Several toasts were given, the first one, by Miss Myra Prater, given to the guest of honor, who in turn responded to the hostess. Miss Kate Adams gave toast to the groom-elect, T. J. Stafford. Mrs. Harold Christie toasted "those left behind." Mrs. F. E. Hontar, the mother-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, the "old maids," and Mrs. O. H. Baum, the hostess. The punch bowl, placed in the hall, over which pink and white hearts were suspended, was presided over by Nellie May Bowen and Blanche Roe. After the luncheon, a musical was given. Mrs. Arthur Harris and the Misses Kate Adams and Laura Maude Pink rendered selections. During the musical, Miss Adine Noake was seated on the landing of the stairway, when little Myra Frances Robinson and Eugene Donohue presented her with a large basket, looking like one immense chrysanthemum and filled with silk hose, handkerchiefs, silk opera bags and other gifts of the guests present. After the musical, the guests enjoyed bridge. The tally cards were decorated in a pink rose. Four prizes, all silk hose, were awarded. Miss Ethel Brown and Mrs. H. E. Stevenson won the two first prizes; Miss Glen Adams and Mrs. E. M. Bray the second prizes. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. Wideman. The groom-elect, T. J. Stafford, was a guest, arriving the latter part of the afternoon. Church Affairs

The Woman's Missionary society of Trinity Methodist church, entertained the members of the church with a banquet Thursday evening in the basement of the church. The affair was given in honor of Rev. C. Wesley Webbell and wife, who have been returned to El Paso for another year. The tables were attractive with quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums and there were given for 130 plates. Mrs. Thompson Wheat and Mrs. Robert Lander rendered several piano duets during the banquet. Robert Lander was toastmaster the following program was given under his supervision. Address of welcome on behalf of the membership in general, by J. A. Morris; and by Mrs. Ross G. Bryan on behalf of the Women's Missionary society and the various women's organizations of the church. Voted, since by W. D. Howe, accompanied by Mrs. Adina T. Owen. Responses: Rev. J. Allen Ray on the El Paso district and by Rev. C. Wesley Webbell on "Opportunity plus enthusiasm, equal success." A number of the young women of the congregation made very attractive waitresses who dispensed the good things to eat. There were in persons who lent their presence in making the occasion most enjoyable. A spirit of good-fellowship and harmony prevailed in every department of the affair. The banquet was one of the most delightful gatherings in the history of the church. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ross Kiestler was christened on Sunday at the church of the Guardian Angel in East El Paso. Rev. Father Gilbert officiated at the christening. The baby's name is Harry Schmitt. The child was Charles Ross Kiestler, Mrs. M. J. Mackley, great grandmother of the baby, and Albert E. Mackley, great uncle acted as sponsors. Mrs. O'Donnell O'Keefe acted as proxy for the godfather of Charles Ross Kiestler. Known to the party was the home of Mrs. H. Kiestler, in Tobin Place, where refreshments were served. The regular monthly meeting of the Episcopal church will be the first meeting of the season and will be held at the First Christian church Monday evening, October 23. Mrs. Leila Moore will be in charge of the program.

A Distinctive Model

There is just enough of decoration and color variety in this dress to give it a charm for everyone. The materials are cloth and satin in a deep gumbeled shade. Around the neck is a shaped piece of burnt orange cloth, embroidered in oriental colors, and sewed on with an edge of soutache. A narrow collar of black velvet is ornamented with gilt and imitation topaz buttons, and cuffs of the velvet are finished with tans of the orange cloth. There is a girde of braid, and satin covered buttons are used as a trimming.

Out Of Town Visitors

Miss Florence Buschaupt, of Nogales, Ariz., spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in El Paso. THE HAIRS OF YOUR HEAD ARE NUMBERED There is a great deal of truth in the old saying. Roots die, vitality gives out. The hair begins to turn grey. This is particularly unfortunate as we are all living in an age when to LOOK young means to fill the YOUNG and IMPORTANT positions. Old foggies go to the background. If you should begin to chalk down every day of your life, the exact number of hairs that turn grey, you would be surprised and soon learn that "The Grey Hairs of Premature Old Age" come on very quickly, if you neglect them. Dances

Miss Genevieve Anderson was hostess at a dance on Saturday night at her home, 1507 North Kansas street. Miss Anderson entertained in honor of Miss Marion Campbell and her daughter, Harry Schmitt. Mr. Schmitt came down Saturday from Las Lunas, N. M., for the occasion. The house was very prettily decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums, and the refreshments of an ice, cake and bon-bons were also of pink and white. Music was served during the evening. Delightful music was furnished during the evening by Miss Amy Schmitt, who sang a number of songs. Della Kiestler's piano solo. The music for the dance was an "orchestration." Those present were: Miss Marion Campbell, Amy Schmitt, Della Kiestler, Florence Comfort, Mary Jones, Anna Sorenson, Hilda Sorenson, Florence Clark, Theo. Patterson, Sibyl Shedd, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. H. Anderson, Mrs. J. Mortimer and Mrs. H. L. Knickerbocker; Messrs. Harry Schmitt, Henry Shedd, Lowther Knickerbocker, Warren Small, Will Schmitt, T. Mitchell, John Bryan, Milton Shedd, J. McIntyre, of Chicago.

The dance at the Country club was held as usual on Saturday night. The attendance was good and the Cloudcroft orchestra furnished the music. Many visitors here for the Os-Aple jubilee and the golf tournament attended the dance.

Women's Organizations

The semi-monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at Mrs. J. A. Potter's residence, Friday, at 8 o'clock. The report from the superintendent of the scientific temperance showed business and professional men expressing their sympathy and approval of the present activities of the W. C. T. U. and their plans of procedure. The Mothers League of the various schools of El Paso (by motion of the W. C. T. U.) will be requested to have framed for their respective school buildings, the scientific temperance laws to which has been annexed the anti-cigarette law. The public buildings of the city will be asked to place in their halls for the benefit of the public. The consideration of the coffee houses which will be the permanent work of the local W. C. T. U. will require a full meeting on Nov. 1 at the club room in the assembly room of the W. C. A. (fourth floor, Callisher building, to get full assent to the plans proposed. The W. C. T. U. has long held and discussed this purpose as its objective work will be in heartiest sympathy and fellowship with Y. M. C. A.

EL PASOANS TO VOTE FOR CONSTITUTION AMENDMENTS. While casting his vote for presidential, district, state and county officers, on November 5, the El Paso voter will have an opportunity of voting for the constitutional amendment provided for longer terms for governing boards of the state, educational, charitable and penal institutions. To work up enthusiasm among the voters along that line is the effort to secure the passage of the amendment. F. M. Brawley, state superintendent of public instruction, has addressed letters to the different county school superintendents throughout the state. A letter of this character was received by county superintendent J. E. Palmer last week. It was declared that the passage of the amendment would take the schools out of politics.

EPIDEMIC Caused by Infected Milk

An Editorial in the El Paso Times, October 12th

Under above heading says, in brief, that one dairy in Chicago was responsible for a great percentage of the 10,000 cases of an epidemic sore throat that prevailed last December. Investigation of the source of the Milk Supply of this dairy showed that the farmers had been suffering from this same disease and that many cases of inflammation of the udders prevailed among the cows.

What Happened in Chicago May Happen Here

Why not get your milk from a dairy that takes every precaution to deliver you the cleanest possible milk: Clean Cows, Clean Barns, Clean Corals, Clean Milkers, Clean Udders, Milk Refrigerated and Kept up to the moment you get it.

Bottles sterilized with steam, and bottled in the country away from the dust of the city.

Just visit the dairy that supplies you and see if it is CLEAN ENOUGH to satisfy you. If not—WE ARE.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF—GROWS HAIR

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics—Use old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"—Get results.

This, brittle, colorless and straggly hair, is sure evidence of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen, and die—then the hair falls out. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application you will say it was the best investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Parties

Bob Moore, T. J. Stafford, W. N. Clark and A. L. Cos, comprised a party who motored down to the Valley Inn Sunday morning for breakfast.

Sunday evening, at the El Paso chamber of commerce, the princess of the Os-Aple Jubilee and her court held a luncheon in honor of the Os-Aple reception on Tuesday night.

Mrs. John M. Dean entertained on Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock with an informal "tea" in honor of Miss Thelma Gillett, of Alpine, Tex. The guests were received at the door by the Misses Louise Busch and Louise Robinson. Mrs. Dean and Miss Gillett received the callers in the reception room, which was daintily pink and white. A large bouquet of pink roses in the center. Mrs. Joseph U. Sweeney poured the coffee and of the table and Mrs. C. W. Kellogg served chocolate at the opposite end. Dainty refreshments of sandwiches, cake and candies were served.

LIST OF HAYDEN VOTERS IS SENT TO COUNTY SEAT

Hayden, Ariz., Oct. 21.—Judge M. M. Rice has forwarded 250 names of registered electors in Hayden to the county recorder at Globe, two of this number being transfers. Considerable interest is being taken in the coming fall election, and by taking into consideration the straw vote which was recently polled, the Progressive party has slightly the better of the bargain. Roosevelt got about 15 votes more than Wilson, and Taft ran last with only eight.

The Odd Fellows are contemplating organizing a lodge in Hayden. It is proposed to give a dance on the last of October.

The Hayden tennis courts are being put into condition for the coming matches. J. W. Beebe met sudden death at his home in Kelvin. Mr. Beebe had been a resident of Kelvin for the past eight years acting as postmaster, coming here in company with his family from Syracuse, N. Y., as a benefit his health. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. The remains were sent to Syracuse for interment.

ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any El Paso Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, and his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. The public endorsement when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of El Paso adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it. W. T. Kitchen, U. S. Custom Inspector, El Paso, Texas, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for various kidney complaints and found them very beneficial. I had pains in my back and when I went to Ward's Pharmacy, I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their use as directed greatly relieved my back and I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills because they do just as represented. They are sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Nibbans Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States." Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other—Advertisement.
