

Week-End Specials Well Worth While

THIS week the volume of our Week-End Specials is somewhat curtailed, but the values are materially increased. In many sections only one item is advertised, but you will find displayed many others equally as attractive as the one noted here. Our Saturday business continues to increase as the season advances, and when you consider carefully such values as the following you can easily understand why.

Velvet and Corduroy Dresses $7.95

Stylish velvet and corduroy dresses are a feature for tomorrow, being offered at the nominal price of $7.95. They come in navy, wine, taupe, brown and black. Millinery Bargains

That Has Been Brought Out This Season

BOTH the Main Floor and Mezzanine Sections offer you tomorrow values in millinery that are far out of the ordinary. In calling your attention to these values, we want to impress on you that nothing offered is undesirable or shop-worn. On the other hand, it is bright new merchandise, some of which has not been in the store a week. On account of the great number of items offered, the descriptions are necessarily brief. But, if you will visit either our Main Floor or Mezzanine Millinery Section tomorrow you will feel amply repaid for your trouble in the values you secure.

PABLO ESCANDON RELEASED.
Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 18.—Pablo Escandon, a wealthy rancher and former governor of the state of Morelos, was released from the penitentiary today owing to a lack of evidence connecting him with voluntarily aiding the adherents of the rebel Zapata, with which he was charged.

MORE ARRESTS BY MILITARY OFFICERS

Felipe Casaron, paymaster under the rebel leader, Inez Salazar, is a prisoner at Fort Bliss today, making the third arrest by the military in the Juarez attack expose. Casaron was arrested last night at Las Cruces, N. M., and brought here early today in an automobile.
Jose Cordova, secretary to Gen. Pascual Orozco, is now being held as a military prisoner at Fort Bliss, according to advices received by the Mexican secret service here. Cordova was arrested in Albuquerque Wednesday and was brought here and taken to Fort Bliss, where he is being confined in the guardhouse, the secret service men say.
Another revolutionary leader was arrested in the plaza Friday at noon by officers from Fort Bliss and taken to the fort as a military prisoner. No one knows who the man was and the officers refused to divulge his name. A count of revolutionary noses is now being made to discover which of the "fighters for liberty" is missing since Thursday night.

COL. LAZARO RELEASED UNDER BOND OF $1000.

Col. Lazaro Alanis, who has been in the county jail on the charge of conspiracy to smuggle ammunition to Mexico, has been released on a bond of $1000, pending the calling of his case at Santa Fe on December 2. It is alleged that Col. Alanis, one of the rebel commanders, attempted to cross ammunition over the New Mexico border.

REBELS ATTACK AND MENACE FEDERALS

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 15.—One hundred federal soldiers on their way from Puebla, in the state of Mexico, to the rebel base of Tepic, 30 miles south, are menaced by Zapatistas, who ambushed them at Barranca Honda. Trainmen who escaped report that the federals lost 12 men killed and that the others are hard pressed.
Six hundred rebels, under Tuerco Noriega, attacked Huehuetlan, state of Puebla, which was defended by rural guards. Most of the defenders, with the commander, Jose Rosette, went over to the rebels. Rosette was made a colonel in the rebel ranks.
Engagements have been reported at various other points the federals winning with the fewest casualties.

FEDERALS RETAKE TOWN IN STATE OF NUEVO LEON

Monterrey, Mexico, Nov. 15.—Word has reached here that the federal soldiers sent out from here over a week ago have retaken the town of Mier, N. T., in the southern part of Nuevo Leon.
The town was taken by a band of nearly 100 rebels about two weeks ago, and since that time has been under control of rebels under a leader named Eximio Egula. The regular town officials were reinstated by the soldiers.
There are rumors here that Col. Jax. Robertson, of this city, former owner of the News, and promoter of large interests in this country, is to be ambassador to this country under Woodrow Wilson's presidency. The rumor has strength in that Col. Robertson has for many years been a friend of Wm. J. Bryan.

AMMUNITION IS SEIZED IN JUAREZ

Ammunition smugglers continue active in spite of the American border patrol and the presence of the federals in Juarez. Friday morning federal soldiers discovered a number of boxes of cartridges in the bottom of an alfalfa wagon which was being hauled through the streets of the Mexican town, near the plaza. The ammunition was seized and the driver arrested. It is thought that this was a part of a general plan for smuggling ammunition to the rebels south of Juarez.

SCRIP TO BE CASH.

All outstanding registered jury scrip will be equal to cash in February, according to county treasurer J. D. Ponder, and holders of the scrip are advised to keep it until that time.
