

DINERS AND DANCERS MAKE MERRY AT DANSANT IN BIG HOTEL BALL ROOM

EL PASOANS enjoyed one stepping, hesitating, and doing other of the newer dances between dinner courses, or watching their friends in solo dances of more intricate figure Thursday night at the Dansant given in the ball room of the Paso del Norte. The tables were arranged about the ball room, leaving a large space in the center for the dancing. The hall was decorated with ropes of greenery, draped from the shaded lights to the edges of the room. Crossed flags were draped about the windows. An orchestra played continuously through the evening, and the diners left their tables and danced at will as the music caught their fancy.
