TEXAS WOMAN TO BRAVE BIG BATTLE

Miss Ida Hayes, Baptist Missionary, To Lead At Whatever Cost.

When the battle of Saltillo starts a brave Texas woman will be within the federal lines, standing guard at the Madero institute, to prevent the building from being looted and commandeered as barracks. Miss Ida Hayes, a Baptist missionary to Mexico and director of the Madero institute, has refused to leave Saltillo in spite of the dangers attending the bombardment of the city by the rebel guns. Her home is in Waco and she has visited Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Hatcher, of Juarez while on furlough in the United States.

The state department has made a number of inquiries for Miss Hayes and has sent appeals to her through the American consul to leave. To each of these appeals the Texas woman has answered that she would not be getting through the rebel and federal lines to Saltillo and that if she abandons the institute it will be occupied by the federal army as a barracks and probably destroyed during the fighting. The Madero institute is a boarding school for Mexican girls, but when the revolution frightened away her regular students she opened it as a day school to prevent the federal army from taking possession of it. She has answered all the appeals made to her to leave by saying that she was in no danger and desired to remain where her duty was.

AMUSEMENTS.

ZINGO-ZINGO-ZINGO.
Today the Bijou will show the second series of "Zingo," entitled "Zingo's War in the Clouds," the most remarkable adventures ever have ever been depicted upon the screen, and something entirely new and unique. Zingor, who Zingo finally marries, after going through an almost endless number of hair-raising experiences of a novel variety, is a very beautiful woman in full bloom youth and grace. The story constantly depicts new and startling scenes that are really remarkable and never before. The thought of, and which contain an amount of humor of the bubbling, rollicking variety. The Bijou management has a little different from the usual run of pictures and in the "Zingo series" you have it. Better come to the matinee and be sure of a seat.

Friday—Alice Joyce, Tom Moore and Mademoiselle Veronique. One of the world's most famous dancers, in the Hawaiian "Dance of Death," another great dramatic production, will be shown. We hope you will be fortunate enough to see this picture.
Saturday—Goodness Gracious, or "Movies as they should be," a Vitaphone quality feature just from the Vitaphone theater in New York, where it has received almost unanimous approval. The Vitaphone theater only shows the best of its own productions and this recommendation should satisfy the most fastidious. Follow the crowd as we show only the best.—Advertisement.

WAR EXTRA AT WIGWAM.
The Wigwam today will show a "war extra" of the Hearst-Selig Pictures. The army and navy are seen in action and the big boats which bombarded Veracruz are shown. There are a lot of other current events of interest. The Hearst-Selig combination gives the Selig Polyscope company opportunities to work with the great Hearst news forces. They beat all others. There will also be a fine two-act comedy-drama, "Shogun Jim Jones" which was given a tenderfoot's reception until he dug out his old shotgun and then the fun began but not for the other fellows.

Tuesday and Wednesday—The new "masterpiece service." It is the cream of the cream of the picture world. General Film company experts pick the best films made for this service. The Wigwam goes even a step farther and has all of these films inspected on the screen by its own expert, E. E. Campbell, for its theaters in El Paso and San Antonio. The best are booked by him for the Wigwam, thus giving El Paso the "cream of the cream." Few theaters in the country can do other than in El Paso goes to this extreme to secure the best the market affords. "A Million Bells" which ran 250 straight nights at the Vitaphone theater in New York, will be Tuesday's offering.—Advertisement.

"AT THE GREEKIAN."
A splendid program will be shown at the Greekian today. "Shorty's Strategy" is a special in two reels. It's a good picture, full of action, the kind that you will like. "The Navy Aviator" is a sensational one-reeler. Be sure and see it!
Don't miss "Our Mutual Girl" tomorrow.—Advertisement.

GUAYMAS RESIDENTS SUFFER FROM THE LACK OF FOOD

Tucson, Ariz., May 14.—Letters received here from Guaymas tell of misery and famine conditions. Food is scarce and purchasable only at exorbitant prices. Some of the prices in Mexican money are:
Meat, $2.50 a kilo; eggs, 50 cents each; rice, $1.50 a kilo; frioles, 25 cents a kilo; lard, $4 a kilo; lard, $12 a kilo. Even fish has reached a prohibitive price, because most of the fishermen have deserted their smacks and have either left for other parts or joined the rebels. None of the Mexican families are allowed to leave the port. Merchandise has been confiscated by the federalists.
