CHICKEN POT PIE The Chef's Favorite. By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

Some folks think that only "colored mummies" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion.

One fowl cut in joints; 1/2 cup flour; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; black pepper; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonful K. C. Baking Powder; 1/2 level teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Cover the fowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste...

When soups, broiler chickens are scarce, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowl. Veal or lamb prepared in this manner is more appetizing than when served as a stew.

Try this and the 97 other delicious recipes in the K. C. Cook's Book, a copy of which can be secured free by sending the enclosed certificate packed to the 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder to the JACOBS MFG. CO., Chicago.
