THEATRE COOLEST PLACE IN TOWN
El Pasoans Found Welcome Relief Yesterday Afternoon at Pretty, New Alhambra.

The result of a careful test made by experts with a standard thermometer indicates that the coolest as well as the most entertaining place in El Paso yesterday was the new Alhambra theater, on South El Paso street. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the outdoor temperature in the shade was 84, and from that time until 6 o'clock, when the outside temperature was 76, the doors of the Alhambra admitted a practically uninterrupted stream of superheated humanity. Under such circumstances it would be natural to suppose that the temperature inside the theater would at least approximate that outside. As a matter of fact, however, the thermometer in the Alhambra auditorium registered only 75, and patrons of the house were so comfortable that they were loath to leave. Today the Alhambra management has been awarded with congratulations upon the excellence of its cooling system, which was installed by the Elliott Engineering company.—Advertisement.

Orders forwarding hundreds of telegrams to Americans through diplomatic channels, orders were sent by the state department to all consulates, legations and embassies to use every influence at their disposal to obtain money for citizens of the United States. All American diplomatic officers were instructed to exchange letters of credit or travelers' checks for "embassy checks" or "theaters' checks" issued by authority of the United States government, and secretary Bryan said he was confident that the "embassy checks" would be honored by railroad and steamship companies and hotels abroad.

ENGLAND READY TO AID FRANCE IN SEA ATTACK

If Coast Is Menaced, Britain Will Protect Ally, Says Foreign Minister.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 2.—Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, stated in the house of commons today that the house was free to decide what the British attitude in the present European conflict should be.

Sir Edward added that Great Britain had not committed herself to anything but diplomatic support. Sir Edward Grey told the house of commons that he had "given France the assurance that if the German fleet came into the English channel or through the North sea to undertake hostile operations against the French coast or shipping, the British fleet would give all the protection in its power."

"Ready to Face Consequences." Towards the close of his speech Sir Edward said: "We must be prepared, and we are prepared, to face the consequences of using all our strength at any moment. We know not how soon, in order to defend ourselves."

Rallies to France. Dealing with the question of Great Britain's obligations, Sir Edward Grey said: "Up to today we had given no promise of more than diplomatic support. I was asked at the time of the Algerian crisis if we would give armed support, and I said I could promise nothing to any foreign power unless it received the whole-hearted support of public opinion."

"I gave no promise, but I told both the French and German ambassadors that if war was forced on France, public opinion in the British Isles would rally to France."

This part of the speech was received with loud cheering. The Army and Navy Mobilizing. The foreign secretary stated that the British fleet had been mobilized and mobilization of the British army was being hastened. The British government had been made by the British government to send an expedition abroad. He continued:

Northern Coast Defenseless. "The French fleet is in the Mediterranean and the northern coast of France are defenseless. If a foreign fleet engaged in war against France should come down and battle against those defenseless coasts we could not stand aside."

"We felt strongly that France was entitled to know at once whether, in the event of an attack on her unprotected coasts, she could rely on our support."

Not Declaration of War. "I have the information to the French ambassador Sunday night that if the German fleet goes into the English channel or into the North sea to attack French shipping or the French coast the British fleet will give all the protection in its power."

"That answer is subject to the approval of parliament. It is not a declaration of war against Germany. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, warmly supported the government and reported, amid cheers, pledges of support received from the British dominions.

Ireland Stands Loyal. Wild cheering from all parts of the house greeted John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, when he assured the government that every soldier in Ireland might be withdrawn tomorrow and the coast of Ireland would be defended against invasion by her armed sons, the Catholics of the south and the Protestants of the north.

General Consultation Planned. James Ramsay MacDonald, Socialist and labor member, declared he was not persuaded the Great Britain was in danger nor her honor involved. He was convinced she should have remained neutral.

WAR INVOLVES ALL OF EUROPE

A crisis without suggestions from the lawmaking body.

The British government has decided to close the bank holiday over three days. The bill temporarily suspending payments of bills of exchange passed all stages in the house of commons in a few minutes.

Belgium Spurns German Offer. A Brussels dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph says that the Belgian cabinet's response to the German note, offering an entente if Belgium would facilitate the movement of German troops, has been given and is in the nature of a formal refusal.

Germany Take Belgian City. A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Paris says the German troops have an unsatisfactory German town of Laron.

This act will probably force the Belgians to side with France and Russia in the present fighting and bring Germany to face another, though small, enemy.

Germany Repeating History. Apparently the German army is duplicating the first movement of the Franco-Prussian war. It was on August 13, 47 years ago Sunday, that the French and Germans clashed in the first battle of that war at Spangenberg, where the prince imperial, under the orders of the emperor, received his famous "baptism of fire."

It would appear today that Germany is taking the fullest possible advantage of her supposed superiority in rapid mobilization over France. The plan of the German emperor, according to military observers here, is to vanquish or attempt to vanquish France in the interval before Russia can mobilize on her northern frontier. It is supposed that Russian mobilization will take about three weeks.

GERMANY BLAMES FRANCE AND RUSSIA

Berlin, Germany, Aug. 2.—An official communication published here today concerning the beginning of the war says: "In consequence of a Russian attack on German territory, Germany is in a state of war with Russia."

"The French reply to Germany's note has been received in the meantime and will be allowed to remain in force. The outbreak of war between France and Germany must be awaited at any moment."

A breach of neutrality also has been committed through the fact that French military airplanes in great numbers have flown over Belgium and Dutch territory on their way to Germany."

SERVIAN WAR IS ALMOST HALTED NOW

RAILROADS SEEK INCREASED RATES ON ALL FREIGHT

Lines Affected Extend From the Mississippi River to the Rocky Mountains.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—Increases in freight rates on all the railroads west of the Mississippi river are being prepared for submission to the interstate commerce commission.

The applications of the western railroads for more revenue will be presented as soon as they can be prepared in the required form.

Lines Claim to Need Relief. Managers of the western lines, according to this information, are prepared to contend that they need more revenues to meet the increasing expenses of operation and to point out that their lines are in even greater need of relief than the eastern lines because of necessarily longer hauls and less density of population.

No intimation has reached the interstate commerce commission of percentages for increase which will be asked for. The lines affected extend from the Mississippi river to the Rocky mountain territory.

The roads traversing the Pacific coast may not be affected.

RAILROAD TIUP MAY BE AVERTED

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—By the acceptance on the part of the railroad managers of the arbitration proposal of the engineers and firemen, a great strike on all railroads of the country is temporarily and probably permanently averted.

The railroad managers just before noon advised the president they would accept the plan proposed by the federal board of mediation, which had already been passed on favorably by the representatives of the engineers and of the firemen. The plan provides that the question of wages shall be arbitrated under the Newlands act and that rules and regulations enforced prior to October, 1913, shall be restored. Immediately after the call of the railroad managers, the federal board of mediation was notified of the favorable outcome.
