Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—Now we have dug the Panama canal we must defend it. That is axiomatic here. And even before the first great steamship glides triumphantly from ocean to ocean, the United States is confronted with a problem which may prove more serious than that of Mexico.

To Keep Germany From Seizing It, the Island May Be Invaded.

Mother Aids Prince and Romantic Wedding Will Soon Take Place

Berlin, Germany, Aug. 8.—By those close to the inner circle at court, it is said that Prince Oscar's romance with the Kaiser's daughter is progressing rapidly.

The Kaiser's daughter, with the countess Ina Marie von Basswitz, to whom he will be married soon, would have come to an untimely end had it not been for the interference of his mother, the Kaiserin.

Picking Helpmeet For Prince of Wales Causes Worry to English People

London, Eng., Aug. 8.—The eternal question is being discussed here again. Who will the Prince of Wales marry and who is the young princess destined to be chosen as his helpmeet?

Chauffeur Refuses to Charge King; Receives $20 as a Royal Gift

Madrid, Spain, Aug. 8.—On one of his recent visits to Biarritz, King Alfonso had to use one of the ordinary railroad station cabs. Arriving at his destination, the king asked the amount due. "Oh, I recognize you well," said the driver. "For the king of Spain it will be 18 francs ($3)."

Wine Grower Leaves Strange Will Orders Disinheritance Of Mourners

Paris, France, Aug. 8.—I have had shown me a copy of the will of a philosophic old pagan who died recently. He was a wine grower and in the interests of his calling he will make use of a device as advertising copy.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS ARE ANGRY

Resent Slight Shown Them When American Surgeons Visit London.

ARE NOT ASKED TO READ PAPERS

By HERBERT TEMPLE. LONDON, Eng., Aug. 8.—There is a burning spirit of discontent among the women doctors attached to the great London hospitals.

BEAUTIES IN FRANCE FAR FROM EXTINGUISHED

By LA RACONTEUSE. PARIS, France, Aug. 8.—Our dear, beautiful, petite mannequins are very angry. Unkind people have been saying lots of nasty things about them and even newspapers have asserted that the beautiful, entrancing mannequin we used to know was becoming extinct, or that she no longer knew what to do other than smoke cigarettes and dance the tango.

Result of American Invasion.

The trouble all arose out of a visit to London of some 1500 surgeons, 1200 of them from the United States and Canada, where the female doctors are now telling us, women surgeons are both numerous and excellent.

No Papers by Women.

But there is the bone of contention—the cause of all the trouble. During the long sessions of the North American Surgeons' conference in London, papers on surgical subjects were read every evening by the star men at the conference.

Suffer First Defeat.

On a motion at the Representative Church Council, that women should sit as law representatives of diocesan conferences, etc., 141 votes to 76 knocked it out. The church papers strongly oppose the idea.

Campaign for Defence Waged in Sweden and Is Strongly Opposed

Stockholm, Sweden, Aug. 8.—National defence problems are keeping Parliament in session during the summer, because Conservatives, Liberals and Socialists are unable to unite on a solution.

German Aviators Break Duration Records Four Times During the Year

Berlin, Germany, Aug. 8.—German aviation circles are expressing pride in the part played by their countrymen in recording the longest flight in the world in the last few months.

German Composers Enter Activities on Operettas; To Produce New Plays

Berlin, Germany, Aug. 8.—German composers are suddenly convinced that the popularity of the operetta is not on the wane for at least a dozen new operettas are appearing in the theatres.

WOMEN SEEK PRIESTHOOD IN BRITAIN

Latest Feminine Craze Is Ordination to Priesthood in Church of England.

RELIGIOUS PAPERS OPPOSE NEW IDEA

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 8.—The latest feminine craze is to enter the ministry. Ordination of women to the priesthood of the Church of England is rapidly becoming a matter of practical politics in certain church circles.

Not a Masculine Office.

Those who are backing the scheme with their strenuous, ready, the usual stock of arguments at hand. It is held, for instance, that the priesthood is not a masculine office; it is a human office, not a sexual one; the brilliant careers of various abbesses, lady superiors, and the yachting man who have done in such cases as that of the abbess of the Sacre Coeur, recently dissolved in Paris, go to show that serious women have rendered to the cause of Christianity in all parts of the world.
