Popular El Paso Girl Who Died In Scotland

MRS. ANNE NATIONS URMOSTON

Mrs. Urmoston was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Nations of El Paso and was a former El Paso girl. Her death occurred Thursday morning at her home in Scotland. Mrs. Urmoston was greatly interested in philanthropic and charitable work for which she always found time in spite of her many social obligations, and she was held in affectionate regard by all who knew her.

Parties.

Little Stanley Williams, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams, of 2401 Montana street, entertained Wednesday afternoon in celebration of his fourth birthday anniversary. The little guests spent the afternoon in playing games and later a luncheon was served. The appointments of the party were in red and white, little souvenir baskets filled with candies were given each guest. The birthday cake was gaily decorated with candles. The youthful host received many gifts in honor of the day. Among the guests were: Glenn Preston, Elwynne Clements, Wayne Ramage, J. B. White Jr., Inez Todd, Annie Koster, Gussie Koster, Elizabeth Snyder, Emilina Hunt, Mildred Hunt, Fay Ball, Madames Walter Spitzer, Romel C. Kolar, George Keop H. Williams, J. B. Clements, H. Ramage, J. B. White and H. M. Hunt. Mrs. Williams assisted her small son in entertaining.

Complimentary to Miss Hazel Pruett, who will become a bride early in September, a silk hose shower was given Thursday afternoon by Miss Anne Weck at her home on Nevada street. The house was elaborately decorated in a pink and white plan. The chandeliers were draped with pink tulle and flowers and hearts with little white cupid impersonated by the bride elect's younger sister, Betty Pruett. The entertainment of the afternoon was a bridge, and Mrs. Harry A. McLaughlin won the first prize, a value of silk hose, for making the highest score. Miss Anna Scorsone won the consolation prize, a large Kewpie doll. Following the card game, a dainty luncheon was served at the small card table, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. John F. Weck, Mrs. J. V. Weck, Mrs. A. Fletcher and Mrs. J. V. Priest.

Church Affairs.

Circle One of the First Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Dames. Circle Five will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. N. Dames. The Senior Queen Esther circle of the First Methodist church will meet tonight at the home of Miss Inabella Valentine on East Rio Grande street. Miss Almeta Mead will be in charge of the program.

A get-together social for the members and congregation of the First Methodist church will be held Monday night at the church building at 7 o'clock. The affair is being given as a welcome home for the members who have been away all summer, and as a farewell for several members of the congregation who are leaving soon to make their homes elsewhere. The latter are Mr. and Mrs. Don Sterling, Mrs. J. J. Hedding and Miss Sarah Prutz, who go to Dallas to live; Mrs. Sue Barbee, who is going to make her home in California, and A. Kalken, who leaves soon for his home in Huntington, Indiana. An entertaining program has been prepared and will be given under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Wilcox.

Mrs. W. S. Yantis entertained the Philanthropic sewing circle of Trinity Methodist church Thursday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. L. Forsyth, 311 West Rio Grande street. The guests spent a pleasant afternoon sewing and Miss Rena Shea added to the enjoyment of the occasion by playing several piano selections. At the close of the afternoon, ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Forsyth assisting her daughter in serving among the guests were: Mesdames George B. Oliver, J. W. Anderson, I. J. Ayers, M. C. Yerkes, A. Murphy, William Hart, Misses Marietta, Thorne, Mattie Hoover, Jay Mitchell, Estelle Ferguson, Irene Ferguson, Lila Shaw, Juanita Smith, Rena Shea and A. Hawkins.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. Valentine, on East Rio Grande street. The new officers of the society conducted the meeting in a most interesting manner. Miss Emma Brandberry, the newly elected president, presiding. A business meeting was held, with discussion of important phases of the society's work. Where the money for missionary purposes goes, was the topic of the program discussion, in which most of the members participated. It was decided to hold an open meeting of the society on September 20, with a missionary program. Miss Elizabeth F. Roe reported that Miss Emma Brandberry had been made the assistant superintendent of the Rose Gregory Housen settlement house, which is under the charge of the First Methodist church. The meeting was very well attended and at its close refreshments were served by the hostess.

About El Pasoans.

Mrs. F. W. Berkshire has improved greatly in health since she went to Clondroft a short time ago. News from San Diego is that Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Carrington, formerly of Fort Stanton, N. M., accompanied by their son, recently took Miss Sarah Hunter and motored to Delmar for dinner and a plunge in the surf. Later the Carringtons drove to Los Angeles for a week's sojourn. When they return, they expect to go into their own house in town, on Upton avenue, but this summer they have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wallis, wife of Lieut. Wallis, at Fort Rosecrans, near San Diego.

El Pasoans Returning.

Mrs. Lula Matlock has returned from Big Springs, Tex., where she had been visiting for a part of the summer. She will reside at the Hotel Normandie. Miss Anna Lee (Neill) has returned from Dallas and Shreveport, La. In the latter place she visited relatives for a short time. Mrs. I. Laskin and children, who have been spending the summer at Ocean Park, Calif., will return to El Paso Sunday.

Miss Jessie Young and her little niece and nephew, Bernice Clark and Lowell Orrison, have returned from Clondroft, where they spent a short outing. Judge and Mrs. Peyton F. Edwards have returned to their home in El Paso, after visiting Mrs. Edwards' parents in Mississippi. Mrs. L. Laskin, her daughter, Miss Minda Laskin, and her guest, Miss A. L. Cash, have returned from Ocean Park, Calif., where they spent the summer. Miss Cash, who has been Mrs. Laskin's guest through the season, will leave Monday for her home in New York City.

Cards.

Mrs. Richard Warren entertained very informally Thursday afternoon with two tables of bridge at her home on Upton avenue. The affair was a little gathering of several of the young people of the city to meet Miss Marion Graves of East's Pass, who is the guest of Mrs. Joe Wright. The young people were Misses Marion Graves, Starrow, Emma Louise Lindsay, Marion Young, Harriett Bryan, Violet Atken, Laura-maud Pink, Mabel O'Connor, Mrs. Joe Wright assisted Mrs. Warren in serving the refreshments at the close of the card games. Miss Marion Graves won the prize for making the highest score.
