Russians Rout the Enemy At Lemberg

TAKE CITY IN FIGHT WITH AUSTRILIANS

Russian Report States Austrians Lost 100,000 Men in the Big Conflict.

VICTORY IS END OF SEVEN DAYS' BATTLE

Series of Austrian Disasters Culminates in Complete Rout, It Is Said.

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 2.—The Russians have entered Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, Austria-Hungary, after one of the greatest battles ever fought, according to advices from Petrograd (St. Petersburg). The report is credited here since news of the defeat of the Austrians in that district has been received from several sources. The Russian embassy at Rome has been notified that the Austrians were overwhelmingly defeated near Lemberg, losing more than 100,000 men and 57 cannon. The occupation of the fort of Lemberg was said to be imminent. The battle of Lemberg evidently resulted in a decisive and perhaps overwhelming defeat of the Austrians. The battle line extended over 200 miles and it is estimated that 1,500,000 men were engaged.

Ends Week's Fighting. According to an official dispatch received by emperor Nicholas from chief of the Russian forces, the victory was won after seven days' fighting. The climate came when the Austrians were routed in a final desperate assault on the Russian center, which was held by Gen. Izyaslav.

The Austrians in Galicia were acting in close cooperation with two German army corps facing Russian and seeking to envelop the Russian forces in Poland.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—The day in congress: Senate. Senator Burton attacked the rivers and harbors bill. House. Debate was resumed on the Alaska coal leasing bill. Arrangements were made for a joint session with the senate to hear the president's address Friday on the need of special war revenue.

Big Boost for El Paso; 12 Pages Advertising for One Firm

THE HERALD has been too modest in its claims about the size of the section it is going to issue next Tuesday for one of El Paso's biggest business houses. The advertising is going to crowd 12 pages, it now develops, and it may go bigger. The section will be at least 12 pages, however—six times as much advertising space as ever was purchased in one day by any one house in the Southwest.

140,000 AUSTRILIANS ARE DISABLED

Rome, Italy, Sept. 2.—A telegram from Nish, Serbia, says that in a battle at Jadar between 200,000 Austrians and 180,000 Serbians, the latter killed or wounded 140,000 Austrians.

MANY ARE KILLED IN RIOT ON SHIP

New York, Sept. 2.—A riot aboard the German steamer Bluecher, at anchor in the harbor of Pernambuco, Brazil, in which three of the Bluecher's crew and 20 of her 300 steaming passengers were killed, was described today by passengers aboard the Brazilian steamer Sao Paulo on her arrival from Pernambuco, whence she sailed at the commencement of the European war.

CRITICISM OF THE TROOP MOVEMENTS

M. Clemenceau Says Men Needed at the Front, but Many Held in Paris.

PARIS, France, Sept. 2.—President Poincaré and his cabinet have left for Bordeaux, the new French seat of government. Bordeaux is in southwestern France, on the bay of Biscay, and about 160 miles from the Spanish frontier. They arrived there this afternoon and were greeted by immense and cheering crowds.

THE DEFENCES OF PARIS

PARIS possesses three perfectly distinct rings of defences. The inner line is practically a wall with a deep dry ditch. It is nearly 22 miles around. The second line consists of a ring of forts in a circle of 34 miles. North are three forts around St. Denis; to the eastward are Fort Aubervilliers and Fort Charly. On the south are Ivry, Bicetre, Montrouge, Vanves and Issy. On the west is Mont Valerien. The outer defence consists of forts on high ground with long range guns at St. Germain and Chatillon. The fortifications or entrenched camps fall into three sections. On the north Cormeilles commands the lower Seine, the Argenteuil peninsula and ground toward Oise. Montignou-Dumont protects the northwestern part. Then come Ecouen, Fort Stains, Vanjours, Fort Chelles, Fort Villiers, Champigny, Boissy—St. Leger and Villeneuve—St. Georges, Fort Palaiseau, Fort St. Cyr and Marly, forming a complete outer circle of about 75 miles.

THE WAR AT A GLANCE

The Germans are pushing their right wing across Paris, while their center and left appear to be held by the French. The government of France is now established at Bordeaux. The foreign embassies and legations, with the exception of those of the United States and Switzerland, have also been removed from Paris to Bordeaux.
