

SOCIETY'S DOINGS

topics in the second chapter of the book. At the conclusion of the study the members listened to grand opera records on the phonograph. Light refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Bowie. Among those present were Misses Eugenia Barnes, Alice Wilson, Winifred Wilson, Marguerite Iverson, Marie Schwartz, Marie Barton, Nell Porter, Buena Guiller, Estelle Colford, Mae Morris, Treva Blair, Treva Hewitt, Kate Hanley, Frieda Rheinheimer, Florence Clark, Margaret Loushin, Emma Laughlin, Aline Stammel, Mrs. A. C. Saunders, Mrs. W. E. Harryman, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Clark, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Graham. The class is planning to distribute about a dozen baskets of provisions among the poor at Christmas time.

Mrs. D. H. Huffaker gave an interesting address on hygiene to the members of the camp fire circles Monday afternoon in the downtown rooms of the Young Woman's Christian association. The address took the place of the monthly story hour for the girls. Preceding Mrs. Huffaker's talk, the girls practiced several new songs and Lois McChesney recited "How Brer Rabbit Figured It Out." At the close of the talk the girls exhibited the flags of Belgium and Serbia that they had made and Gladys Wooters received the special honor given for the best flag. A part of the educational current events work in the camp fire circles is the making of a flag of each of the European nations. The meeting closed with the rendition in English by the girls of the law of the camp fire circles, and the giving of the "Wo-ho-lo cheer." Then social time was enjoyed and the members of the Elwyn camp fire circle served grape juice that they had made during the summer in their homecraft work. The girls in this circle who served were Thula Hardie, Florence Carr, Louise Peach, Margery Paw, Marguerite Hughes, Pearl Newman, Minette Watson and Dorris Gibson. Mrs. Fred W. Norton is the guardian of this camp fire. A number of the mothers of the members attended the meeting. The Christmas work for others by the camp fire girls will be the giving of a doll, dressed by each member to some poor child.

Lodges and Clubs.

Officers of Willow Grove, Woodmen Circle, have been elected and will be installed early in January. Mrs. May Soutter was elected the order, held Mollie Bowers, advisor; Mrs. Jennie Powell, chaplain; Mrs. Lulu Mattice, clerk; Mrs. Edna Cole, visitor; Mrs. Betty Cunningham, attendant; Mrs. Pauline Dehlinger, inner sentinel; Mrs. Jessie Young, outer sentinel; Dr. Ida E. Bishop, manager; Mrs. Mary Livingston, musician.

The Junior B. Y. P. U., of the Calvary-Houston Square Baptist church, met Friday night at the home of the pastor, Rev. O. J. Wade, on Montana street. The affair was very informal and a number of entertaining games were played. Among the amusements was a series of humorous charades in which those taking part were James Vance, Misses Edna and Treva Blair, Peach, Marjorie Gooch and Dan Ella Burke. During the evening hot chocolate and cakes were served by Mrs. O. J. Wade and Miss Florence Robertson. About 50 young people were present.

Officers of Mattice Temple, Pythian Sisters, were elected Monday night at the regular meeting of the order, held in the nights of Pythian hall. The officers elected were: Mrs. Hazel Williams, past chief; Mrs. Virginia Williams, president; Mrs. Eugenia Perkins, excellent chief; Mrs. Matilda Burroughs, excellent junior; Mrs. Mary Van Mearick, manager; Mrs. Edna H. Harry, mistress of records and correspondence; Miss Edna Scotten, mistress of finance; Mrs. Mary Drew, president; Miss Mamie Smith, guard of the outer door; Mrs. Esther Lucas, trustee; Mrs. Oia Love, installing officer. Four applications for membership were received. The officers will be installed at the first meeting in January.

Charles Rokahr decided to sing "The Watch on the Rhine" Monday night for the entertainment of the women whom the men's club of the church of St. Clement had as their guests at an informal club meeting in Kendrick hall. The martial strains of the German national air did not exactly strike A. E. Rowlands as the proper kind of music, so he tuned up in the living room of "Tipperary." S. N. Schwabe didn't approve at all, so the men all compromised by singing "America." It was all in good part, as were the jokes at each other's expense that were made by the various members. The club session was held on the platform of the hall, presided over by the president, R. M. B. Williams, while the guests occupied the seats in the hall. Following a very amusing and impromptu program the men served refreshments to their guests. Among some of those present were Mrs. R. M. G. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. David McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Herrvel, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rowlands, Mr. and Mrs. George Routledge, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Pennell, Mesdames J. F. Elliott, F. M. Barger, Eunice Payne, C. C. Crews, Mattie Campbell, Miss Anne Lee, Rix, E. H. Yale, Miss Gertrude Yale, Messrs. R. Ray Elliott, Charles Rokahr, Frank Barger, R. J. Tighe, H. M. Rix, R. M. Reed, S. N. Schwabe, D. L. Pickens, Malcolm R. Jones, W. Ryar, Edmund Chase, Tom Touseid, M. H. Lemmon and others.

COLD WEATHER RECORD IS BROKEN TUESDAY MORNING

Tuesday went Monday morning two degrees better—or worse—in a westerly way. The temperature dropped to 22 degrees above zero Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, which is two degrees colder than it was Monday morning at the same time.

Accompanying the cold Monday night and Tuesday morning was a heavy fog which made the air exceedingly thick and hard to breathe. Monday night the fog was like a made in London product and the electric street lamps showed dim through the haze. The forecast for today and Wednesday is fair, with little raise in temperature.
