

MERRY MUSICAL PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY MUSIC DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S CLUB

Fun and lots of it was enjoyed by the women's club Wednesday afternoon. Instead of the uplift program that have been a part of the club work, the music department decided to furnish relaxation and so gave Wednesday afternoon an exceedingly clever program in the auditorium of the high school. The grave and dignified members of the club acted a school room scene in which the nonsense was irresistible and kept the audience in a ripple of continuous mirth. The fun was entirely without effort, the performance being happily spontaneous. The improving songs by anxious children and Hayden's "Toy Symphony," were especially enjoyed.

Booth, as typical little school girls in gingham dresses and hair in braids led in the song, "Why," with the schoolmaster and chorus joining in. Mrs. Ralph Henderson, as teacher, was comical. Her plaintive song of the woes of being fat was a decided hit. She wore a very large apron of gingham and her hair was very tightly braided in pig-tails. Mrs. Henderson was in charge of the entire program.

The chorus sang "I Know a Lovely Garden," by Handel. Hayden's "Toy Symphony" closed the program. All the orchestra members wore their school room costumes. Mrs. Penney and Miss Alicia O'Neill were the violinists; Mrs. James G. McNary played the piano; Mrs. George Brunner the cello; Mrs. R. P. Mosson the fiddle; Mrs. D. C. Booth the quill; Mrs. A. H. Goldstein, the triangle; Miss Anne Lee Rix, the nightingale; Parvin Wittie, the horn; and Thomas A. Christian, the drum. In the chorus were: Mesdames W. R. Schultz, W. C. Haden, R. P. Mosson, D. C. Booth, A. DeFew, J. J. Tyndale, Henry C. Haden, Misses Anne Lee Rix, Ella Peck and Dora Aiken.

THE HAIR THAT ARTISTS ADMIRE

Ask an artist what he considers the chief charm of beautiful hair and he will answer that he looks for even color, brilliance and a looseness that eliminates any hard, definite lines. Naturally beautiful and healthy hair are obtained by retaining a perfectly clean head. In washing the hair it is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of cantrox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Advertisement.
