Giant Recruit Lands On Alexander Phillies Now Appear To Be Cracking

By "BECK." I FEEL that the lot of one Ralph Stroud, a recruit of the Giants from the Sacramento club of the Coast league, to humble the mighty Alexander. After five successive victories, the great Phillin pitcher was looked upon as a sure thing until he happened to face the Californian. Five singles and three doubles were gathered by the Giants off Alexander in eight innings. Three runs crossed the plate. Alexander gave way to Deschler in the ninth. Stroud pitched shutout ball for eight innings, allowing only one run on three hits and two walks. Three runs crossed the plate and two singles gave the Phillies their only tally.

The Phillies appear to have "cracked," for they are not traveling now at the same pace they were a week or more ago. The Cubs are getting close to them and a defeat for the Phillies and a win for the Cubs will result in a change of leadership in the league. The Cubs won their seventh straight victory on Wednesday when Zabel came back with another shutout, his victims being the Reds. The fielding was sensational throughout. The final score was Cubs 5, Reds 0.

Ted Caters, of the Braves, connected with one of Alexander's curves for a triple on the fourth inning. It just happened that the bases were loaded at the time. Maranville's double and Dewey's triple got the ball over the fence. The Braves another win, the Sox perhaps were lucky to get a single run off James.

The Mackmen broke up the winning school sports, juvenile sports, boys' amateur sports, and news and gossip of the "future greats."

VILLA IS READY TO GO TO BATTLE

Wires that He Will Move in Two Days if Obregon Fails to Attack.

"I will march south within two days unless Obregon's forces attack me in the meantime. All my men are in fine spirits and eager to battle for their ideals. My artillery is better prepared for the offensive than it has ever been and Gen. Angeles has gone south to take charge of it. When the approaching combat is ended, the elements of right and justice in Mexico will have learned that a temporary check does not impair the fighting ability of the division of the north."

Francisco Villa. This telegram, received in El Paso Thursday morning by a personal friend of Gen. Villa's, was the latest official word on the course of developments in the military situation around Aguascalientes.

From the Carranza faction, no messages indicating Obregon's movements have been received for three days. Villa officials in Juarez say that Obregon is fortifying his troops in preparation for an attack on the city, but that he has not yet moved.

Gen. Villa is ready. J. S. Berger, commander of Villa's station corps, arrived here Wednesday night from Aguascalientes, where he has been superintending preparations for putting Villa's aeroplane contingent in readiness for the field. He said that everything was in readiness for an offensive movement by Villa's troops and he believed it would begin within two days, unless Obregon advances in the meantime. Berger claimed that Villa has concentrated 37,000 men at Aguascalientes. It was reported yesterday that Villa had refused permission to transport the body of Jack Maynes, American aviator who was accidentally killed this week at Aguascalientes, to the border.

Not as Dead as Reported. Gen. Carranza's associate in El Paso Thursday that Gen. Murguia is alive and retains his command in Obregon's army. Official Villa advisers last week stated that Murguia was killed in a battle near Trinidad.

Garrison at Zaragosa Fires Delayed Salute for Gen. Daiz's Day. Villa's garrison at Zaragosa was less considerate than the Juarez garrison on Cinco de Mayo. The reason given for the failure to fire the customary salute on the morning of May 5 in Juarez was that it might start another rumor of a new revolution. The salute was fired by the Zaragosa garrison, regardless of rumors and reports.

Wednesday night about 9 o'clock firing was heard down the river and the rifle fire, interpreted with an occasional explosion which sounded like hand grenades, caused a flutter of excitement along the border on the American side as the officers at the fort were telephoning to the outpost patrols to learn what the noise meant.

Juarez military officials said that the Villa garrison at Zaragosa, opposite Ysleta, had fired a farewell salute for the day, and nothing more.

In Boyland:

JUNIOR AUTO races have been so developed on the coast that machines capable of 70 miles an hour have been constructed for the young drivers. On Saturday and Sunday, of this week, there will be national championship races at the Pajama-Pacific exposition track in San Francisco. The events are open to regularly constructed racing machines of the smaller type.

The proposal of The Herald to hold junior auto races in El Paso for the boys of this district in that the cars be limited to some small horsepower and that, if the boys agree, the event be limited to cars built by the boys themselves.

Only one letter has been received from a would-be speed merchant. This youngster is very modest and doesn't want his name published yet. In part he says: "I believe that all boys should have engines of one or two cylinders and not more than 15 horsepower and that no event should be confined to boys not over 17 years of age. I also believe that the race should not come off before Thanksgiving day as we are to give the boys time to build their cars, as I think that the boys who wish to enter have not yet built cars or even had time yet to really think about it. I believe that the race would be better than a track race and while a race on July 4 should hold up interest, the big race should not be held until Thanksgiving day."

We would like to hear from other boys on this proposition. Do you want more time to build a car? Would you limit the cars to 15 or 17? And what would be your opinion as to the limit of power? Let us hear from you if you are interested.

The Las Cruces Juniors are coming down to El Paso on Saturday morning for a game with The Herald Carriers. The Carriers are still averaging from the trouncing they got at Las Cruces last Saturday and are predicting a victory in the coming game. The Las Cruces boys are nifty ball players and the game should be worth while.

More information about the proposed junior automobile race and some valuable tips for the young mechanics who are figuring on building cars will be published in this department tomorrow. Watch for it.

The Fort Bliss Juniors challenge The Herald Carriers and would like to arrange a game on Saturday. The Juniors are also considering a match with the Las Cruces Juniors at Las Cruces.

Altura Tigers are on the rampage and would like to book a game for Saturday or Sunday with some team who averages from 15 to 17 years of age. They prefer the Myrtle Stars. Games can be arranged by phoning 1193.

The West Main Juniors defeated the Kentucky Tigers, 13 to 5, in a fast game on the Villas school grounds. The features of the game was a triple by Nathan Cordova. The batter struck by Nathan Cordova and H. Butler for the West Main Juniors and Goras and Hayden for the Tigers.

St. Mary's Firsts declare that it was St. Mary's Seconds who met and were defeated by the Firsts. St. Mary's Firsts are very anxious to arrange a game with the Feldmanns.

The Feldmanns defeated the Grizzly Bears, 10 to 10, on Wednesday afternoon. Roy Strahan and Pat I'wyer were the star batters.

Feldmanns used the following players: Strahan, c.; Pat I'wyer, p.; G. Gillette, p.; William Caputo, c.; St. Mary's Firsts, c.; Brown, 2b.; Bruce Schuler, 2b.; Pat I'wyer and G. Gillette, ss.; James Earl, 1b.; Carl Reissinger, cf.; Ferdinand Welch, lf.

For the Grizzly Bears, the players were: Philip Cordova, c.; Frank Taylor, p.; Leroy Schuler, 1b.; Oliver, 2b.; Johnny Appell, 2b.; B. Krupp, cf.; Wiley, cf.; Philip Cordova, lf. The name of the shortstop was apparently omitted from the list sent in.

The All-Star Juniors played the Kentucky Tigers during the heavy weather storm on Wednesday afternoon and won by a score of 15 to 2. Elmer pitched the first six innings. The batter struck by Elmer was H. Butler. Howell was then sent to the mound but was knocked out of the box. Talbot succeeded him and held the Tigers. The Grimes, Gibson and Hanson worked for the Tigers. The most effective of the trio was Gibson. The Tigers tried to knock a ball out of the infield but poor support accounted for most of their runs. Elmer fanned 15 men in the six innings he worked.

The lineup of the All-Stars was: Dick Cox, c.; Stanley Elder and Gayle Talbot, p.; M. Howell and Stanley Schuler, 1b.; David Morris, 2b.; David Goodman, 2b.; Arthur Mackey, ss.; James Flannigan, cf.; Maurice Irwin, lf.

Alexander Hamilton—Father of American Credit

DANIEL WEBSTER says of Hamilton: "He smote the rock of National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprang upon its feet." No man did more to build the Constitution of the United States than did Hamilton. He took a prominent part in every debate, and worked indefatigably on all the important committees. His genius, individuality and daring foresight are indelibly stamped upon every clause of our National Law—the law under which Americans are guaranteed for all time Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. During Hamilton's lifetime he used his great influence to encourage and protect the brewing industry. Among all the Fathers of the Republic none knew better than he that honestly-brewed barley-malt beers make for true temperance. This American Colossus, who was second only to Washington in the service rendered to his country, drank good beer all his days. We know of no one who has yet dared declare that it injured him in any way. Under the tenets of the Constitution, which Hamilton did so much to make a fact, Anheuser-Busch 58 years ago launched their great institution. During these years they have honestly brewed honest beers. To-day 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Their world-famed brand BUDWEISER because of its quality, purity, minkness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sale of any other beer by millions of bottles.
