

DRAB ATTACKS ROOSEVELT, TAFT

Both Preparedness and Peace Plans, Except His Own, Displease Him.

New York, June 21.—In a bid for the support of the laboring element in favor of his peace policies, W. J. Bryan Saturday night delivered an address in Carnegie Hall in which he attacked both the preparedness advocates led by Col. Roosevelt and the peace advocates led by former president Taft.

Mr. Roosevelt is the most potent factor in this group, and it is quite natural that on account of his prominence, his great ability and his extreme views he should direct the general policy of organization. He credits not only the intelligence, but the motives of those who are contemptuously described as pacifists and advocates of peace at any price. He more than intimates that they are physical coward and that their attitude on international questions is due to fear of bodily injury.

It is not necessary to answer Mr. Roosevelt upon the low plane upon which he pitches the controversy. It is entirely possible to credit him with the purest motives and the sincerest patriotism, and yet resolutely oppose the methods which he would employ for the safeguarding of the country.

Mr. Roosevelt might be excluded from the list of the nation's advisors on all matters relating to peace or war, on the ground that he is so anxious to get into any contest that involves blood-letting that he cannot be trusted to deal with any phase of the subject. The preparedness which he advocates will provide war instead of preventing it and would destroy our national moral influence.

Bryan declared Roosevelt's plan of making this nation "a rival of the powers of the old world in military and naval proportion" would involve infinite increase in expenditure for ships and men, to be continued so long as other nations continue to increase.

World Make U. S. an Army. "Mr. Roosevelt's plan," Mr. Bryan said, "would make the United States a vast armory with skill and cross-bones above the door and the designing architect of the system will go in and out in uniform with the proud consciousness that our nation no longer contains molly-coddles or wackings."

Attacks Taft's Peace Plan. Of the other organization with former president Taft, "his most conspicuous sponsor," Mr. Bryan declared that although Mr. Taft himself had been prominently identified with him in the organization were "at least not antagonistic to peace." The idea that many persons have had of Roosevelt as the best weapon with which to fight the Roosevelt organization, "was a mistake."

Mr. Bryan called attention to the word "enforce" in the title of "League to Enforce Peace," and to the declaration in a speech by President Lowell of Harvard university, at the recent Philadelphia meeting that it was aimed to discourage war by the threat to use force.

"Their plan," continued Mr. Bryan, "is to organize an international police force which will compel peace and control it by the use of force. The danger is that we shall make ourselves partners with other nations in waging of war, forces who can promise to enter into partnership with other nations in future wars we must repudiate the future of Washington, who warned us against 'entangling alliances.' The danger is that we shall be slow to enter into any arrangement which will involve us in the quarrels of Europe."

"As a private citizen, I am going to use my influence to crystallize the peace sentiment so that when the Congress tell the president what to do the peace-loving people will tell him what the real sentiment is. If a vote were taken in this country 99 out of every 100 citizens would vote that a American owes it to his country to not go into the danger zone."

"The majority of the people are willing to investigate," continued Mr. Bryan. "We have investigated in Mexico for two years and months, and we are investigating yet. Why can't we investigate in a Christian spirit for one year on any question, no matter what."

82 NEW LAWS NOW EFFECTIVE

Important Measures Passed at Regular Session Became Effective Sunday.

Austin, Tex., June 21.—Out of 156 laws passed at the regular session of the 34th legislature, 82 became effective Sunday, that day being 90 days after adjournment of the regular session. This 82 does not include 19 measures of purely local interest and of no state importance. Included in the 82 general laws are a number of measures of importance, which embrace subjects of education, court reforms, elections, the material men's law, preventive measures for diseases. While the compulsory education law also became effective Sunday, it will not become operative until September 1, 1916, according to a special stipulation in the law itself. Other education measures are: The act to require the teaching of agriculture in summer normal schools and in Farmers' institutes; providing for the printing of text books for agriculture and providing that common and independent school districts may provide free text books for the schools, making it local option for each district.

Of the acts dealing with the judiciary, may be mentioned the measure applying to the sale of real estate, and the measure providing for the sale of real estate of decedents; providing executors under foreign wills to sell real estate in Texas; additional provisions for the supreme court, and the different appellate courts of the state; also changing the law as to taking appeals in criminal cases, and relating to pleas of assualt.

Election Betting Prohibited. One of the laws of considerable importance is an act which prohibits corporations to contribute to chambers of commerce and other bona fide commercial organizations in the state. Another act prohibits betting on elections in Texas, and provides a fine upon conviction of from $100 to $1000 and confinement in the county jail from 20 to 60 days.

It is a brief summary of the more important laws that are now effective: Requiring hotels, restaurants, cafes and public eating houses to sterilize all dishes, utensils, etc., and requiring that clean napkins be furnished; penalty $5 to $100.

Requiring fire escapes on all buildings over two stories in height used as a dwelling, dormitory, restaurant, hotel, manufacturing plant, wholesale and retail stores or in any place where five or more persons may be assembled; residences are exempted; penalty $5 to $200 fine.

Requiring secretary of state to certify all nominations for district offices to the different county clerks. Cannot Move Shops or Offices. Prohibiting removal from changing location of roundhouses, office machine shops without the consent of the railroad commission.

Fixing fees of notaries public. Providing penalty for betting on elections. Amending law relative to pollution of water courses, by exempting tide water cities, and providing means of abatement. Loan shark law, providing that loan brokers shall give bond, record all transactions, pay an annual tax of $25.

Providing for the incorporation of towns of 600 population or more. Authorizing the railroad commission to require railroads to construct and maintain tracks to prevent discrimination. Placing the general management and control of public forests in the hands of five trustees.

Allowing corporations already organized to enlarge their powers for the purpose of storing, transporting, buying and selling gas oil, salt brine, etc. Amending law relative to the sale of goods. Relating to and regulating sales of real estate.

It is a year's time will allow us to reach an amicable arrangement with European countries are under a great strain now. This calm country can afford to consider the other nations' condition. "We can afford to say not only to Germany, but to every other country in the world. We will give time to investigate. Now is the time to act, the world an example and instead of following in the wake of the warring nations, show them a better way."

states of decedents to permit same under terms set forth in wills. Appropriating $100,000 for wolf bounty, wildcat and bobcat bounties. Reorganizing the 24th and creating the 25th judicial district. School Attendance Compulsory. Compulsory school attendance law. Validating titles to lands granted under Spanish and Mexican land grants in Nacogdoches county. Empowering county commissioners to provide for public parks, limiting to four in a county and providing for election of park commissioners.

Providing that all properties or moneys received as compensation for personal injury by wife shall be her personal property. Amending 24 hour law for women workers in certain employments. Preventing obstruction of highways, crossings or streets at railroad crossings for more than five minutes. Appropriating $25,000 for railroad commission to obtain legal services for rate hearing now in progress. Validating titles to lands granted under Spanish and Mexican land grants in Nacogdoches county. Reorganizing the ninth and creating the 75th judicial district. Authorizing and regulating reciprocal insurance association.

Provides for New Normals. Three state normal school bills. This was made operative by action of supreme court on Saturday afternoon. Providing two additional stenographers for supreme court. Allowing executors under foreign wills to sell real estate in Texas. Requiring section foremen and hands on railroads to take description of animals found dead along right of way. Prohibiting the carrying of arms in churches or other assemblies. Penalty $100 to $500 fine, imprisonment one month to one year.

PARADE, BARBECUE AND BALL LABOR DAY

Labor Day, Sept. 6, will be observed by all of the labor unions in the city with a parade, barbecue and ball. The committee which was appointed at the last meeting of the Central Labor union met Sunday morning to make preliminary plans for the celebration. The parade will be held on the morning of Sept. 6 and the committee will make an effort to have all of the union men in the city appear in the line of march. The Municipal band will play for this parade and a number of floats will be built for it by the different local unions. Following the parade, the union men and their families will go either to Washington park or some other shady place and have a big barbecue and picnic. After the picnic dinner there will be speeches by local orators, a baseball game between the members of the Typographical union and some other unions, races, games and field sports for the children. The parade will close with a ball at the old Fraternal Brotherhood hall.

The committee will have another meeting on July 31 at which the central committee will be increased by three delegates from each of the unions affiliated with the Central Labor union. CLAIMS OLEO FRAUDS HAVE COST U. S. $27,000,000. Washington, D. C., June 21.—Secretary of the treasury McAdoo issued a statement Sunday night, based on a sweeping investigation by the commission of internal revenue, claiming that oleomargarine law violators have defrauded the United States out of at least $27,000,000 in stamp and special taxes. Frauds committed as long ago as 1902, immediately after the enactment of the law, have been uncovered by the commissioner. He began his inquiry some months ago but no inkling had been given of the wide scope of the inquiry or of its results. Unpaid taxes aggregating $25,900 have been recovered and deposited in the treasury, "with the prospect of further very heavy collections." Forty-two violators of the law have been convicted since January, and 29 of these have been given prison sentences. Fines aggregating $148,000 have been assessed in addition to the recoveries actually made since January. The commissioner declares that while fraudulent practices of this sort have been checked, "the law is being enforced, and every law breaker brought to justice."

NICKEL CAR AND STREET CAR COLLIDE ON MONTANA. A Chalmers nickel touring car and a fort Bliss street collided Monday morning in front of the Rayner grocery store at 330 Montana street. The nickel car had the left front wheel broken when it struck the side of the streetcar. The nickel car was owned by L. M. Crawford, who owns the car, was said to have been driving and had one passenger in the car. Neither was injured. The accident occurred at 6:45.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY. IT SICKENS! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS GENTLY. Don't lose a day's work! If your liver is sluggish or bowels constipated take "Dodson's Liver Tone."

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, drowsy and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick, you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel craves into your bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's what you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone. Your doctor or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition. Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.—Advertisement.
