

RECEPTION TO NEW BISHOP OF EL PASO; LOCAL Y. W. C. A. TO ENTERTAIN VISITORS

BETWEEN 1500 and 2000 people attended the reception given by the Knights of Columbus Thursday night at the Terrace club in honor of the Right Rev. A. J. Schuller, the newly consecrated bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of El Paso.

The ball room of the club was elaborately decorated with large American flags draped over the doorways and a very large American flag was suspended from the orchestra balcony.

The receiving line stood by a column marked with a large cross formed of purple satin ribbon. Vincent Andrews presented the guests to bishop Schuller.

Bishop Schuller wore his cassock of purple edged with red, with the purple sash and episcopal cloak and his episcopal chain and cross were about his neck.

During the evening the orchestra of the Fourth Field artillery played continuously. The orchestra was given in courtesy of the new bishop by Col. Lucien G. Berry and Capt. Francis P. Joyce, chaplain of the regiment.

Punch was served during the evening in the little dining room and in the alcove of the ball room, which were decorated with palms and flowers.

Mrs. C. E. Kelly was chairman of the refreshment committee and on this committee were Mesdames E. V. Berrien, James MacGoffin, George B. Ryan, W. G. Roe, Gus Momen, Charles Pomroy, Frank Anna, Tim Sullivan, Henry Weisich, Mart Sweeney, Joe M. Nealon, George LeBaron, Richard Atias, W. L. Brown, J. F. Waddell, J. J. Delaney, J. J.
