

BRITISH PEER DIES; NO HEIR

Lord Alvertone, Famous Jurist, Ends a Notable Career on the Bench.

London, Eng., Dec. 15.—Viscount Alvertone, aged 77, former lord chief justice of England, is dead. He left no heirs to the title.

Viscount Alvertone was one of the most popular, human and many-sided men in British public life.

He came into prominence before the American public as the representative of England on the Alaskan boundary commission.

Previous to the Alaskan commission, Lord Alvertone, then Richard Everard Webster, rendered good service to his government as one of the British counsel before the Venezuelan boundary commission.

He was also one of the British counsel before the Venezuelan boundary commission, which met in Paris as a result of President Cleveland's famous war message.

Lord Alvertone was a widower. His wife died in 1876, and his only son in 1910, after an operation for appendicitis. There is no heir to the title.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU! You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil of Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

DR. MEAD MAKES STUDY OF DAM

Authority on Farm Credits to Study Butte Project; Dinner for Him.

Studying the Elephant Butte project, Dr. Elwood Mead, professor of economics in the university of California, went to the dam Wednesday morning and will spend two days at the dam and in the upper valleys.

Dr. Mead, who will be the special guest at the chamber of commerce dinner Friday evening at the El Paso Hotel, arrived Tuesday night from California and will spend the remainder of the week in El Paso and the valleys making a careful study of the irrigation system.

Dr. Mead is a member of the central cost review board of the interior department, which has for its duties the reviewing of costs of various government projects similar to the Elephant Butte project.

The evidence and records in the cost review hearing which was held in El Paso, to ascertain the equitable cost of the Elephant Butte project, has been referred to a central cost review board, of which Dr. Mead is chairman, for careful consideration.

The committee on this report will be forwarded to the interior department, together with the original report of the El Paso hearing.

Authority on Farm Credits. Dr. Mead is widely known for his writings on farm credits and his plan for putting more men onto the land.

His plan is modeled after the Australian system in which the state buys the land and without using up its working capital, Dr. Mead also favors branches of the federal reserve bank to take care of this farm paper and permit the farmer to repay the money loaned them on easy terms and during a long term of years.

Dr. Mead was accompanied to the dam Wednesday morning by project manager Raymond F. Walker, of the reclamation service, and Will Follett, the superintendent of the Franklin canal. They will spend the day and a part of Thursday at the dam and will go to Las Cruces and Mesilla Park during the day.

He will give a talk Thursday at the A. & M. college of New Mexico. He will return Thursday evening in time for the dinner Friday evening at which Gen. James F. Parker will also be a special guest.

COUNTY SCHOOLS GET $2400 FROM STATE SCHOOL FUND. The county school department is in receipt of a check for $2400 from the state treasurer as part payment of last year's school apportionment.

At the close of the school year the state still owed the county schools $1 for every school child, or $3746. The money just received is two-thirds of that amount. There is still due from last year $1258.

PRESBYTERY GIVES LETTER

Pastoral Relations of Rev. Kenneth Brown and East El Paso Church Ends.

At a special meeting of the Presbytery of the El Paso district, held Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Kenneth Brown, formerly pastor of the East El Paso Presbyterian church, was given a letter dissolving his relations with the El Paso Presbytery. The letter was given at Mr. Brown's request, and he is now in Corcoran, California, where he is engaged in work with the Presbytery of San Joaquin.

While the Presbytery was called with a view to naming a successor for Mr. Brown, no action was taken in this direction. It is likely that a new pastor for the East El Paso church will be selected at an early date.

Those present at the presbytery meeting were: Rev. W. B. Ely, Fort Davis, Texas; Jesse Merrill, moderator; Rev. W. C. Baker, Altura Presbyterian church; L. West, elder; Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, of the First Presbyterian church; W. L. Crockett, elder, and Rev. Jose Venecia.

The regular monthly meeting of the session of the First Presbyterian church was held Tuesday evening. The regular work of the church officers was the only business transacted.

DEATH COMES TO TONY A. FERLET

Well Known Valley Farmer and Printer Dies as Result of Accident.

Tony A. Ferlet, aged 55 years, a resident of Anthony, N. M., and a member of the El Paso chamber of commerce and the El Paso Adclub, died in an El Paso hospital Tuesday evening, as a result of injuries sustained last Wednesday night.

Mr. Ferlet was thrown from his buggy while returning from Anthony to his ranch near there, and was not heard from by his family until the following morning. He sustained injuries in the runaway and these, combined with an all-night exposure, were too much for a man of his age. He was given every attention, but never regained consciousness.

Tony Ferlet was a genius in many ways. He was one of the most expert printers in the state of Texas and for more than 20 years was a member of the firm of Guesar & Ferlet, bookbinders and printers, at San Antonio, having founded the establishment in 1887.

Prior to that time, he lived two years in Galveston, where he was also in the printing business and was married to Miss Lucille McKown. Having accumulated a considerable competence, Mr. Ferlet returned to San Antonio six years ago and came west, purchasing a ranch near Anthony, where he had a new outfit of type and printing machinery and set up a small shop in his alfalfa fields, where he carried out some of the most artistic printing seen in this section of the country.

He created the design of the "Heart of the Mesilla valley" and turned out other advertising literature with a punch and an artistic touch.

Mr. Ferlet was born in Paris, France, but came to the United States with his parents when he was a boy. His boyhood was spent in Wisconsin and Kansas, and he learned the printing business there. He immediately set out for Texas on his own, and founded the establishment there which grew to be one of the largest in Texas.

He was a prominent factor in San Antonio business life during his residence there. Since moving to Anthony, Mr. Ferlet was prominent in the affairs of the upper valley and took an active part in the chamber of commerce and Adclub of El Paso.

He was survived by a widow and five sons, Leo G. of El Paso; Liberty M., of Bastrop, and Lorraine, Tony, Jr., and Richard, of Anthony. He also leaves an aged mother, Mrs. B. G. Ferlet, of Cottonwood Falls, Kan.; a brother, Leo, of El Paso; another brother, Ed H., of Kansas City, and a sister, Miss Rosa, of Topeka.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from Peake's undertaking establishment, Rev. Henry Easton officiating. The interment will be from among his personal friends, as follows: W. J. Bule, E. H. Shelton, George H. Clement, J. H. Sherman, M. P. Carlock and N. M. Walker.

VETERANS ATTEND WOOTEN FUNERAL. The members of the Robert E. Lee chapter No. 1660, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the John C. Hatcher post of the United Confederate Veterans were assembled in the Evergreen cemetery Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of Miss Josephine Wooten, whose death occurred Monday evening at the family home, 221 West Rio Grande street.

Rev. Henry Easton, of St. Clement's Episcopal church, officiated both at the home and the grave. The funeral cortege left the home at 10 o'clock and all the vehicles were crowded with friends carrying beautiful floral offerings.

Miss Wooten was vice president for five years of the local chapter of U. D. C. in 1913, was sponsor for the United Confederate Veterans of Texas at the reunion held in Chattanooga, Tenn. An honored place in the U. D. C. plot was set aside for her final resting place.

The active pallbearers were: Robert Holliday, R. E. Sherman, Dr. J. B. Brady, Walter H. Scott, Paul Hammett and J. E. Monroe. The honorary pallbearers were: C. E. Kelly, H. W. Peacock, Z. L. Cobb, Stanley Thompson, Henry Haft and W. D. Greet.

Telegrams of condolence were received by members of the bereaved family from all parts of Texas.

WIFE OF DR. J. H. PAGET DIES; FUNERAL AT HOT SPRINGS. Mrs. J. H. Paget, wife of Dr. Paget, died Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at her home, 1703 East Rio Grande street. Mrs. Paget had been ill for more than two years and, while her death was not unexpected, it came as a shock to her friends.

The remains were shipped Wednesday morning to Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Paget's native home. No funeral services were held here but will be conducted in Hot Springs upon the arrival of the body there.

Mrs. Paget is survived by her husband and three children. Logan, aged 12, accompanied the remains to Hot Springs together with Dr. Paget and will make his home there with Mrs. Paget's father, Col. J. T. Henderson, Josias, aged five, and Getro, aged three also survive.

J. Y. GAYLOR, OKLAHOMA BANKER, DIES HERE. J. Y. Gaylor, aged 42 years, and president of the First State bank of Marietta, Okla., died Tuesday night at 10:20 o'clock at a local hospital. Mr. Gaylor had been ill a year and was a health seeker in El Paso.

The remains were shipped Wednesday morning to Marietta, Okla., by Kaster to Marietta for interment. Mr. Gaylor is survived by his wife, who was with him at the time of death, and his parents, who reside in the state of Missouri. O. English, a personal friend of Mr. Gaylor, was also in El Paso at the time of death. Both Mrs. Gaylor and Mr. English accompanied the remains back to Okla.

MIS UNA STARNES DIES. WAS A MANICURIST. Miss Una Fannabell Starnes, aged 34 years and a manicurist, died Tuesday night at the county hospital. Death came as the result of tuberculosis.

FEDERAL MEDIATOR TRIES TO END CHICAGO STRIKE. Chicago, Ill., Dec. 15.—A federal mediator, G. W. Whanger, today began an effort to settle the strike of employees of the Chicago Belt railway, through whose switching yards a big percentage of freight passing into and through Chicago is handled.

A. F. Whitney, local head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said today: "If our demands are declined by the Chicago Belt line, every yard man in the employ of the 37 roads entering Chicago will be called out within four days. Four thousand men will be affected."

Believing that no medicine ought to be sold for unless it does for you, a user of Solvay's, they have adopted the plan of selling Solvay's, the standard kidney remedy, under a positive guarantee of quick relief from all kidney or bladder misery, or money back without a question. This speaks eloquently for the virtues of the remedy and already has created a widespread demand for it in El Paso. Hundreds of people in every walk of life have been cured of the aches attendant on weak, disordered or clogged-up kidneys and bladder by this remarkable remedy. It is not just merely a kidney treatment, it is a medicine that aims to put the entire, run-racked body into normal condition and give vigorous health after the many painful disorders caused directly or indirectly by a weak kidney. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Solvay's and its continued use should soon, or up the entire system of improperly working organs and give the desire to live and enjoy life to its fullest.

Solvay is considered by many the best kidney remedy on the market today because it aims to cure by striking directly at the cause of all the trouble. The many pains and aches caused by permanently cured kidneys cannot be removed.

Solvay is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine. You are cheating yourself out of your slice of life if you don't try Solvay's chance. Get it today from Kelly's Pharmacy, or any leading druggist in this vicinity.—Adv.
