

MEXICO'S TOLL OF AMERICAN LIVES

Nearly 300 of Our Citizens and Soldiers Killed or Wounded.

A special to the New York World from Washington says: In anticipation of a congressional inquiry into President Wilson's Mexican policy, the state department is collecting and compiling reports made in the last three years.

The principal part of the department's final statement will cover treatment of American citizens. The statement concerning losses will be in three divisions: Americans killed in Mexico, those killed on the American side and the property losses. These figures are in the possession of the state department:

1. Americans killed in Mexico (approximately), 125.

American citizens killed in the United States, 26, evenly divided between soldiers on guard on the border and citizens. In addition to these numbers, 45 American citizens, 30 soldiers and 2 officers were wounded on American territory by Mexican fire. These figures do not include private Samuel Parks, who wandered from the American lines and was killed by Mexican troops at Mexican fire. These figures also do not include private Samuel Parks, who wandered from the American lines and was killed by Mexican troops at Mexican fire.

2. Americans have sustained property losses of approximately $10,000,000.

Indemnity has been paid in one case. Villa paid $20,000 to the widow of an American citizen named McKean, who was killed in his residence in a suburb of Mexico City. The state department almost invariably declines to indemnify the family of a slain American named Wells, but at the last minute the first chief declined to make reparation. An American woman whose husband was killed is said to have been given $50 to get out of the country. As far as can be ascertained, no other American has received reparation.

2250 Nuns Unaccounted For.

The affidavits printed by the World showing that mistreatment of nuns and desecration of churches have been the practice of the Carranza forces, caused much comment in official circles. If a congressional investigation is made evidence will be produced to show that the Carranza forces mistreated 2500 nuns in Mexico when the revolution began, and that the whereabouts of 30 percent of these women is now unknown to the church authorities. Only 250 have been accounted for. Some are in Cuba and some in the United States. In Mexico virtually all religious institutions have been closed and nuns are not allowed to follow their vocations, according to the best information obtainable here. It is feared that approximately 2000 have been taken forcibly by troops in Carranza's camps.

DR. COOK NOT A BILL SUNDAY

San Antonio Rector Says He Prefers Streetsweeper Vestryman to Mayor.

The Men's club of St. Clement's church held its annual meeting Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Clement's church and, in addition to electing their officers for 1916, had for their guest of honor Dr. Philip Cook, rector of St. Mark's church, of San Antonio. David McKnight, under whose vigorous leadership the club has flourished for a period of three years, refused to consider a reelection and upon his recommendation an entire new slate of officers was elected. The meeting was the fifth anniversary of the organization of the club.

Hawaiian President. A. E. Rowlands was elected to the presidency and his associate officers for the year are: Dr. George R. Wall, first vice president; R. J. Tighe, second vice president; E. M. Barger, secretary, and Smith Williams, treasurer. The executive committee is H. M. Rice, I. E. Smith and H. N. Herivel. The outgoing officers were: David McKnight, president; V. R. Shilley, first vice president; R. M. G. Williams, second vice president; R. Ray Elliott, secretary, and Sig. N. Schwab, treasurer.

Sponsor for Meetings. The Men's club of St. Clement's church will stand sponsor for the mission week, which begins Saturday at St. Clement's, under the leadership of Dr. Cook, and will cooperate with the vestry and the pastor, Rev. Henry Easter, in contributing their enthusiasm and energy toward making the mission a success. Dr. Cook spoke upon the close of the week's work in El Paso was the first missionary or evangelist work that he had undertaken and that he supposed he had been called upon in one particular and that being he was not a professional evangelist, had no intention of entering the city, tearing it open, withdrawing with large receipts and leaving the situation no better than he found it.

Street Sweeper for Vestryman. He stated frankly that crowds did not particularly interest him and that because a great number of persons came together was no special indication of success. "I believe in intensity and effectiveness with a few. If this mission results in the deepening of the spiritual life of just a few it is not without its value. Personally I would rather have a street sweeper as my superior vestryman than a mayor, or the urban of the legal profession. If the mayor and the dean were indifferent spiritually, I am interested in souls and responsiveness—not in echoes and reflections."

Mission Services. The hours of the services for the mission week at St. Clement's will be: Communion service each morning at 7:30 o'clock; afternoon service at 4 o'clock and evening service at 7:30 each night, with the exception of Saturday. The second Sunday of the mission, January 15, will mark the close of the week's work and will be commemorated by a massed meeting for men, but at which men are not exclusively invited.

EL PASO'S BIG TASK EUROPE

"Go to Church Sunday" is Big Success; Services Are Held in Army Camps.

Thousands of persons who have not been regular in their church attendance, or strangers in the city and not identified with any special church, availed themselves of the "Go to Church Sunday," and all of the evangelistic churches of the city were taxed to their fullest capacity to accommodate the newcomers Sunday.

Regular services were observed at all of the churches with a few extra music numbers at noon. The ministers expressed themselves, to a man, as being pleased with the general results and expressed a wish that instead of the attendance being a "one-time" thing, those who resumed their Sunday duties would continue to do so throughout the remainder of the year.

Mission Is Started. Rev. Henry Easter, of St. Clement's Episcopal church, said that the attendance could not have been improved upon. Dr. Philip Cook, of San Antonio, made the first appearance of the mission week, speaking upon the text, "It must be about my Father's business."

Other expressions of ministers were: Rev. Paul G. Rickman, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church, "The attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased." St. Paul's Crowded. Rev. A. C. Harris, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. M. A. Souers, Orchard Park Methodist church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. W. C. Baker, Altura Park Presbyterian church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Chaplain J. T. Axton, acting minister of Westminister Presbyterian church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. J. F. Williams, pastor of the First Baptist church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. Perry J. Rice, First Christian church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, First Presbyterian church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. J. N. Langston, Highland Park Baptist church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Rev. J. Wade, pastor Cavalry-Houston Square church, said that the attendance was much larger than on the regular Sunday and I am highly pleased.

Chaplain John A. Ransdolph, of the Sixth Regiment, held special services for the men at Camp Bliss Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and advised the officers and enlisted men to attend the services at the city church, which many of them did. A "Go to Church Sunday" service was also held at Camp Bliss.

COL. HOUSE'S BIG TASK EUROPE

Bad Situation in American Embassies; Jealousy and Incompetence.

A special to the New York World from Washington says: If Col. House succeeds in his forthcoming mission to Europe, he may be rated as the greatest of all living diplomats, in the opinion of the inner circle, which is fully acquainted with the long list of assignments which president Wilson has given him.

When Col. House arrives in London he will be expected to impress ambassador Walter Hines Page with the fact that he is not the superior American representative and that his functions do not overlap into any of the other countries which have American ambassadors.

Page Too Zealous. The administration has reasons for believing that Mr. Page's overzealousness to represent the United States has led him at times into the position of giving advice to other American ambassadors which has not been requested in his attention. Washington has been informed that the embassy at London at times has even attempted to act as censor over diplomatic correspondence which was addressed to American representatives at other points.

It has been reported to Washington that there is a three-cornered feud on among ambassadors Penfield at Vienna, Gerard at Berlin and Page at London. Col. House will be expected to use his tact and settle this inside row.

Petty quarrels have arisen between the ambassadors Gerard at Berlin and Ambassador Page fast enough to suit him, and vice versa. Several weeks ago Mrs. Penfield at Vienna desired certain articles shipped from England.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin desired some clothes for his own use. Ambassador Page did not take the matter up fast enough to suit him. Small irritations of this sort have become general in the embassy circles and coupled with jealousies have resulted in a general soreness among the ambassadors.

Col. House's principal mission will take him to Berlin, where he will attempt to ascertain why the Kaiser has not been reported to the interview with the Kaiser approximately two months ago.

The conviction has been growing steadily in Washington recently that Ambassador Gerard is not taken seriously by the foreign office.

The administration is at a loss to ascertain why Germany is still unacquainted with the American viewpoint.

Apparently Col. House will attempt to find out the general political atmosphere about Berlin. The administration has been conscious for some time that the government and people of Germany are extremely opposed to the present administration of the United States, but they bear no unkind feeling toward the people of this country generally.

MEXICAN BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT SUNDAY AFTERNOON. Shot in the back with a small caliber rifle while playing with several companions on the bank of the Franklin canal in East El Paso, a boy 10 years of age was rushed to the emergency hospital Sunday afternoon at 3:20. Two young negro boys were arrested, near the scene of the shooting, with small rifles in their possession and one of them, being held in the city jail, pending an investigation of the incident.

According to the statement of Jose Triles and Galbeto Ruacho, who were with Gomez at the time of the shooting, they were playing on the bank of the canal, when they heard a report of a rifle, and saw the wounded youth stagger. Turning they state that they saw two boys with small rifles about 10 yards away, while smoke was coming out of the end of the barrel of one of the rifles.

When taken into custody Allen and Matheo stated that they had no knowledge of the whereabouts of the rifles, but admitted they had been firing their rifles near where the injured youth was found.
