

MYSTERY OF THE MASK IS SOLVED

The Woman Is Jean Gentry; Why She Is Here Will Be Told Tomorrow.

The identity of the woman of the black mask has been discovered. A telegram was received Thursday night from Chillicothe, O., in reply to one addressed to the chief of police of that city.

Do not know anything about woman in black mask save that her name is Jean Gentry. Think she is from New York and is attempting to get away from the courts.

Upon receiving the message, a Herald reporter with a local detective and one of the shrewdest men in the Southwest in matters of the law, went to the room of the masked woman at Hotel Sheldon.

Her tall frame rocked dizzily upon the gold bed slippers that added so to her charm at the Rotary luncheon.

But she got no further. Her firm chin showed more firmness. Her strong mouth showed more strenuousness. Nothing could make her say more.

So Saturday the public will know in detail why Jean Gentry wears the mask. It will learn also where she secured the money that she is spending so generously at the hotel stores.

It will explain why she looked so swagger in the blue silk dress and the glowing flower in her hair. It will explain why she wore a trim tailored tan suit and hat 40 miles from Everybody on Thursday night to dinner. It will explain why

F. WORTH AND DALLAS COMING

17 Delegates From These Two Cities to Attend the Adclub Convention.

A partial list of the delegates to the sixth annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of Texas, to be held in El Paso next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, has been announced by the publicity committee for the convention and is as follows:

Port Worth—H. T. Bostick, president; Paul Junkin, secretary; John W. Covey, H. C. Burke, T. N. Turpin, C. H. White, Elmer Mitchell, Wayne Greer, A. L. Shuman, R. H. McKinley and Fred Lonis.

Dallas—J. E. A. Wynne, president; J. H. Payne, secretary; L. A. Whitton, W. C. Barrickman, O. S. Brook, Clarence W. Jones and two newspaper correspondents.

Final plans have been made for the convention, two changes in the general scheme having been made. One to hold a joint luncheon on Wednesday at noon with the Rotarians, at which the delegates will be the guests of the Rotarians; the other army maneuvers at Fort Bliss, instead of the proposed trip to Elephant Butte dam.

Wednesday morning the delegates will witness army maneuvers at Fort Bliss, through the courtesy of Gen. J. J. Pershing and the work of R. B. Orndorff, president of the chamber of commerce. Wednesday afternoon the delegates will be given an opportunity to attend the Suarez races, special reservations being made for them.

she occupies a front seat tonight at the El Paso theater. It will explain why she will be seen at the Alhambra both Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Saturday will reveal why this young British woman, mistaken for a Villista spy, is in El Paso; why she was attacked and kidnaped on Wednesday evening; why she came and goes so mysteriously; Saturday is the day of revelations.

FARMERS TO PAY $10,583,012.74

Cost of Roosevelt Dam and Canals Determined by Cost Review Board.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 11.—Salt river valley farmers must pay $10,583,012.74 for the Roosevelt dam and their canal system. This is the finding of the central cost review board, composed of Elwood Mead, W. L. Marshall and I. D. O'Donnell.

The review board says that the total cost of the project on June 1, 1915, was $12,573,616.67, but receipts of $2,990,502.93 brought the amount down to $9,583,113.74. Over $90,000 was earned by power plants operated in connection with the project, approximately $2,000,000 was represented by water rentals.

It is admitted by the central board that the cost of the project is high but it is contended that the benefits are much greater than the cost.

The average assessed value of lands before the project began was less than $15 an acre. Now it is about $100 an acre, the report says. The amount of land purchased at about $10 an acre, and the price paid for the land now owned by the government has resulted in a continual enhancement of land values until only a little land can be bought for less than $100 an acre.

Missionary Program Not Merely Church Talk; Full of Information

Speakers From Many Unknown and Little Known Countries Will Tell Facts Alike Interesting and Entertaining—Many Non-Christians Will Attend Coming Convention for the Facts They Will Get.

THE missionary movement in the churches is a great campaign for the establishment of Christian civilization among the nations of the earth. The giving of the gospel is not the whole of such a movement.

All these elements that make up such a civilization as we enjoy in this country of ours are to be propagated. The introduction of the best legal systems, the best educational systems, the best financial systems all form a part of this great campaign.

The question of missions includes great economic, political and other features which will be of profound interest to all thoughtful people when they are explained by men of large experience and scholarship. Some of the men who will be in El Paso March 5-8 have a worldwide reputation for their grasp of the great issues that affect the world today.

RECENT changes among the photoplayers have brought about a capture by the Fox Film Corporation of Virginia Pearson and Alma Hanlon. Theda Bara may find a rival in Miss Pearson, for it was on the stage that the latter won fame as the original creator of the vampirism in "A Fool There Was," and it was in the film version of that play that Theda Bara made her first screen appearance and won a name.

RED FEATHER PICTURE IS TALK OF THE WEST. A Knight of the Range, starring Harry H. Carey, is a picture in which real westerns predominate. The story concerns the love affairs of Bess Lawson and Bob Graham. Bob is a gambler, and Gentleman Luck, a gambler, plans his downfall because he loves Bess himself. Then there is Cheyenne Harry, another lover of the girl, who because he thinks so much of her, does all he can to help Bob. He even saves her in a fight he is forced to flee a posse. In a fight he is killed and Bess discovers she really loves Cheyenne Harry best of all.

ARIZONA MODIFIES CATTLE QUARANTINE AGAINST MEXICO

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 11.—Modifications of the rigid quarantine against Mexican cattle, which has been in effect since July 29, 1915, have been adopted by the Arizona livestock sanitary board.

Hereafter cattle from Mexico will be admitted at any port along the southern border when they are given a clean bill of health by the federal veterinarian. The usual formalities in regard to the inspection of brands must be gone through with, of course. Dairy and breeding cattle must have been tested for tuberculosis within 30 days of their admittance.
