MORE THAN $2,000,000 IS GOING INTO FINE BUILDINGS IN EL PASO

It might interest even the old resident El Pasoan to know that there is considerably more than $2,000,000 worth of new public and business buildings actually going up in the metropolis of the southwest today. Men and women who return here after even a couple of years' absence are filled with wonderment at the activity in evidence all over the city in the building line. There are few streets even in the business district that are not showing rapid changes in the skyline. There is no other city in the United States, all corners say, where there is such an outpouring of money for the erection of made-to-stay structures. It is certain that El Pasoans believe implicitly in the future of their city and have never seen the day of decline of values which many another city has experienced.
