

MORE MILITIA REACHES BORDER

Pennsylvania Brigade Arrives; Two Michigan Regiments Added to Force.

Pennsylvania infantry and third battalion, 10th Pennsylvania Infantry, made a quiet departure for the Big Bend county Wednesday night. Sleepers were on the train to give the men a night's sleep before starting on their march south of Marfa, Tex., where they will be stationed. The exact location of the Pennsylvania soldiers will go is not known.

The purpose of sending the national guardsmen to the border of the Big Bend country is to ward off any bandit attacks of Villistas or other bandits. The other battalions of the second and 10th Pennsylvania infantry are expected to follow at any hour the vanguard of the national guardsmen to the Big Bend district.

The second battalion, second regiment, is in command of Maj. John Handy Hall and the third battalion of the 10th is commanded by Maj. Henry W. Coulter.

Engineers Lay Out Camp. The Pennsylvania engineers' battalion, companies A of Scranton and B of Philadelphia have finished their task of laying out the new camp. The camp beyond the fort is now occupied by the first Pennsylvania cavalry and sixth Pennsylvania infantry. The new camp is located about four miles north of Fort Bliss. The camp is spoken of among Philadelphia newspaper correspondents as the second Mt. Gretna for its plan of layout.

Well Drilled. The Pennsylvania engineers claim they can now outdrill any of the Pennsylvania guardsmen. They say they have been systematically drilling for the past week, working four hours in the morning and two in the afternoon. Other soldiers from the northern and eastern states are not drilling in the afternoon on account of the weather. Any of Pennsylvania engineers who make the least mistake in their drills are compelled to do fatigues duty.

Many Know Mexico. Men who are acquainted with Mexico are in the first Pennsylvania cavalry. Pvt. Malcolm McGregor, troop G, Philadelphia, was employed for 11 years in the interior. He came out only six weeks ago. He has been appointed interpreter for the first Pennsylvania cavalry. Pvt. McGregor speaks Spanish fluently. Corp. Reynolds Cox, troop G, is familiar with the border country. He was with the U. S. marines during the Veracruz incident. Pl. H. Franks, troop G, was captured in government work along the border for some time.

Veteran of 18 Years. The oldest soldier in point of service in the Pennsylvania cavalry is Sgt. A. W. Shelmire, troop G, who saw 18 years of service in the third U. S. cavalry.

The first city troop, the crack first Pennsylvania troop of the cavalry regiment, includes a grandson of Gen. Gen. G. Meade, of Gettysburg fame. He is Pvt. Saunders Meade.

Troop movements in the Big Bend district and at other points along the border were continued today with the idea of tightening the American patrol.

VILLA CONFISCATION AGENT CONFISCATED BY POLICE. Primateiro Uro, said to have the head of the bureau of confiscation of the Villa government, was arrested by Capt. J. E. Stowe at 2255 Missouri street, on a charge of bringing stolen property into the state.

Complaint against Uro, who has been in El Paso but a short time, was made by Mrs. Jose Cueto, formerly of Chihuahua city, and who claims to have identified a large quantity of furniture in the home of Uro as that stolen from her residence in Chihuahua over one year ago by Villa. The furniture is said to have been brought to the American side of the river by Uro.

A tent where the men could congregate and where there would bequiescent enough for them to think and write would be appropriate, was the sentiment of those present.

Repair of Maple Ave. Suggested. The suggestion was made to repair the Maple avenue road to Fort Bliss for both the convenience of the militiamen and citizens of El Paso who desire to visit the camping grounds. A motion to send three representatives of the Rotary club when bids for the repair of the road are opened by the county commissioners was passed.

LEA THREATENS TO GIVE UP JOB

Declaration Follows Adverse Vote of Aldermen on Jitne Bond Elimination.

"I don't believe my usefulness to the council can continue if the council persists in its opposition to the elimination of the bond on the jitnes," declared Mayor Tom Lea during the council meeting held Thursday morning.

The mayor's statement followed an adverse vote of 3 to 1 on a resolution relieving jitne drivers of $1000 bonds heretofore required.

Mayor Lea stated that he would bring the matter up again. His mind was almost made up as to resigning, if the council continued to oppose his plans, he added.

The vote was as follows: Fisher, O'Connor and Stevens, no; Jolly, yes.

What Started the Trouble. This is the resolution that started the whole trouble: "Resolved by the city council that the city attorney be and is hereby instructed to prepare an amendment to the present jitne ordinance that the bond heretofore required be eliminated. This amendment not to affect the license fee payable to the city."

And further, to amend the ordinance so that said jitnes shall be operated by American citizens only.

And further giving to the city council only the right to forfeit licenses upon violation of the ordinance by the driver or owner.

Must Maintain Normal Traffic. "The council should not interfere in labor questions, but it has the right to see that normal traffic conditions be maintained," said his honor, upon the presentation of the resolution. "I don't believe that my usefulness to the council can continue if the council persists in its position. I am thinking seriously of offering my resignation. My connection has been most pleasant, but I owe a duty to myself."

Jitnes Run Wild, Says O'Connor. "The jitnes are running wild," replied Mr. O'Connor. "What are we going to do if we take the jitnes license to irresponsible parties? Suppose some one is killed tomorrow? Think of the condemnation that will be heaped upon our shoulders."

Have Right to Opinions.—Fisher. "Mr. O'Connor has expressed my opinion," said alderman Fisher. "I don't see where the mayor has any grounds for his attitude about resigning. We all have the right to our own opinions."

Should Protect Street Railway Co. "The street car company has asked for protection and it is our duty to give it," declared alderman Stevens. "They have made certain promises, and they should be given a chance to fulfill them."

Engineer's Report Adopted. The following reports of the city engineer were adopted: Cost of paving Cotton avenue from Wyoming to Erie streets, $42,225.21; city share, $75,165; street railway company's share, $124,117; steam railway companies' share, nothing.

Cost of paving Davis street from Union depot to Overland street, $11,257.47; city share, $194,117; steam railway companies' share, $374,442; steam railroad companies' share, $1019.

Petitions Referred. The following petitions were referred: To pave North Santa Fe street from Main street to West Boulevard, council as a whole, to pave South Campbell street, district 1, to Fourth street, council as a whole; to pave Park street from Second to Eighth, council as a whole.

The total births was 34, divided as follows: White Americans, 13; Mexicans 21.

The following contagious cases are reported as still remaining in the city: Scarlet fever, three; smallpox, one; diphtheria, one; typhoid fever, two; total, seven.

The condemnations were: 455 pounds of meat, 210 pounds of fruit and vegetables and one hog. Nine nuisances were abated.

Paving Costs Assessed. An ordinance assessing the paving cost against property owners on Texas street, from Palm street to Piedras street, was adopted.

An ordinance assessing the paving cost against property owners on South Stanton street, from Eighth to Twelfth streets, was adopted.

Hauls 206 Loads of Garbage. There were 662,210 pounds of garbage and ashes at the town of ashes hauled during the week beginning July 5, according to a report from Thomas German, sanitary commissioner, to Alderman J. F. O'Connor, chairman of the scavenger department, which was presented to the council Thursday morning.

WOMEN DEMAND EARLY CLOSING

Las Cruces, N. M., July 13.—A large number of the women of Las Cruces assembled yesterday morning in Judge E. L. Medler's office. After a lengthy discussion concerning the late action of the Las Cruces council giving the saloons of Las Cruces longer hours, a committee was appointed, consisting of three women, who together with four men appointed by the chairman of a men's meeting, held a few days previous for the same purpose, will wait upon the members of the council asking them to rescind their action.

The present members of the council are: John H. May, chairman, W. R. Heber and Jesus Nevarer. The other members of the council, Dr. H. M.
