

ARMY ROMANCE CULMINATES IN WEDDING; EL PASOANS FORM LONG BEACH COLONY

AN Army wedding occurred at the Pao del Norte hotel Thursday morning at 11 o'clock when Miss Margaret John Deckert, of Shamokin, Pa., was united in marriage to Lieut. Henry Spiese Aurnand, of the 69th company coast artillery by Capt. Fletcher, chaplain of the First Pennsylvania Infantry.

The bride is the daughter of former state senator R. E. Deckert, of Pennsylvania and is a granddaughter of Sam Houston, of Texas. Lieut. Aurnand is a graduate of West Point in the 1915 class, having finished as an artilleryman and being assigned to the coast artillery service.

The wedding was attended by a number of friends of the bride and groom who are here with the national guard troops in Camp Pershing. The bride's father accompanied her to El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Adams announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rose Lenora Adams, to John Q. Burch, of the First Methodist church, on Rampart street, at 11 o'clock, on Wednesday evening. The wedding was very much of a surprise to every one. Immediately after the wedding Mr. Burch and his bride left on a month or six weeks' honeymoon in California. With the young couple when they were married, was H. N. Adams, father of the bride, and Mrs. Thomas, sister-in-law. The bride wore a navy blue tailored traveling suit, a black tulle-trimmed and cream-colored hat. The groom wore a tuxedo. Mr. Burch is a popular member of the younger set, having lived here a number of years. Mr. Burch is manager of the Texaco Transfer company. Mr. and Mrs. Burch will make their home in El Paso.

Dr. Kelvin D. Lynch has returned to El Paso with a bride. She was formerly Miss Florence Josephine Sen-net, of Butte, Mont., and the younger daughter of Mrs. Horace Bennett. The wedding, which was a double wedding, was performed on the morning of Tuesday, June 20, and took place in the St. Patrick cathedral, at Butte. Miss Anna Bennett, sister of the bride, and Dr. T. J. R. Shanley, a very intimate friend of Dr. Lynch, was the other couple married with them. Dr. and Mrs. Lynch spent their honeymoon in travel and came to El Paso by way of the Grand Canyon. They are now at home with their friends at 2211 Mountain avenue.

Mr. Joseph Soltner announces the marriage of his sister, Miss Adeline Moretti, to Claude W. Brown, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. Brown, which recently occurred at Las Cruces. Owing to the recent illness and death of the mother of the bride, the wedding, which was performed by the justice of peace at Las Cruces, was kept secret. Mrs. Brown is well known in El Paso. Mr. Brown is connected with the parcel post department of the postoffice. They are at home to their friends at 1028 Alameda street.

At a very quiet wedding at the home of Mrs. Zichona, Miss Edith Cohen and Zack Joseph were united in marriage on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph will make their home in El Paso. Those present to witness the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. L. Silverman, Max Levinson, Henry Werler and C. L. Cohen. After July 15, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph will be at home to their friends at 6051-2 Prospect avenue.

Cards.

Mrs. Henry Jerrill entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Olive street. Besides the usual number of members, Mrs. C. A. Tietzert, M. A. Hemple and Miss Mamie Hemple also were present. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. R. Thew, for high score, and Mrs. J. T. Sullivan second prize. The consolation prize fell to Mrs. George Johnson. The next meeting of the club will be on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Johnson, on Overland street.

The East El Paso Catholic Woman's Aid society held its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. Ford, on Hill street. The meeting was held in the afternoon by about 25 people. Mrs. M. Lyons was hostess of the society. The only prize, that for high score, was won by Miss R. Walsh. It was a hand painted china plate. The house was decorated in red and purple sweet peas and carnations. Later in the afternoon an ice course was served by the hostess and Mrs. Ford. The next meeting, which will be held on Thursday, August 3, will be at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hines, 2928 Grant avenue.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "star" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and tape measure will tell their own story, and many thin men and women believe can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flash Sargol does not of itself make fat, but adding with your food, it aims to turn the fat, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the lungs and blood—preparing it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. Much of this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol works from the waste and does it quickly and to make the fat producing contents of the very same waste as are eating down, develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. A. K. Ryan and other leading druggists in this vicinity sell it in large bottles—forty tablets to a package—no guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in each large box.—Advertisement.

El Pasoans Away.

Mrs. R. V. Pearson and children have gone to Clouderoff to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. J. A. Pickett and children are visiting friends and relatives in Mason, N. M.

Miss Estelle Kitchens left this morning for Clouderoff, where she will be the guest of Miss Linda Hill, for several weeks.

Miss Katherine White left today for Clouderoff, where she will be the guest of Mrs. C. T. Hacc, who is occupying the "Goodman" cottage for the summer.

Miss White is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. White.

Among the things taken were two suits of clothes, two pairs of shoes, one straw hat, three other hats and two suits of underwear.

DEPUTY KILPATRICK'S ROOM IS "CLEANED" BY ROBBERS

Washed out of his room in the Missouri house Wednesday morning and returned five minutes later to find that it had been visited by thieves, and all of his clothing taken. No trace of the robbers was obtained, the theft being performed so quickly that it is believed the men were hiding in the building.

Among the things taken were two suits of clothes, two pairs of shoes, one straw hat, three other hats and two suits of underwear.

SILVER CITY SECRETARIES CHANGE; IMBODEN RETURNS

Daniel Imboden has returned from Silver City, N. M., where he was for a short time secretary of the Silver City chamber of commerce.

Imboden accepted the position vacated by Carl Hinton, who was a captain in the New Mexico national guard and was called out, but recently discharged on account of physical disability. Imboden relinquishes his position so that Hinton might return to his work.

EL PASOANS have formed a colony at Long Beach, for the El Pasoans alone. They go to places and arrange things for themselves, and no one else enters. There is a large dancing pavilion on the pier at Long Beach, where dances are given every evening. One corner of this pavilion is set aside, with Texas and El Paso banners, for the El Pasoans there. The management has given them buttons to wear, and they are treated as though they were delegates to a convention, instead of taking a vacation. Among the El Pasoans to be found in this group are: Mrs. A. J. Austin, Louisa Welch, Vanita Gray, Robbie Stewart, Katherine Dick, May Krammhor, Gene Gilchrist, Dorothy Crane, Marjorie Crane, Irene Crane, Edith Conway, Ethel Crawford, Frances Earle, Lena Robinson, Edith Bailey, Nancy Edwards, Nina Edwards, Wilfred Crane, Francis Oppenheimer, Dorothy Voltersten, Neesah Harrison White, Eleanor Robinson, Henry Butler, Paul Welch, William Brown, W. R. Crane, Robert Cox, Jack Donahue, Irwin Schwartz, Frank Scotten, Paul Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Baker Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. S. EL PASOANS have formed a colony at Long Beach, for the El Pasoans alone. They go to places and arrange things for themselves, and no one else enters. There is a large dancing pavilion on the pier at Long Beach, where dances are given every evening. One corner of this pavilion is set aside, with Texas and El Paso banners, for the El Pasoans there. The management has given them buttons to wear, and they are treated as though they were delegates to a convention, instead of taking a vacation. Among the El Pasoans to be found in this group are: Mrs. A. J. Austin, Louisa Welch, Vanita Gray, Robbie Stewart, Katherine Dick, May Krammhor, Gene Gilchrist, Dorothy Crane, Marjorie Crane, Irene Crane, Edith Conway, Ethel Crawford, Frances Earle, Lena Robinson, Edith Bailey, Nancy Edwards, Nina Edwards, Wilfred Crane, Francis Oppenheimer, Dorothy Voltersten, Neesah Harrison White, Eleanor Robinson, Henry Butler, Paul Welch, William Brown, W. R. Crane, Robert Cox, Jack Donahue, Irwin Schwartz, Frank Scotten, Paul Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Baker Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. S. Krammhor, Mrs. John Donahue, Mrs. Tom Bailey, Mrs. Frank Crane, Mrs. J. J. Crawford, Mrs. H. L. Robinson, Mrs. Jos. C. Crane, Mrs. Green Stewart, Mrs. James L. Hines, Mrs. R. Welch, Mrs. Charles Voltersten, will join the colony, as will the Misses Axtan, the two elder daughters of chaplain and Mrs. Axtan. There is no other nation added, as the summer passes and El Paso is watching its colony on the coast with interest.
