

Mexican bank notes, state bills, 1909 14c; pesos, 33 1/2c; Mexican gold, 48c; national, 17c; bar silver, 11 1/2c; gold, 11 1/2c; copper, 12 1/2c; crata higher, livestock steady, stocks irregular.

WEATHER FORECAST: El Paso and west Texas, fair, freezing; New Mexico, fair; Arizona, fair.

WILSON CARRIES CALIFORNIA

Red Fire, Democrats—McCormick Votes of the West Settle Issue

WILSON, THE ASSETS

Hughes Ahead in West Virginia and in Minnesota; Loses New Hampshire.

CALIFORNIA IS A CLOSE STATE

Hughes Has Majority Of Nearly 4000 to Overcome In Golden State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Chairman McCormick of the Democratic national committee, announced late this afternoon that he had sent telegrams to all the Democratic state chairmen in the country telling them to engage bands and buy red fire to celebrate tonight the reelection of Woodrow Wilson.

"It's all over," he said. "We have cleaned them up. We stick unflinchingly to our original figures: Wilson by 258 electoral votes."

Chairman McCormick announced at 3:45 p. m. that he had been told over the telephone by state Democratic chairman Ferrand of New Hampshire, that all the ballots were counted and Wilson had carried that state by 115 votes.

Chairman Wilson called on Mr. Hughes at 2:45 p. m. and the latter's secretary, Mr. Wilcox, said his visit was a preliminary one. Mr. Wilcox said he had nothing to add to his earlier statement. Mr. Wilcox said he was certain that Mr. Hughes had been elected.

Republicans Not Despairing. Charles R. Warren, Republican national committee chairman from Michigan, after a conference with chairman Wilson and other national committee members, gave out the statement as reflecting the consensus of opinion among the Republicans that the election depends upon the count in California, Minnesota, North Dakota, New Mexico and New Hampshire.

Both Chairmen Firm. Thus with five states still in doubt, the national committee chairman of the Republican and Democratic parties were unwilling to concede until this afternoon that the opposing presidential candidate had received a sufficient number of electoral votes to win. Meanwhile it was indicated at both headquarters that in states where the vote was close, a recount could be demanded.

Both sides again announced they were talking precautions to guard ballot boxes. Mr. McCormick reiterated emphatically his claim of yesterday that president Wilson would be reelected with 258 electoral votes. He said he had enough to bring him the victory. Mr. McCormick claimed North Dakota, California, New Mexico and New Hampshire and insisted that the Democrats had a good chance to win Minnesota. Republican chairman Wilcox said he was confident by his statement of last night that Hughes would get at least 258 electoral votes.

Admit Closeness of Race. Charles R. Warren, Republican national committee chairman from Michigan, after a conference with other Republican leaders at headquarters, declared that Oregon and Minnesota were safely for Hughes and that the outcome depended on Minnesota, California, North Dakota, New Mexico and New Hampshire. Mr. Warren said he was confident that Hughes would get at least 258 electoral votes.

Wilson's Tie in the Lead. If the result of the incomplete returns of Tuesday's balloting are accepted as final in all but five states, at noon today, the electoral vote would give president Wilson 251 and Hughes 52.

G. O. P. STRONG IN THE SENATE

Democratic Lead Is Greatly Reduced By Accessions to Republican Ranks.

New York, Nov. 9.—The United States senate will remain under Democratic control by a reduced majority of 16 or 17, dependent on the outcome in New Mexico, where A. A. Jones, Democrat, is maintaining a slight lead over Frank A. Hubbell, nominated by the Republicans to succeed Frank Ctrion.

Four present Democratic members, according to the latest indications, have been defeated. They are senators Kern and Tamm of Indiana, Martine of New Jersey, and Chilton of West Virginia. Three Republican senators, Elliott of Rhode Island, Clark of Wyoming, and Sutherland of Utah, also have lost their seats, on the basis of the returns. The Democrats lost their floor leader through the defeat of senator Kern by Harry S. New.

Democratic floor leaders mentioned for the successor are Sanbury, of Delaware, Martin, of Virginia, Walsh, of Montana, and Underwood, of Alabama.

The Senators Elected. The senators who were chosen, according to the latest indications, were: Arizona—Henry F. Ashurst, Democrat; Arkansas—William F. Kirby, Democrat; California—Hiram W. Johnson, Republican; Connecticut—George F. McLean, Republican; Delaware—Josiah O. Wolcott, Democrat; Florida—Park M. Trammell, Democrat; Indiana—(Long term) Henry S. New, Republican; (short term) James E. Watson, Republican; Maine—(Elected 8 September) long term, Frederick Hale, Republican; (short term, Bert M. Fernald, Republican; Maryland—Jos. I. France, Republican; Massachusetts—Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican; Michigan—Charles E. Townsend, Republican; Minnesota—Frank B. Kellogg, Republican; Mississippi—James Sharp Williams, Democrat; Missouri—James A. Reed, Democrat; Montana—Henry L. Myers, Democrat; Nebraska—Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Democrat; Nevada—Key Pittman, Democrat; New Jersey—Jos. S. Frelinghuysen, Republican; New Mexico—Undecided; New York—Wm. M. Calder, Republican; North Dakota—Porter J. McCumber, Republican; Ohio—Atlee Pomerene, Democrat; Pennsylvania—Philander C. Knox, Republican; Rhode Island—Peter Goelzel Gerry, Democrat; Tennessee—Kenneth D. McKellar, Democrat; Texas—Charles A. Culberson, Democrat; Utah—William H. King, Democrat; Vermont—Carroll S. Page, Republican; Virginia—Claude A. Swanson, Democrat; Washington—Miles Polinder, Republican; West Virginia—Howard Sutherland, Republican; Wisconsin—Robert M. La Follette, Republican; Wyoming—John B. Kendrick, Democrat.

Total 35. 258, and of North Dakota, which had an electoral vote of 3, to Wilson. New Hampshire, California and New Mexico guardmen, outside their own states, did not vote. West Virginia, which has an electoral vote of 5, was not counted. The Minnesota guardmen on the border are two infantry regiments, part of the 10th and 11th regiments, and one brigade headquarters, stationed at Llano Grande, Texas. The North Dakota are at the same place.

On the border number on the average more than one thousand men, in many organizations a good percentage of them are under voting age. The vote in the different states, where there is any doubt, follows:

In California, 5521 precincts out of 5876 give Hughes 459,561; Wilson 452,122; Wilson's plurality, 3522. This drop of about 500 votes from the last previous tabulation was occasioned by the ratification of the Alameda (Oakland) count vote, the county clerk announcing a correction in Hughes's favor of 492 votes.

At this time but nine precincts were yet to be heard from in Los Angeles county, Hughes's greatest stronghold, while more than 200 precincts in northern California, expected to give Wilson plurality, were yet to report. These northern precincts are in isolated mountain counties and all may not be available before tomorrow.

Chester H. Rowell, chairman of the California Republican state central committee, issued today at noon the following statement:

"Our figures very carefully checked show that we have the state by a very narrow margin. We are taking steps to safeguard an accurate official count. It is possible that the vote may be split as it was four years ago. If this case, it clewv Wilson, no matter which side has the long end of the division."

Louis H. Mosser, member of the Democratic state central committee, issued the following statement in behalf of G. K. Cushing, chairman of the Democratic state central committee:

WILSON CLOSELY OBSERVES COUNT

Though Margin Is Small, the President Remains Confident of His Reelection.

Long Branch, N. J., Nov. 9.—President Wilson today continued watching the latest election returns as they arrived, noting the closeness of the race but feeling confident of his reelection. Messages received by secretary Tumulty at 2:30 o'clock, convinced him that president Wilson had carried New Hampshire and California, which, on the basis of states previously tabulated, would give the president enough electoral votes. The New Hampshire message was from senator Hollis and would carry the state by 500. The president made no comment, preferring to await the full count.

Confident that he had been reelected, president Wilson watched returns from Minnesota, California, New Mexico, Oregon and New Hampshire closely last night, because of assurances from his campaign managers that the final outcome depended on these states.

Following an automobile ride, the president passed through Army Park, where the executive offices are located. He was recognized by many and cheered. One group shouted out to him enthusiastically that he had been reelected. He raised his hat and bowed, smiling broadly. Mrs. Wilson accompanied him.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

OUT CHIHUAHUA CITY, REPORT STATES

Entire Foreign Colony Is To Reach Border Tonight, Result Of Exodus.

FEAR REVOLT OR VILLA'S ATTACK

Foreigners Question Troops' Loyalty; Thirty Chinese Reach Border.

All foreign residents of Chihuahua City are expected to arrive at the border tonight on a train which is reported to have left Chihuahua City early Thursday. The fear of an attack on the Chihuahua state capital and a massacre of the foreign residents is said to be responsible for the exodus.

There are approximately 50 foreigners living in Chihuahua City, including Americans, British, Germans, Austrians, French, Chinese and Japanese. The fear of a revolt among the Carranza troops in Chihuahua City is also said to be a motive for the reported exodus.

Gen. J. B. Trevino is expected to remain and oppose any attack by Villa bandits, but the foreigners are said to question the loyalty of his troops according to a British subject who arrived here Wednesday night. Thirty Chinese reached Juarez Wednesday night on the train from Chihuahua City.

Dozens If Americans Escaped Parral. Friends of the Americans and other foreigners in Parral and Magistral, Chih., announced today that they were doubtful if the Americans in these camps had escaped with their lives. Messages received from Sierra Malada and Escalon to which towns a number of foreigners were reported to have fled from Parral, say nothing has been heard of in those places since the Carranza forces entered the area.

The president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and Miss Margaret Wilson, will go by automobile from there to Atlantic City, where he will attend the christening of the younger child of Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, his daughter. From Wilmington, he will go to Washington, where he will attend the christening of the younger child of Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, his daughter.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

Keeps Tabulation of Returns. The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked up carefully after each report from secretary Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been reelected.

NATIONAL COMMITTEES OF BOTH PARTIES EAGER TO LEARN RESULT IN THE STATE

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 9.—Zeal was added to the activities of the state Democratic and Republican committees today by notification from their respective New York headquarters to watch and guard closely the returns, as New Mexico might determine the result of the national battle. Immediate and comprehensive steps were taken by both committees to ascertain the vote on the presidential candidates and to safeguard the ballot boxes.

Four hundred and fifty-two of 636 precincts in New Mexico give Hughes 24,132; Wilson 24,132.

Jones Runs Ahead. It was regarded as certain early today that A. A. Jones had been elected United States senator by upward of 2000 majority, but that he ran far ahead of E. C. De Baca, the Democratic candidate for governor.

Returns at Democratic headquarters in De Baca's election by close to 1000 plurality, while the returns at the Republican headquarters indicated Bursum's election by about 500. However, it will take the returns from some precincts, which will not reach here until late today, to decide finally, and when then it may take the official count on some of the candidates.

The Hughes electoral ticket runs several hundred ahead of Bursum on the returns received, while chief justice Roberts, Supt. Wagner and law commissioner R. P. Ervian run 1500 ahead of Bursum and appear to be elected. The Democratic legislative ticket was elected in Santa Fe county and the legislature appears to be close. An interesting feature appears to be the election of J. B. Trevino, who is running over the present Republican incumbent, Alexander Head, in Santa Fe. Rio Arriba county returns show a close race.

Hughes Carries Santa Fe. Santa Fe county complete gives Hughes 2522; Wilson 1415. Hubbell 1546; Jones 1032; De Baca 1232; Walton 1234; Bursum 1775; De Baca 1232; Ervian 1517; Davidson 1332; John V. Conway is the only Republican county candidate elected. The entire Republican ticket in the state appears elected except Hubbell.

Guadalupe County Complete. Guadalupe county complete, gives Wilson 1207; Hughes 1043; Jones 1184; Hubbell 1066; Walton 1127; Hernandez 1092; De Baca 1205; Bursum 1031; McDonald 1121; Lindsey 1185; Jones 1135; Miral 1084; Otero 1138; Sargent 1052; Patton 1156; Cliney 1091.

Quay County, except one small precinct, gives Hughes 607; Wilson 1488; Bursum 730; De Baca 1154; Hubbell 685; Jones 1518; Hernandez 578; Walton 1509.

Chaves County Complete. Roswell, N. M., Nov. 9.—Chaves county complete gives Hughes 628 and Wilson 1710. These figures are included in the 256 precincts already reported in the state.

Chaves County for Governor, gave De Baca 1327 and Bursum 595; United States senator, Jones, 1910; Hubbell, 628.

Many Counties Incomplete. Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 9.—Twenty out of 21 precincts in Bernalillo county give Hughes 1043; Jones 1232; Bursum 1234; De Baca 1232; Ervian 1517; Davidson 1332; John V. Conway is the only Republican county candidate elected. The entire Republican ticket in the state appears elected except Hubbell.

Chaves County for Governor, gave De Baca 1327 and Bursum 595; United States senator, Jones, 1910; Hubbell, 628.

THE VOTE BY STATES

Following is the lineup as it appeared at 6 p. m. in New York, based on reports to the Associated Press, though not in every case the official count:

SURE FOR WILSON.
Alabama	12
Arizona	3
Arkansas	9
Colorado	6
Florida	6
Georgia	14
Idaho	4
Kansas	10
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	10
Maryland	8
Mississippi	10
Missouri	15
Montana	4
Total	260

SURE FOR HUGHES.
Connecticut	7
Delaware	3
Illinois	29
Indiana	15
Iowa	13
Maine	6
Massachusetts	18
Michigan	15
New Jersey	14
Total	243

PROBABLE FOR WILSON.
California	15
Total	16

PROBABLE FOR HUGHES.
Minnesota	12
Total	12

Probable Final for Wilson
California	376
Minnesota	255

CAMPBELL GETS ARIZONA BY 250

Wilson's Plurality in State Appears Close to 10,000.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 9.—This afternoon the figures of both state committees indicate the election of Tom Campbell by only 250 plurality over Hunt, despite Campbell's immense lead in Maricopa county. The best obtainable results of the several county polling follow, giving the pluralities for Hunt: Gila 812, Cochise 400, Yavapai 12, Apache 84, Navajo 160, Yuma 400, Mohave 514, Greenlee 413, total 2956; for Campbell, Graham 125, Maricopa 3660, Pima 225, Santa Cruz 7, Coconino 125; total 4182.

These appear minimum Campbell figures and his election seems assured. Wilson's plurality will be close to 10,000 in the state.

Hughes May Get One Of Washington's Votes

VOTES OF THE WEST SETTLE ISSUE

Hughes Apparently Has W. Virginia and Minnesota Vote Safe.

WILSON LEADING IN CALIFORNIA

Is Ahead Almost 4000 With Hughes Districts Yet To Be Heard From.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Wilson's plurality in California slowly dwindles as the count proceeds toward finality. Hughes's lead in Minnesota slowly increases as the count proceeds.

From latest returns available it appears that Hughes has gained in California on the average 12 votes (additional lead) to the precinct as counted. If he keeps up this average to the end Hughes will win the state. Hughes has a Wilson lead of 2522 to overcome in the remaining 339 precincts.

In Minnesota Hughes has a lead of only a few hundred, but the tendency all day has been to increase the Hughes vote and decrease the Wilson vote, though very slightly either way.

The only states now regarded as doubtful are Minnesota, California, and New Mexico. Wilson appears to have 260 electoral votes, and Hughes 243, Wilson thus needs only 6 votes, Hughes 23.

Either Minnesota or California if gained will elect Wilson. Hughes needs both to win. Tampering with election returns in North Dakota was charged today.

Both parties assert that a recount in New Hampshire will be necessary. New Mexico will be very close, but unless there are more changes to be made in the "certain" list of either candidate, New Mexico will not affect the result either way.

The fight seems to have narrowed down to California and Minnesota. In California with 5531 precincts counted and 339 remaining to count, Wilson's lead is 2522.

In Minnesota with 2846 precincts counted and 178 remaining to count, Hughes's lead is 893.

Of nine states classed as doubtful on Wednesday, four have been assigned to Hughes and three to Wilson, while New Mexico, formerly classed as Democratic, is now regarded as doubtful; thus leaving three doubtful states. However, in the lists no longer classed as doubtful, there are a number of states which the party managers refuse to concede to their opponents.

Contests are predicted in a number of states, which may necessitate a recount with possible change of some votes for presidential elector.

AMERICAN SECURITIES ARE DULL IN LONDON MARKET

London, Eng., Nov. 9.—The uncertainty of the result of the election caused a reaction in American securities on the stock exchange today and the list closed dull, pending the final decision.

A Close Call Means a Long Period of Bitter Political Wrangling