Wife of Well Known Contractor; Came Here 24 Years Ago from Kansas.

Mrs. Margaret Morgan, wife of Joseph E. Morgan, pioneer contractor, died at Hotel El Paso Thursday morning at 7 o'clock after a short illness. The daughter of Mrs. J. E. Morgan, who was 72 years of age, died at 7 o'clock after a short illness. The daughter of Mrs. J. E. Morgan, who was 72 years of age, died at 7 o'clock after a short illness.

Mrs. Morgan was 74 years of age, and had lived in El Paso for the past 24 years. She was born in Beavertown, Pa., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morgan, who were pioneers in Kansas, near Emporia, when she was a small child. She lived there until she was 12 years of age, when she and her mother moved to Emporia. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were married in 1872, when she was 12 years of age.

Her death was celebrated at 10 o'clock in St. Joseph's church, Travis and Illinois streets, Friday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. G. Grand for the repose of the soul of the deceased. Mrs. Amelia Lux, 77 years of age, a native of Austria, died Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 219 Chihuahua street, after only a few hours of illness. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the church of Immaculate Conception. Interment will be in Forest cemetery beside the body of her husband, C. A. Frazier, who was buried only a week ago.

Funeral services were held at the funeral of Frazier that she held in the city. The body was taken to an undertaker in Juarez, where it is being held pending identification. Ernest N. Plaxco, aged 54, died Thursday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. J. Plaxco, 2122 Texas street. Deceased was born near Fort Worth and has resided here for several years. He

Mrs. W. Brooks, who has been very seriously ill and who underwent an operation at Hotel El Paso, is reported to be improving rapidly. She was formerly employed by the El Paso Electric Railway company. He is survived by four brothers, Oscar, Charles and Fred of this city and one in the United States army, Walter. Mrs. J. H. White of Toluca, Tex., and Miss Jewel and Ruby, of this city, and her mother, Mrs. J. H. White, of this city, are also reported to be improving rapidly.

Children in Government Hill, Belong to County. The 221 school children in the recently annexed Government Hill territory, incorporated in the county school system, were placed there by order of the state superintendent of public instruction. When the city annexed the territory, which is a part of school district No. 2, there was an outstanding bond issue in the district and the state law provides that district bonds not be sold while such bond issues are outstanding. As the matter of annulment of public bonds was shortly after the annexation, Miss Myra Winkler, state superintendent of public instruction, advised the city school board that the children should be placed in the county school system.

WANT P. O. PLANS IMPROVED UPON

Business Men Meet Inspector and Circulate Petition To Department.

At a meeting of the business men of the city with postoffice inspector T. J. Lawrence, of Austin, Tex., and postmaster E. A. Shelton, held Thursday morning in the First National bank directory room, a petition making the postoffice department to make certain necessary alterations in the plans for the new postoffice building was presented. The petition will be forwarded by Mr. Lawrence to the postoffice department. The business men were met here from Austin, Tex., to investigate the complaints that the present plans for the new postoffice building did not meet the requirements of the local office. He has been instructed to make a report on the communication regarding changes desired.

Cases Several Changes. The petition urged the following changes in the new postoffice plan: That the entire building be raised three feet. That the excavated portion be extended to the rear of the building, thereby providing a basement containing mail and well lighted with much needed space for the use of the office. That the lobby be extended toward the rear of the building, which is now on Stanton street, which is one of the principal streets of the city and very necessary to provide for the accommodation of the public and to show the respectability of the city.

Plan Shows. As explained to Mr. Lawrence at the meeting that the present plans for the new postoffice building will be a S. A. railroad tracks and building. This plan will be a great improvement on the plan and that the entire building be raised three feet. The proposition of extending the lobby was approved by the inspector and will be recommended to the department. The proposition of extending the lobby was approved by the inspector and will be recommended to the department.

Payors Stanton Street Entrance. A petition will be sent to the department to Washington, but the postoffice inspector will not be in a position to do so until the matter is settled. He or down in a hole, said Mr. Lawrence. It also, think that a Stanton street entrance would be very desirable.

Propane Having Gravel Corner. A petition will be sent to the department to Washington, but the postoffice inspector will not be in a position to do so until the matter is settled. He or down in a hole, said Mr. Lawrence. It also, think that a Stanton street entrance would be very desirable.

P. O. Business Doubles. Postmaster E. A. Shelton told Mr. Lawrence that the business of the local postoffice had nearly doubled during the last year and was continuing to increase and accommodations to handle this large volume of business should be provided for when the new postoffice building is erected. He explained the needs of the postoffice as mentioned in the petition. Those present at the meeting, which was called by postmaster E. A. Shelton, of the chamber of commerce, and which was held in the room of the First National bank, were W. L. Galt, president, J. M. Wyatt, James A. McNary, chairman, George A. Tuley, A. P. Colton, J. C. Williams, E. A. Shelton, E. J. Grandt and Charles A. Hoaning.

Joy Riding Soldiers Have New Stunt to Get Booze on Road at Night. Night motorists down the country road Wednesday night reported that unusual quantities of intoxicating beverages were being supplied to soldiers in automobiles and that the road was filled with "joy riders" in uniform, many of them accompanied by women. A new stunt soldiers are practicing at night is to get beer and liquor, it is said, by removing their hats and coats and dropping them on the bottom of automobiles, most of them showing civilian attire in the meantime, while the drivers, who are not accessible to see if any beverages are being carried over the lower parts of their bodies.

Boys' Club of the Y. M. C. A. Given Start in Deming. In accordance with the plan of the Y. M. C. A. organization to establish "Y" communities in a large number of southwestern states, the Y. M. C. Deming, who has returned from a trip to Deming where he assisted in the work. The club was established in a five room building, the construction of which will be paid by the members, and will be furnished and equipped with the necessary furniture and other necessities.

El Pasoans Going Abroad With Quartermaster Corps. C. J. Painter and Roy G. Warnon, who enlisted as privates in the quartermaster corps of the United States army about a month ago, have received orders and transportation to Fort Sam Houston, where they will join one of the quartermaster organizations to be dispatched for immediate service in France. Mr. Painter was formerly connected with the contracting firm of Beardsell and Crockett.

Austrian Fugitive S. Papers. William E. Drenthorn, a native American, filed final papers for citizenship before United States consular officer Samuel L. Kelly Thursday. He declared that he had entered the United States at El Paso, Tex., in 1916. He is a member of the headquarters of the Fifth cavalry, at Camp Stewart.

MAY POSTPONE FIXING A RATE

Indications Are That Ad Valorem Tax Rate May Be Increased 10 Cents.

Austin, Tex., July 15.—The state automatic tax board is scheduled to meet either tomorrow or Monday, and it is expected that it will not likely fix the rate of the ad valorem tax. The board will fix the rate of the ad valorem tax, because of the absence of governor Ferguson, chairman of the board, who has expressed a desire to be present when the board meets. The board when it meets, will review until a later date, according to present plans.

Over $20,000,000 Gain. The tax board has received estimates of taxable valuations from all counties in the state and is now ready to dispose of the taxation question. The returns of the assessors show the total assessed valuation of property in Texas to be $2,917,740,774, which is an increase of $700,000,000 over last year. The total tax rate is 45 cents on the first property valuation, of which 24 cents is state ad valorem tax, 20 cents school and 10 cents county tax.
