

RACING CROWN FAIRLY EARNED BY DE PALMA

Knowledge of Engines Enters Largely in Winning of Championship.

HAS A RECORD FOR BREAKING RECORDS

By JACK VRECK. NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Ralph De Palma established himself as a speed king for 1918 when he cleaned up the international sweetstakes at Sheepshead Bay, August 27.

The daring Italian driver not only was away from the best field of drivers that could be gotten together, but broke four world's records in winning the $17,500 purse, and did it with apparent ease.

His previous successes this season, notably his winning of the Chicago Derby, has established his claim to the speed title, and he also ranks as the best all distance speedster.

The secret of De Palma's success does not lie in his prowess as a pilot alone, for there are other drivers—Betta, Chevrolet and Dury, for instance—who are fast masters in the art of handling a flying machine best on a speed course.

As a driver, De Palma ranks with the best engineers of the Pacific and company, whose cars have been piloted by him for several years, he is able to perfect his perfect driving—a car—does not appear senseless.

A factor in his success as a speed king, which shares equally with his ability to drive a car, is his knowledge of engines. He has built many a racing motor and, collaborating with the best engineers of the Pacific and company, whose cars have been piloted by him for several years, he is able to perfect his perfect driving—a car—does not appear senseless.

"MOOSEY" SOME MUSSUED BUT NOT PUT OUT

HARRY (MOOSEY) McCORMICK, once famous as punch hitter for the Kansas City club, returned to the big league after a minor league manager, is back from France and in New York on a leave of absence. He is a lieutenant now and besides the hit on his shoulder he wears a "round chin" on his arm. He was musued up considerably by a German shell casing, but will soon be able to join his detachment over there again.

SPORTOGRAPHY By "Gravy"

STATISTICS compiled by the Y. M. C. A. officials show that baseball is by far the most popular sport among our soldiers and sailors, both here and abroad.

It was predicted at the start of the season that Dave Sheen would not hold on with the Red Sox all year, but Dave, as last reports, was still on the job.

Bob Becher has returned to major league company and is playing with the Cleveland as a pinch hitter. The bloom of youth is no longer with Bob, who celebrated his 32nd birthday last February. He has been playing professional ball since 1906. He became a member of the Cincinnati Reds in 1908 and remained with them until 1912, when he was traded to the Giants as part of the Herzog deal. Becher didn't shine under Mulravy's management and was sent to the Cardinals two years later. He played for the Cardinals and went into the American Association, where he made a very good showing. The Clevelanders have engaged him as an emergency outfielder.

FIRE CHIEF PUGILIST COULDN'T MAKE GOOD. One of the biggest surprises parties ever pulled off in the ring was sprung back in 1915, with Jack Dempsey, the middleweight champion, fighting the exclamation point. Dempsey had cleaned up every man of his weight in the east, and had gone to Pacific coast in search of more mice to conquer. Thirty-three years ago tonight he took on Earl Manning, a Los Angeles man who was considered the best the coast had to pit against the "Knopprell."

The festivities were held in Turn hall, at San Francisco. The man from Los Angeles had about as much chance as the proverbial acorn in Honduras. He took an awful licking, and in the fifth round the police ordered the fight to stop. The fans raised an uproar at this, and the cops finally agreed to let the affair proceed. If larger gloves were used, this was done, but in the seventh official again stopped the massacre and this time they didn't relent.

Dempsey then beat Tom Norton, at Sacramento in even fewer rounds than it took him to defeat Manning. Having whipped all the middleweights, Dempsey challenged the DETROIT CELEBRATES. Detroit tomorrow celebrates the 21st anniversary of the arrival of Tyus Raymond Cobb in his busy midst. It was on Aug. 24, 1907, that the Detroit Tigers were first seen in the league contest in a game against the Yankees, and the team from New York was defeated by a score of 5 to 3. Jack Chesbro was the big league pitcher "Y" faced, and he struck out a double during the festivity.

Ernie is now in his 22d year. He began his career on the diamond with the Boston team, and was first day by manager Con Strubler. After playing with Annetas a short time he came to the Alabama-Tennessee league. He had previously been given a trial with Augusta, Ga., but he was fired the first day by manager Con Strubler. HUGGINS KNOWS WHY. Manager Miller Huggins counts 24 players he had with the Yankees to start the season now either in military service, in the ship yards or at home making. He thinks that is a big number for the failure of the Yankees to be in the pennant fight. Perhaps it is.

Something New For Hebrew Athletics. Clark Griffith last week announced that he had shipped to Palestine baseball equipment sufficient for four teams, on request of Americans of Jewish ancestry who are otherwise who are in service with the British forces in the holy land. Several hundred American Jews, especially enlisted, have joined the army in Palestine and they no longer get there than the desire to play ball overcomes them. Think of it, baseball in Jerusalem and real American slant heard in the city's streets!

GOODY CHANGED, SAYS ORRISON

"Giant Killer" Improves Rapidly Under Care of Bliss Expert.

Mike Orrison, Illinois boxing instructor, who is acknowledged to be the clearest defensive boxer who has appeared at Bliss points in the last several years, has been successful in imparting to Nick Gundy some of the defensive tactics so ably demonstrated by Orttman when he met Kid Pavo at Bliss, say Gundy's trainers.

Orrison stated recently that without any comparison of the abilities of Gundy and Nelson, Gundy is greatly improved in a matter of defense. Orrison's weakness has always been his open manner of boxing, for a time he was able to beat down opponents with his terrible wallop. For the most part he did not meet clever defensive artists and therefore got by with it. Being able to absorb a jumbo package of wallops himself, it never occurred to Gundy that he must perfect his defense.

"We must always give the other fellow credit for improving," says Orrison, "but I am sure that Nelson will have a hard time of it when he meets Gundy at the Studiorium that will be quite a surprise if he is measured. Nick by the way, he did at the last meeting. This is a different Gundy. In fact, I am convinced that Gundy was not at his best at the time of the last bout."

ORRISON STATED RECENTLY THAT WITHOUT ANY COMPARISON OF THE ABILITIES OF GUNDY AND NELSON, GUNDY IS GREATLY IMPROVED IN A MATTER OF DEFENSE. ORRISON'S WEAKNESS HAS ALWAYS BEEN HIS OPEN MANNER OF BOXING, FOR A TIME HE WAS ABLE TO BEAT DOWN OPPONENTS WITH HIS TERRIBLE WALLOP. FOR THE MOST PART HE DID NOT MEET CLEVER DEFENSIVE ARTISTS AND THEREFORE GOT BY WITH IT. BEING ABLE TO ABSORB A JUMBO PACKAGE OF WALLOPS HIMSELF, IT NEVER OCCURRED TO GUNDY THAT HE MUST PERFECT HIS DEFENSE.
