

WHILE EL PASO TURNS TO THE GAYETIES OF ITS SOCIAL LIFE, IT WILL CARRY ON FOR THE MEN OVER THERE; WAR WORK NOW MOST IMPORTANT

THE coming week will be a very busy one for the men and matrons of El Paso. There is much accumulated work for the clubs and women's organizations because of the epidemic and now that the quarantine is lifted, this will go forward with a will to make up for the time spent in the sick rooms and in doing the various duties which developed from the epidemic of influenza. Much work was done even during the epidemic by the various organizations but this work was necessarily restricted on account of the quarantine which forbade the gathering of numbers.

Two patriotic leagues, of which Mrs. Julius Krakauer is chairman, will take up the work of making for the soldiers together with its other efficient work and will probably have a meeting this week to discuss further plans.

The Woman's club has not had an open meeting yet but will go on in a short time. Its members are making plans whereby they may cooperate with the Red Cross and the Associated Charities in bringing to El Paso Dr. Edward Devine, who holds the chair of zoology in the Columbia university, and who has been on special duty with the Red Cross for the two past years in the war ridden countries over the sea.

The Pan-Hellenic club will have its first meeting since the epidemic at 1:30 o'clock Monday on the second floor of the Paso del Norte. This meeting is of especial importance, as it is the first regular meeting for some time.

The Gift Shop, while not quite completed, is being used for the beginning of the patriotic work which is to go on within its walls. All during the next week and until the 20th of the month, matrons and maids will assist M. B. Davis, chairman of that work, in distributing the boxes which are to be sent full of good cheer to the men overseas. All the branches of the Red Cross worked overtime during the epidemic and will continue to do this very necessary work. Mrs. Horace Broadbent and assistants will continue all the work formerly done, and in addition, will take up reclamation work on the soldiers' clothing.

Charming Bride Of Week

MRS. JESSE PAYNE, the former Miss Mary Cornwall, one of three charming brides, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cornwall. She became the bride of Jesse Payne, jr., on last Monday at a pretty home wedding.

Girls of the Reserve Corps Have a Jolly Outing On Old Mount Franklin

THE girls of the reserve corps of the Junior High school of the Y. W. C. A. had a most delightful outing Friday when they met at Monday night and took a hike up into the mountains back of the School of Mines.

Word has been received here of the arrival of Mrs. S. H. Alphin and her two little sons, who made the trip to Houston by auto, Mr. Alphin leaving two weeks prior to their departure to arrange for their future abode.

Mrs. Alphin reports a good trip for the two boys, who were out of doors sports and motoring. They spent several days with her parents and sister in Clint.

They carried guns and shells and hunted some and fished also.

Mrs. Helen Cooper Williams Has a Fine Collection of Objects of Art

MRS. HELEN COOPER WILLIAMS has a beautiful collection of art objects in her studio, one of the finest, perhaps, in the northwest. Here is the picture of "Leban Receiving Jacob into His Family," this being in deep tones of yellow and red, symbolizing the joyousness of the harvest time.

In one corner is the religious sentiment of Paul Delaroc, expressed in the lovely little "Moons in the Bullrushes." Facing this is a picturesque study of an old castle, charming in its effects of light and shadow.

Two of the most interesting and rare pictures in the studio are "Memorial Pictures," so called because it was the custom in the latter part of the 19th century and the early part of the 19th to make pictures commemorating the death of an officer, relative or friend.

Both of these pictures are over 100 years old.

Dinner To Be Given To High School Cadet Commandant Next Saturday

NEXT Saturday evening the banquet which was to have been given in honor of Maj. Davis E. Decker, commander of the high school cadet corps, some weeks ago, and was postponed on account of the epidemic, will be given at Hotel Sheldon in the private grill room, which will be most artistically decorated with a patriotic motif.

All the sponsors of the cadet corps, including Miss Gladys Mueller, Miss Katherine Eerie, Miss Harriet Eerie, Miss Lucille Crawford, Miss La Von Sorrell, Miss Mildred Peay, Miss Frederick Kipp, Miss Silvia Rivers, Miss Elaine Knotts, Miss Jean Gilchrist, Miss Gladys Book, Miss Helen Loomis and Miss Frances Lockett, will be present. Also there will be a number of special guests present.

Miss Isabel Hull, cadet sponsor; Miss Mrs. E. J. Tighe, principal; Mrs. A. H. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Whitaker. Several other high school girls will be in attendance.

Almost every day, friends from El Paso and the post motor down to the border, are stationed on the border patrol. Troops from two regiments, the fifth and seventh, alternate on this duty. During November the troops on duty are the Seventh cavalry. On Friday a delightful hospitality was extended a group of friends by the officers who are stationed at the Yuleta camp. After the luncheon was served, the party motored to the other stations down the valley at Douglas, San Elizario and Fabens. The guests included Miss Mary Lou Smithman, Miss Fred Young, Lieut. and Mrs. R. O. Wright, Lieut. J. Jones and Lieut. Roy H. Speck.

At the meeting of the Luncheon club with Mrs. Charles Farnett Friday eight dolls were dressed for the children of the Rescue Home. Four of these dolls were dressed in blue, two little girls and four were dressed as sailor lads. They are pretty enough to bring joy to any child's heart and one can well imagine how they will be appreciated.

On Thursday evening at the Harvey House, a group of artists, including Lieut. John Hayes, Lieut. Eugene Van Dyck and Lieut. Edward Becker had as their guests to dinner Mrs. Edna Fox, Douglas and Miss Nell Lawrence.

The regular business meeting and supper given every month by the El Paso Business Woman's club will take place on Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium. Mrs. Leo Williams will have charge of the supper.

Red Cross To Send Over Christmas Boxes For Men Who May Not Get Any

FIFTEEN hundred Christmas boxes of good cheer is the quota given the El Paso chapter of the Red Cross to be sent overseas to the men who would otherwise have no gifts. Also these will be given to the men who are going over too late to send home a Christmas tag. Clarence Pickrell has been appointed chairman of this work and will have a committee of 10 or 12 girls and matrons who will assemble Mrs. Eusebia Crawford, Miss La Von Sorrell, Miss Mildred Peay, Miss Frederick Kipp, Miss Silvia Rivers, Miss Elaine Knotts, Miss Jean Gilchrist, Miss Gladys Book, Miss Helen Loomis and Miss Frances Lockett, will be present. Also there will be a number of special guests present.

Miss Isabel Hull, cadet sponsor; Miss Mrs. E. J. Tighe, principal; Mrs. A. H. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Whitaker. Several other high school girls will be in attendance.

Open Air Service For Post Wedding

WHEN the moon peeped over Mount Franklin Friday evening he beheld a most romantic wedding service being performed on the parade grounds at Post Bites, the Rev. Fuller Swift reading the lines of the beautiful Episcopal marriage service, which made Mrs. A. Truschell the wife of Lieut. R. O. Scott, of the quarter-master corps. Their attendants were Mrs. Clara Brick, of Colorado, and Lieut. Fred C. Sorrell, also of the quarter-master corps. Mrs. Brick is the house guest of Mrs. Scott. The bride was very attractive in her gown of dark blue georgette crepe, beaded in cut steel and worn with a black velvet hat and fur. For the present this is impossible, the regular motor corps of the Red Cross will call for the salvage.

In order to carry on this work to the full capacity the schools, a strong organization is planned. The principal of each school is to be the head of the work, the school principal and a captain who will appoint a lieutenant for each room. Each lieutenant will be in charge of the collection and reporting of all salvage from his or her room for each week end. As far as possible, the collection of salvage will be carried out by the schools and headquarters at each week end. Where this is impossible, the regular motor corps of the Red Cross will call for the salvage.

Among the most interesting things which have happened recently, showing the loyalty of the people, both young and old, to the cause of the Red Cross, are two stories from Mrs. R. P. Hild, secretary and treasurer of the Red Cross headquarters. Seven young Mexican youths decided to give a dance for the benefit of the Red Cross. They made their plans and sold tickets but the epidemic interfering with the dance, they decided to make a voluntary donation themselves of $10. These boys are Manuel Cardenas, Baltasar Rodriguez, Eusebio Williams, Margarito Quino Quinones, Atlano Castro, Alberto Pena and Valentin Muelo.

Another pretty incident was the sending of a letter containing a dollar and the following note written by three little boys, Richard, Roy and Richard Presidential and Roy Wolf-Wolff, to the Red Cross. "We give it for the love of the Red Cross and for love of the fathers of little boys over there."

Nurses and nurse aids are requested to respond to the call made by the Red Cross to register and register with the black captains of their districts. This will not necessarily mean military service, but will be for the purpose of safeguarding the health of those left at home. It will be a means of organizing forces in case of emergency calls as in the case of an epidemic like the recent one. It will be known upon whom to call.
