

Second Art Exhibit at the Khaki Club Opens With Very Enjoyable Program

The second art exhibition in a series to be given by the art department of the War Camp Community Service at the Khaki club opened on Friday evening at the club. The exhibition is a group of beautiful paintings by Miss Louise Crow, of the Santa Fe Art colony and they will be displayed for the next three weeks. Some pictures from the Taos Art colony are also numbered among the beautiful paintings.

For the opening evening of the exhibition, quantities of American Beauty roses, gift bouquets from the Bookers' rose garden sent by Miss Blanche Dodson, were used in decorations about the club rooms.

The art committee of the War Camp Community Service includes the chairman, Miss Ruth Moore Angur; Mrs. Julius A. Krakauer, Mrs. J. C. Mos, Mrs. F. B. Seaman, Mrs. Frances Foster, Miss Belle Moore, Miss Kate Sweeney, Mrs. M. H. Ginton and Mrs. W. H. Hill.

A very delightful musical program was given under the direction of Miss Virginia Dean and four of her pupils. Misses Frances Foster, Miss Margaret Goshing, Miss Ruth Morris, Kenneth Colby and Frank Lynch.

The program included: Two selections by orchestra of stringed instruments, Miss Virginia Dean playing the cello and Mrs. V. L. Dean at the piano.

Women Find Clear Skin In Simple Laxative

A sense of false modesty often prevents women from admitting that many of her ailments and disorders are due primarily to constipation.

But women who know themselves have learned that headache remedies and beautifiers only cover the trouble but do not diagnose it.

What is needed is a remedy to move the bowels and stir up the torpid liver. An ever-increasing number of sensible women take a small dose of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold by druggists under that name.

It will save a woman from the habitual use of headache remedies, skin lotions and similar makeshifts. Once the bowels are emptied and regulated, the headache and the pimples and blotches disappear. It is the rational, natural method.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin lasts a family a long time, and all will find use for it from time to time. Thoughtful people are never without it in the house.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative. FREE SAMPLES - If you have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 468 Washington St., Mendocino, Cal. If there are bottles at home, ask for a copy of Dr. Caldwell's book, "The Care of Belief."

University Club Gives a Reception And Dance to Honor Gen. Erwin

The largest and most brilliant dance given by the members of the University club this season was the military ball given on Friday evening at the club in compliment to Brig. Gen. James B. Erwin, Col. James J. Hornbrook and the military members of the club.

The great silk fling of the 15th cavalry division was draped upon the wall and American flags were further used in decorations about the room.

Ferns and palms were banded in the windows and in the open fireplace and the orchestra was placed beyond a palm embankment.

The arch dividing the grill room and lounge was transformed into a shower of blossoms of the season.

Waterfalls, masses of roses in tints of pink and bleeding to the crimson glory of the American Beauty, beneath this arch, stood the receiving line, including Norman Walker, president of the University club; Mrs. Walker, Brig. Gen. Erwin and Mrs. Walker; Mrs. James J. Hornbrook and Mrs. Hornbrook following.

The University club circles were a delightful feature of the dance and prior to the intermission the musical walls were danced. This dance was very beautiful, a rindy moon appearing and disappearing during the number.

An ace in white, bearing the yellow star emblem of the general's rank, was served during the intermission and at this time a very delightful program of musical numbers was given.

"Tex" Griffin gave a pianolo followed by a song by Miss Nellie May Bowen.

Phoebe Campbell gave a grand solo. A certain spotlight enhanced the beauty of her dance and her costume of green tulle.

Frank Sheek sang in beautiful voice. Miss Campbell gave another pretty number, a Spanish dance. Her costume at this time was in the rich Spanish coloring and the spot light.

The wives of the club officers were business for the evening. Among the pretty frocks worn was the ruffled black sequin pleated tulle over a foundation of cloth of silver, worn by Mrs. Norman Walker. The front and back panels were heavily embroidered with silver in rose designs.

Mrs. Hornbrook was gowning in a costume of bell-bottoms, combined with deeper tones of tulle in the violet shades.

Mrs. Sted Wolkyns wore a frock of white net, her hat a large model of white organza.

Mrs. Ben Lewis was gowning in black silk net built over a foundation of orange tinted satin.

Mrs. William Spence wore a frock of white net with dash of blue satin.

Mrs. Arthur Cox's gown was of silver embroidered net over white satin.

Miss Nellie May Bowen's frock was of blue organza worn with a small hat of pink.

Miss Elizabeth Stevens wore a gown of tulle in tints of peach with touches of silver about the bodice.

Miss Grace Fitch was frocked in peach blue satin, combined with tulle in the same shade.

Miss Bea Murtie's gown was of

The dances given by the Saltus club last night proved to be a splendid success. Delightful music was furnished throughout the evening by a jazz band, and there was a general state of enjoyment throughout the entire evening. The guest list included the following:
