

SAYS STOCKMEN FAVOR NEW LAW

Rev. L. R. Milliken Tells Benefits of Dudley-Buchanan Bill.

Stockmen and all owners of the surface rights of lands bought from the state but not the oil and gas rights are well pleased with the passage of what is known as the Dudley-Buchanan bill which has just passed the Texas legislature...

This bill provides that after the present leases expire, said Mr. Milliken, "that the owner of the surface rights will act as the agent of the state in leasing or otherwise developing the oil and gas possibilities..."

"The bill also provides that any one can lease 10,000 acres, instead of 25000 under the present law. There was no fight on the bill except that it was amended so that the state get 10 cents an acre and the oil and gas 10 cents an acre..."
