

Kid George and Johnny Sudeberg Meet Tonight

MIDDLEWEIGHTS ARE READY FOR TAP OF BELL; BOTH CONFIDENT

George Declares That He Is in Better Physical Condition Than Ever and Will Have No Excuses to Offer for His Defeat; Lieut. Ted Rothermund Returns to Take Charge of Bout; Some Fast Preliminaries.

FOR the first time since his decisive victory over Kid Gleason in one round, Johnny Sudeberg, southern department military middleweight champion, will pull on the gloves tonight in a Fort Bliss arena when he enters the roped enclosure to battle Fred Kid George, of California. The bout will also be the first to be held between middleweights at the post since the Sudeberg-Gleason affair, and is expected to be but the forerunner of some snappy bouts which will be staged as a result of the combination of the efforts of the Fifth and seventh cavalry regiments to promote clean boxing.

It is planned to much increase the size of the present arena and reconstruct it on the order of a hippodrome.

Rothermund Returns.
Lieut. Ted K. Rothermund, athletic officer of the Seventh cavalry, returned to El Paso from Cloudcroft Thursday and assumed charge of the staging of the show. The first preliminary will start promptly at 8:15, when little Battling Chick No. 2 faces a local boy in the ring. Young Jodie, the flyweight, who was to have been the opponent of Chick, retired from the ring several days ago and a fast snappy boy has been engaged to take his place. Chick himself is a clever little battler and has made a big hit with the fans whenever he has appeared in a local arena.

There will be other preliminaries prior to the semifinal between Battling Hawks, of the Fifth cavalry, and Fitzsimmons, of the medical corps. Fitzsimmons is a clever boy in the clinch and is expected to show the fans something new in the line of millin. His victory over Silent Bowling several weeks ago, stamped him as a cool headed boxer, who can give as well as take a punch.

Principals in the headline contest of the evening are in splendid condition and the bout is expected to be well worth seeing. Kid George has secured a guarantee to the fans that they will see a battle, and inasmuch as Lieut. Rothermund is very careful of the class of boxers who are put on in the cavalry shows the bout should be a good one from every angle.

Sudeberg to Get Chance.
In making the match the seventh athletic officer felt that Sudeberg was entitled to a chance in one of the local boxing stadiums instead of putting on an outsider for successive shows, and as George showed himself to be a worthy opponent, every sign of his signature was obtained to a set of articles.

The arena will be a big surprise to the fans, as it has been thoroughly gone over under the direction of Lieut. Rothermund, athletic officer of the Fifth cavalry, assisted by the constructing quartermaster at Fort Bliss.

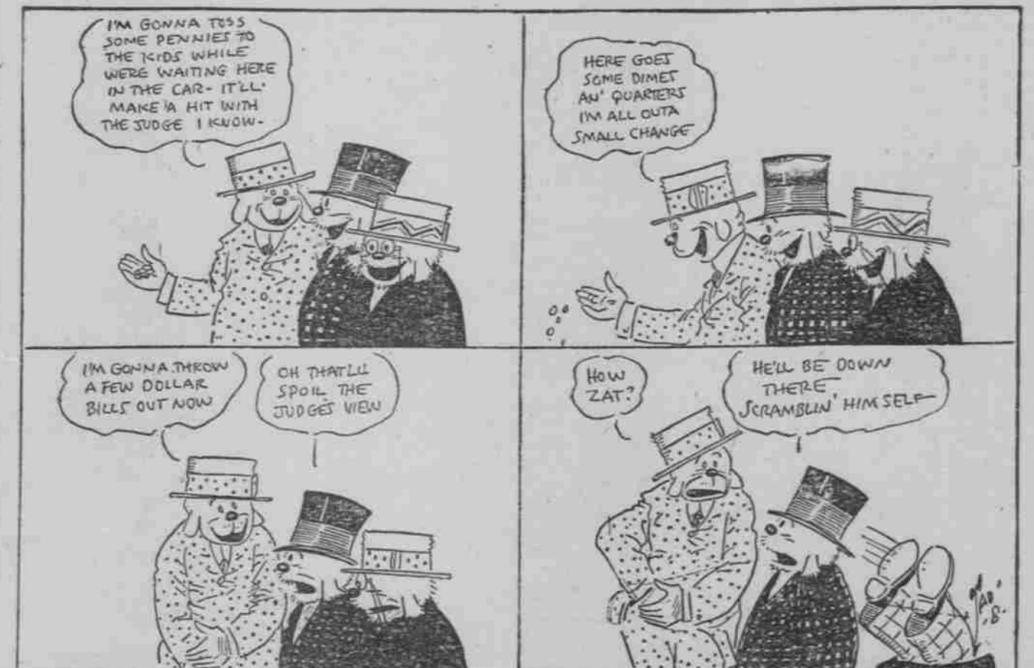

Many Tickets Sold.
The arena is the old headquarters building at Fort Bliss. Cars of visiting fans can be parked on the public square and a guard cavalryman will be placed over them. Tickets may be obtained in the downtown section and at all army exchanges.

Jack McDonald, at the Wigwam, is again trying to exceed the limit of the boxing arena, but he is already disposed of a record crowd will greet the boxers.

FOREIGN CLUBS BID FOR MATCH BETWEEN CARPENTER AND JACK

French Titleholder Is Being Groomed to Meet Hard Hitting American Champion; Cochrane, London Promoter, and Paris Handlers Anxious to Arrange a Match Between Two Men; McGorty Is Overseas.

PROVIDING Georges Carpentier, the French champion, can keep up his end by winning all his fights during the fall season, it looks as though the next big championship affair in the heavyweight class will be between the Frenchman and Jack Dempsey, and may be decided in the United States.

Whether or not Tex Rickard, who was working in conjunction with the army, navy and civilian board of control in New York city, to bring about the National Sporting Club's offer of a purse of $125,000 for Dempsey and Carpentier and Paris promoter, Tommie McCarthy, who has Kearns, manager of Dempsey, says they will have to come over here to try with the Frenchman. It reports that is his privilege.

Will Near $5,000.
The plans of the new club, patterned after the National Sporting club of London, call for a seating capacity of 35,000, and it is understood that a purse of over $125,000 will be offered for the match. It will be an exclusive affair and the members of the club will be able to pay $100 a seat, and only clubs with open air arenas will be able to compete with them at all.

Carpentier, by his defeat of Dick Smith in Paris, by the knockout route, has made a splendid start in his comeback. Smith was a light heavyweight and formerly held that title in England, but he is not the strong foe that Joe Beckett will be expected to face.

Eddie McGorty, who is a much more formidable foe, but the chances are that Carpentier will steer clear of him.

of the Wisconsin boy for a while. McGorty is going good in England just now and none of them are anxious for his game.

Away From Faison.
George will also do well to keep away from Fred Faison, who is over there, for if he does not the lanky giant from Michigan will be hard on a K. O. on him. Therefore there is little chance of Frederick getting a try with the Frenchman. It reports that is true about Beckett the latter is going to be dangerous for Carpentier.

Cochrane Wants Bout.
Promoter Cochrane of London has offered a purse of $125,000 for Dempsey and Carpentier and Paris promoter, Tommie McCarthy, who has Kearns, manager of Dempsey, says they will have to come over here to try with the Frenchman. It reports that is his privilege.

No Doubt clubs in the states will offer as much as any of them. Domestic Tommie McCarthy of New Orleans has already bid around $10,000 and the Green City Athletic club of Milwaukee may be ready to bid $10,000.

There is no finer club in the country than the Milwaukee organization with a seating capacity of 35,000. There is little chance, however, of Carpentier coming to the states to fight with the Milwaukee club.

By that time Jimmy Cochrane, the San Francisco promoter, may get into the act. "Sunny Jim" has been approached on the matter and may even serious thought to it. Until that time Dempsey will be in the line, doing theatrical work and possibly keeping in condition by taking on some of the heavyweights who think they have a chance against him.

Earl Mohan Would Like To Bring Ralph Lincoln Here

RALPH LINCOLN, Pacific coast bantam and feather weight champion is anxious to see Earl Mohan, who is looking out for the business of the little flash, is making overtures to bring Lincoln to this city for a match with Nick Gundy, the local favorite. Lincoln received a decision over Nick at Bisbee several weeks ago, and inasmuch as the former Seventh cavalryman is anxious to wipe that mark from his record by a clean victory and Lincoln is considered one of the best boys of his weight in the country, many fans favor the signing of the fast little man. Lincoln has an open challenge to meet anyone of his weight in the country.

Tommy Nelson Says Leonard Is Real Lightweight Champ

LIGHTWEIGHT champion Benny Leonard, who has been tendered an offer to box southern department titleholder Tommy Carter at Miami during the early part of September, has one admirer in El Paso who considers him one of the greatest little men ever produced by the division. This admirer might slinger is none other than Tommy Nelson, the fast featherweight, who boxed with Leonard on the Pacific coast when the champion was taking a brief vacation several months ago. Benny pulled on the gloves for several sessions at Jack Doyle's Vernon training arena, near Los Angeles, in order to keep in shape, and Nelson is one of the boys who faced the champ.

Jim Wilde, English Champ, Will Tour Through The U.S.

AMERICA now has offered up two of its leading bantamweight contenders to the cause of Jimmy Wilde, only to have the British lightweight sensation tumble the lesser contenders into the discard. By his defeat of Pat Moore, of Memphis, Wilde reigns supreme among the contenders for the crown now worn by Pete Herman. And it is quite likely that English admirers of the little pugilist will make it more than worth while for Herman to journey to London to defend just how far Britain is to be commended among the pygmies of the ring.

Wilde, however, wants to hunt the Tankes dollar down in its own lair. The little fellow whom the English call a pocket edition of the late Bob Fitzsimmons, is turning a cold eye on promoter Cochrane's bid for a return match with Pat Moore, at Olympia, and is casting longing glances toward these shores in the hope of finding a boxing bonanza.

Leonard is a real lightweight champion, who uses his head all of the time. He has not got a mark on him to show for his climb in the lightweight ranks and is one of the greatest boxers I have ever met. Tommy declared to a number of friends Thursday evening.

MAY'S PITCHES FIRST.
New York, Aug. 4.—New York and St. Louis broke even in their double header Thursday, St. Louis winning the first. Carl Mays, the pitcher supposed for the season by Ben Johnson, president of the American league, pitched the second game for New York on the strength of the injunction obtained by the New York club, prohibiting the American league from presenting Mays from pitching. Papers to that effect were served Wednesday night on Hillbeard and McGarity, the umpires, and Robert Quinn, the manager of the St. Louis team. The umpires held a consultation but made no effort to stop Mays from pitching. There was considerable badinage by St. Louis over the ball Mays was using and another Philadelphia pitcher, one of the balls to forward to league headquarters.
