

Bedtime Stories For The Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGLY AND KITTY KAT.

BY HOWARD R. GARRIS. "Hello, Kitty Kat!" barked Jackie...

backed the strange, bad dog. "And here's another puppy chap who will help me," he said...

their teeth and growled so hard at the strange, bad dog that the unpleasant chap was glad enough to run away far off.

I rushed up the tree in such a hurry to get away from the dog that I didn't stop to think about being afraid. But now I'm scared. I dare't come down!

hopped up and saw what was the matter, he said: "Now you stay right there, Kitty Kat! I'll hurry back to my hollow stump tomorrow and get my airship. Then I'll sail over the tree, take you out and down, and get you to school in time."

And Uncle Wiggly did just that. In his clothesbasket airship, with two circus balloons to make it rise up, he sailed over the high tree, and Kitty Kat, who had been so afraid, was so glad to see him that she came out all right.

HUNT FOR HUNTER

SACRIFICE-LEASE IN HOMER FIELD. Have an option, good until Saturday noon, on ten acres in Section 1, Township 21, Range 1, Homer Field. This is between the average cost to Chas. M. Roberts at $40,000.00 per acre and the Bank's well, which is reported on the sand, ready to drill in. When this well begins flowing the value of this lease will immediately advance to upward of $100,000. I absolutely cannot afford to lose this opportunity, but in order to expedite my option must have twenty people at $100.00 each or forty at $50.00 to make balance of $1,000.00 required. Mr. J. H. Henderson, Cashier of Security Bank and Trust Company, has agreed to act as Temporary Trustee, and hold all money in escrow until deal is completed, when a meeting will be held of all interested and a permanent organization will be effected. I am not in favor of this lease being used for stock selling purposes for I realize the big profits are made on sale or development of leases. I will be pleased to give further information. J. C. KIMMER, 408 First National Bank Bldg., Phone 1178.
