About Broadway Plays And Players

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—"Hah," a comedy by Edward Childs Carpenter, made from the "Sub-Dub" sketches of Mary Roberts Rinehart, will begin an engagement at the Park Theatre Monday evening. Helen Hayes will have this title role. George C. Tyler, in association with Arthur Hopkins, is making the production. Besides Miss Hayes the company includes Tom Powers, Percy Harwell, Robert Hudson, Lillian Ross, Sam Edwards, Arthur Hildon, Edith King, Stephen Davis, James Kearney and Helen Gurnay.

"THE MANDARIN" BOON. "The Mandarin," described as "a play of another world," adapted by Herman Bernstein, will have its first production in America, October 25, at Syracuse. Brandon Thomas is featured in the cast. We are informed that "psychologists and all interested in Freud and psychoanalysis" will be attracted by the play. From this we infer that nobody will attempt to enter a "hazy" number in the show.

"JUST SUPPOSE" NOVEMBER 1. Henry Miller's theater will be closed tonight with the final New York performance of "The Famous Mrs. Fair," and will not be reopened until November 1, when A. B. Thomsen's play, "Just Suppose," produced by Mr. Miller and presented under the management of A. L. Erlanger, will open an engagement there. "Sleeping Beauty," originally intended for this house, will remain on tour a few weeks in order that needed revisions can be made.

HONORS FOR US TWO. J. Zigfeld, Jr., is being honored just at this time because he has been named to judge a beauty contest in Cairo, Egypt, in February. The invitation comes from Mollie M. Nebl, an official of Cairo. The letter explains that all Mr. Zigfeld's expenses will be paid and that he will be feted by the city, if he will accept. Very fine, word say, but listen! The writer of this column has been similarly honored. Mollie M. Nebl, manager, an official of Keith Hollow, has invited us to judge a war whoop contest between the chorus girls of "Tip Top," led by princess Walthers, and the "Tip Top Yachank" war veterans who are appearing at the Jefferson theater this week. We accept the invitation, but we want to warn those Yachankers that they'd better begin to loosen up their lungs. We've seen the girls and, well, do you remember the "Come Along" son, "When They're Beautiful They're Bound to Get 'Em" enthusiasm?

Be Sure Your Creases Are The Right Kind. Properly creased trouser legs and coat sleeves bespeak the well-groomed man. Other creases may indicate extreme carelessness in the matter of personal appearance. Be sure your creases are the right kind. Take care of your clothes. Keep them looking new and spotless. Our cleaning and pressing service will keep your clothes right and increase your self respect.

GOSSIP. Mrs. Burgoyne Hammer will play "Madam Godder" at the Little Theater this afternoon and evening. "Water Madame" played to 2884 persons at the Fulton in four performances recently. Rebel Hitchcock, Raymon's property horse, has an important role in "Hilgert Koo-1920." Charles Dillingham has engaged Ursula O'Hara for the Fred Stone company. She was Ourseliana in "Everywoman."

FOOLISHMENT. A sweet little girl named Miss Binks was brooding some seat at Dear Lake. One day she got. On the seat it was hot. And gook, she was burned at the stove!

THOUGHT FOR TODAY. We have it on good authority that Miss Mollie Nebl told George Hitchcock was interesting and George

FROM THE CHESTNUT TREE. Actor (in Higginville)—Have you got music in your theater? Manager—No; only the local orchestra.

Q. What is being done to help players in scenes so that they can move easily portray emotions without being disturbed by studio noises? A. In some movie studios an orchestra plays during the taking of the scenes. It distracts the minds of the players from disturbances in other parts of the studio. Jazz is played while farces and comedy are being filmed, while sentimental music aids the portrayers of dramatic or tender scenes.

Q. To whom is Bert Lyell married? A. Bert married Evelyn Vaughn five years ago. He is five feet ten inches in height, has brown hair and hazel eyes and weighs 155 pounds.

Q. How old is Robert Gordon and what was his beginning in the movies? A. Bob is 25. His first appearance in the movies was in mob and ballroom scenes as an extra.

Q. When did Louise Huff re-enter the movies and with whom did she last appear before a temporary retirement? A. Louise reappeared in films only a few months ago after two years of retirement. She was last seen with Jack Pickford.

Q. What are the outstanding features of some of the male movie stars? A. Everybody upon observing a famous chin dips recognizes its owner as Errolt Washburn. George Walsh and Doug Fairbanks belong to the peppery brigade. Kerrigan's kinky hair and Gene O'Brien's smile are famous. Wally Reid is a male fashion plate. The "eyes" have it when Dick Barthelmess or Ben Turpin are mentioned, not that they are alike but that they are so entirely different and are both prominent
