

BOMB OUTRAGES IN SPAIN CAUSE MUCH DAMAGE

Internal Machine Explodes in Bishop's Room While He Prays in Chapel.

Madrid, Spain, Dec. 4.—Bomb explosions are reported in many sections of Spain, considerable damage being done in various cities last evening.

No Boll Worms Found In Cotton About Pecos

Pecos, Tex., Dec. 4.—No boll worms have been found in the Reeves and Ward county district surrounding Pecos, according to the latest report of the federal horticultural inspection service.

350 MEMBERS OF FARM BUREAU NETTED BY DRIVE

With a total of 350 members, the El Paso county farm bureau has practically completed its drive for membership, according to H. C. Stewart, county farm agent.

TWELVE HOUR DAY OBSOLETE SAYS EXPERT

New York, Dec. 4.—Declaring no economic necessity exists for the 12-hour day in steel plants and advocating substitution thereof for the three shift system, Horace B. Drury, secretary of the Industrial Relations division of the United States shipping board, reviewed his three months of investigation of the industry before a forum of engineers and public officials.

Parent-Teachers To Meet At Alta Vista School

The next meeting of the Alta Vista Parent-Teachers' association of the Alta Vista school will be at 8 o'clock next Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Nantucket Lightship Blown From Station

Boston, Mass., Dec. 4.—Nantucket Island Light vessel, one of the most important aids to navigation on the Atlantic coast, was reported missing from its station today.

CROWD RIOTS WHEN REFEREE STOPS MATCH

Finch Bout Halted by Decision, Theater Almost Wrecked by Angry Fans.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 4.—Patrons of a wrestling match between William Demetrius, "the Greek demon," and Jack Linow, billed as the "Titanian Lion," staged a riot which police officers were called to quell at the Haymarket theater, when referee Johnny Meyers gave a draw decision at midnight, stopping the match.

5 INDICTED ON FRAUD CHARGE IN SHIP PROBE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.—Indictments for conspiracy to defraud the shipping board have been returned in five cases by the United States grand jury at Philadelphia, Pa.

TO PROSECUTE SCIENTISTS IF PATIENTS DIE

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 4.—Patrons of non-medical theaters were threatened with prosecution for manslaughter or neglect upon proof of failure to provide proper medical attendance for their children by Thomas J. Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles county, in a letter to Dr. H. M. Smith, president of the Los Angeles County Medical society.

MRS. M'SWINEY LANDS; CROWDS THRONG PIERS

New York, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, who died on a summer strike in Bryn Mawr prison, Lower Merion, quickly down the same plank from the big grey liner Celtic this morning, landing here on her long journey to appear before the committee of one hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

5 INTERVENTIONS ARE FILED IN SPENCE CASE

Five interventions have been filed in the district court in the bankruptcy case of Frank A. Spence. An appraisal of the estate is asked by the Exchange bank of Carrizozo, N. M., in which it is asked that the Spence estate be sold to satisfy judgments.

Wilson's Brotherinlaw Quits College For Bank

Berkeley, Calif., Dec. 4.—Edward Elliott, brotherinlaw of president Wilson, and Dr. J. R. Douglas have resigned their professorships in the department of political science in the University of California to take positions with a Los Angeles bank.

CAPEX EXPECTS NEW TRIAL

C. D. Casad, of Los Cruces, found guilty of manslaughter, will appeal the case on Friday to get a new trial before sentence is pronounced, according to his friends. A trial verdict was released on bond and went home.

SANBURN WILL ATTEND CATTLEMEN'S MEETING

J. N. Sanburn, left El Paso Friday, to attend the convention of the "California Cattleman's association" convening at Salt Lake City, Utah, December 7 and 8. Sanburn expects to be gone one week.

ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER HELD

C. W. Walker, charged with theft of under $10 following alleged shoplifting activities, was arrested Friday afternoon by detective sergeant Charles Matthews.

MARATHON MAN ILL HERE

L. D. Stimpson, of Marathon, Tex., relative of police captain and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, is seriously ill at local hospital. He was brought to El Paso Friday.

OFFICIALS GO HUNTING

R. D. Richey, county tax collector, and county judge H. S. McClintock, have gone to the Big Bend district to hunt deer. They will be gone a week.

MRS. M'SWINEY LANDS; CROWDS THRONG PIERS

Widow of Late Lord Mayor of Cork Will Testify Before Committee.

New York, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, who died on a summer strike in Bryn Mawr prison, Lower Merion, quickly down the same plank from the big grey liner Celtic this morning, landing here on her long journey to appear before the committee of one hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The little woman, clad in mourning, was accompanied by Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor who made the journey with her. They were greeted by a reception committee surrounded with the tri-color banner of the Irish republic.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

Outside the entrance to the pier, on West street, hundreds of men, women and children wearing mourning bands and carrying flags of the Irish republic were massed to greet the two women, but they appeared from a different exit than was expected, stepped into a waiting taxicab and were well started before the crowd knew they had landed. Immediately efforts were made to form a parade to escort Mrs. MacSwiney to a Fifth avenue hotel.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

MRS. M'SWINEY LANDS; CROWDS THRONG PIERS

Widow of Late Lord Mayor of Cork Will Testify Before Committee.

New York, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, who died on a summer strike in Bryn Mawr prison, Lower Merion, quickly down the same plank from the big grey liner Celtic this morning, landing here on her long journey to appear before the committee of one hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The little woman, clad in mourning, was accompanied by Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor who made the journey with her. They were greeted by a reception committee surrounded with the tri-color banner of the Irish republic.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

Outside the entrance to the pier, on West street, hundreds of men, women and children wearing mourning bands and carrying flags of the Irish republic were massed to greet the two women, but they appeared from a different exit than was expected, stepped into a waiting taxicab and were well started before the crowd knew they had landed. Immediately efforts were made to form a parade to escort Mrs. MacSwiney to a Fifth avenue hotel.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

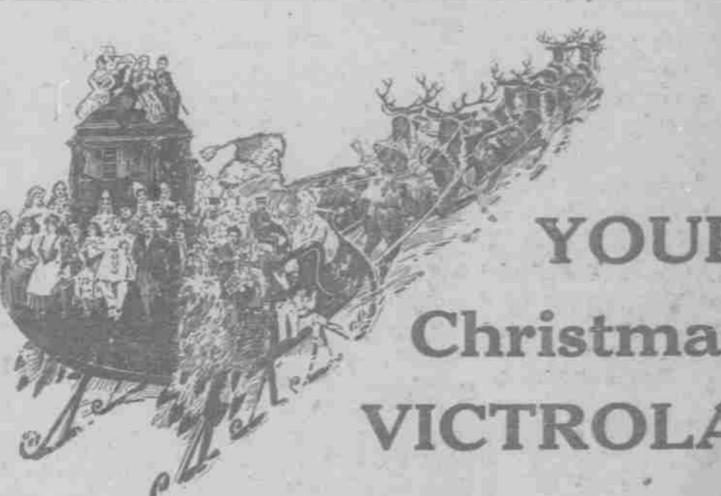

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

WIDOW OF LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

The taxicab had reached Fifth street, seven blocks from the pier, before it was halted, and the well-wishers fell into line, a hand struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the Irish republic air, cheers were rendered and the parade was in full swing. The city officially welcomed Mrs. MacSwiney through Grover A. Wilson, committee chairman of plans and structures representing mayor Hugh Downs the day J. L. Parsons, Irish consul at New York, and personal representative of Edmund de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived at New York, and Gerard Villard of the committee of one hundred, met Mrs. MacSwiney going to the Celtic on the pier.

YOUR Christmas VICTROLA

Choose it Now--Choose it Here. Now is the time to choose the Victrola which is to gladden your home this Christmas and the Christmases to come.

This is the place to choose your Christmas Victrola because we make a specialty of Victrolas and their records. Since we handle nothing else we can give you a superior quality of service.

Have You Heard the December Records?

Among the vocal records for this month there is one by Santa Claus which will bring joy to the kiddies' hearts. There are four dance records which challenge your feet to keep still and eleven magnificent Red Seals.

TRI-STATE TALKING MACHINE CO. 309 N. Oregon Street—Mills Building. The Home of the Victrola in El Paso.

DIAMONDS The Gift Everlasting. There is a distinctive and life long sentiment always associated with diamonds. Sheldon Jewelry Co. Oregon at Mills. OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

"Lady Dear" Why Don't You Surprise Him With a Suit? Hand-tailored by us. He No Doubt Needs It. After All That's What Counts—To Get What We Need. Our Special Christmas Offer. All Wool, Hand-Tailored Suits, made on the premises $50.00. FRIEDKIN Tailoring Company 314 E. San Antonio. Phone 795. SPECIAL Sunday Turkey Dinner Cheaper Than You Can Eat at Home—75 Cents. 11:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. MENU Chicken with Rice Celery Salad Lettuce, Roast Young Turkey with Cranberry Sauce Tomatoes Marbled Potatoes Corn Butters Hot Mince Pie Or Ice Cream and Cake DRINKS Coffee Milk. BOLTON'S CAFE 412 E. San Antonio St. Phone 1908.

SOAP SALE!! First Great Monthly Sale in Order to Further Advertise Our ROYAL "BLUE LABEL" COFFEE Beginning Today, December 4, we will sell to each retail purchaser of one pound of Blue Label Coffee, 9 (full 8 oz.) bars of Crystal White Soap for 50c. 1 lb. "BLUE LABEL" COFFEE $.50 9 bars Crystal White Soap .50 Total $1.00 We Have 25,000 Bars of This Soap—Come and Get It. No Soap Delivered. PAN-AMERICAN COFFEE CO. 208 Mill St.

WOOD Very Cheap Phone 2245 830 S. El Paso St. CAPT. P. R. OUTLAW TO BE DISCHARGED AT FORT BLISS. CAPPER BILL TO STOP GAMBLING IN FOODS. BAKER AT GLOBE IS KILLED IN DOUGH-MIXING MACHINE. MARATHON MAN ILL HERE. OFFICIALS GO HUNTING.

CREDIT The merchant who gives credit is a public servant. He must buy his goods and pay for them to the wholesaler, taking all risk of damage in shipment and carrying insurance on goods stored. Rio Grande Furniture Co., 109 S. Stanton. "Walk A Block And Save A Dollar."