Ward as a Lecturer.

Mr. Frederick Warde is a gentleman, a scholar, an actor, and also one of the best platform speakers in the country to-day, on Friday, February 25, he addressed the students of the state normal school at St. Cloud, Minn., on "Shakespeare and His Plays." The president of the school and students went fairly wild, and pronounced the address the most interesting and instructive they had ever heard. Mr. Warde has been a close student of Shakespeare for many years, and it is safe to say that he probably knows more about the Immortal Bard than anybody living to-day.

The lenten season is here and F. Bosson & Co., have provided for it with a supply of choice salted and canned fish at bedrock prices.
