

C. L. COLLINS.

YOU MUST KNOW

That there are SHIRTS made to SELL and those made to wear. Some of flimsy—others of GOOD STRONG material—well sewed and that have wearing qualities.

I AM SHOWING

lines of MADRAS, CHEVIOT and other double and twist goods THE BEST VALUES that can be had with full yoke, double stitched, felled seam, the best shirts made, for 50 cents My lines of heavier quality, fancy Oxfords and TWILLS—none made better—nor with more care for 75 cents.

THEN MY 25 CENT LINE.

Many in this community have tested their splendid wearing qualities, have only a small quantity left and can't get more.

I HAVE A NEW LINE

Of shirts for 20 Cents for harvest use. These will do for the old Baches and those desiring a shirt to throw away after using once.

TO THOSE

Who have trouble getting a shirt long enough in sleeves, without getting a neck large enough to jump through. I want them to see my shirts—made to obviate that difficulty.

THE VARIETY

Of patterns shown in the prices mentioned above are sure to please the most fastidious.
